…nists Start Trouble Near Building Where Reichstag Opens

…ies Smash Windows in Expensive Stores Owned by Jews

BERLIN, Oct. 14. (Tuesday) (AP)—Rioting by rowdy elements in the heart of Berlin's fashion-able shopping district broke out early this morning while crowds of curiosity seekers returning from theaters lingered in the vicinity of the Potsdamerplatz on the destruction wrought by Fascist bands yesterday.

BERLIN, Oct. 13. (AP) — Rioting left and Right-wing enemies of the republic kept the central part of Berlin in a turmoil for several hours this afternoon and over-shadowed the opening of the new Reichstag.

The disturbances started near Unter den Linden, within a stone's throw of the Parliament building, at the edge of the Tiergarten. Here Communists gave the mounted and foot police a bad time when hundreds of guards stationed about the Reichstag building at-tempted to sweep a vast throng from its entrances.

FASCISTS RIOT

… along the Leip-… Berlin's elite shopping …, several hundred Fascists took advantage of the disorders at … and burst forth into a demonstration of which the chief … was the smashing of numer-… windows in expensive shops owned mostly by Jews, and the fir-ing of pistols into the air.

A few injuries were report-ed in spite of the heavy gunfire and the virtual reign of terror that held for some time in that part of the city.

By this evening the police au-thorities announced order had been restored in all sections of the city and described the events as a "mere … which would not be al-lowed to go further. An official … said fifty-three per-sons were arrested.

TROUBLE ANTICIPATED

The police activities obviously were handicapped by the need of maintaining a strong force around the building. It was while almost the entire police force was quelling the Tiergarten riots the Fascists broke loose in the shopping district.

Trouble had been anticipated in view of the open hostility toward the government expressed during … testimony by Adolf Hitler, head of the Fascist party, recently …, and the opposition of Communists to the Republican program.

Among the establishments stoned were Wertheims', of Lieuziger-

JONES LAW STANDS UP

Supreme Court Refuses Ruling

Issue of Constitutionality of Legislation Believed Not to Have Been Offered

"Five and Ten" Statute May Be Challenged Again by Some Other Person

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—An attack on the constitutionality of the Jones law under which a violator of the Volstead Act can be sent to prison for five years and fined $10,000 failed today before the Supreme Court.

The suit came from Missouri. Two St. Joseph residents, Hugh McElvogue and William J. Brown, challenged the statute under which McElvogue was sentenced to the penitentiary for a year and Brown four years.

As is customary, the court in refusing to pass on the constitutionality of the dry law gave no explanation.

MAY COME UP AGAIN

The challenge to the statute was made on appeal to the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals. Those familiar with Supreme Court procedure pointed out that in such circumstances the tribunal generally decides a question of constitutionality has not been properly presented.

Denial of the petition for review does not preclude the court at some future date from passing on the constitutionality of the statute.

The Jones act, passed in 1929, says it was the intent of Congress to "discriminate between casual or slight violations and habitual sales of intoxicating liquor, or attempts to commercialize violations of the law."

Counsel for McElvogue and Brown argued the delegation to the trial judge of authority to classify the offense and determine the punishment violated the Constitution.

ANOTHER ATTACK FAILS

Another legal attack on a conviction under the Jones law also failed today before the court. Frank Ross was convicted of violating the liquor laws at the Viaduct Club, Elm Grove, near Wheeling, W. Va., and was sentenced to two years in Atlanta penitentiary. At the court's last term he asked a review, arguing the violation of which he had been convicted should be treated as a misdemeanor. His plea was refused and today his request for a rehearing was denied.

Marco Colpo of Buffalo township, near Butler, Pa., failed to get a review of his conviction of liquor law violations and Sigvard B. Johnsen's attempt to have reconsidered his conviction of giving false testimony in a liquor case was turned down. Johnsen, former chief boatswain in the Coast Guard, was accused of perjury in the trial of John V. Lloyd and others in San Francisco in 1928.

A review, however, was granted

NEGROES IN TOWN FLEE MOB'S IRE

Colored Trio's Confession of Hold-up Murder Stirs Hegira in Missouri

ST. GENEVIEVE (Mo.) Oct. 13. (AP)—More than 100 Negroes, practically the whole Negro population, have left town tonight following the confession of three Negroes, two men and a woman, to the murder of Harry Panchot and wounding of Paul A. Ritter, both white, yesterday.

The only two Negro families left here are guarded tonight by militiamen called together by Gov. Caulfield at the request of Sheriff Zeigler to prevent mob action.

The three accused Negroes, giving the names of J. C. Lee, Guy Taylor and Vera Rogers, were taken secretly to the Hillsboro jail, thirty miles away, following their confession that they shot and killed Panchot, a lime-kiln laborer, and shot Ritter and threw him into the Mississippi River in the course of the hold-up. They admitted throwing rocks at him when he attempted to swim ashore.

From the Hillsboro jail the Negroes were taken to St. Louis for safe-keeping. Sheriff Zeigler said he believes the feeling here has been lessened during the day. While militiamen from Company G at De Soto and Company M at Festus patrol the town no further threat of mob action is expected.

Crash of Plane Kills American Author and Wife

TOULOUSE (France) Oct. 13. (AP) Two Americans who were killed in an airplane yesterday near Larache, Morocco, were Ternille Dix, a writer, and Mrs. Dix.

Dix was born at East Orange, N. J., in 1902.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13. (AP)—Ternille Dix, reported killed in an airplane crash near Larache, Morocco, was the son of William Frederick Dix, a vice-president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, whose home is at East Orange, N. J.

Three months ago an American house published the young man's first book, "The Black Baron," a biography of Gilles Derais, the medieval "Bluebeard." The father, also a writer, is treasurer of the Authors' Club.

Ternille Dix was married about a year ago to Monica Gobel and they went to Europe last spring, planning to return in about a month.

Auto Fire Kills County Clerk

BONHAM (Tex.) Oct. 13. (AP)—F. C. Priestley, County Clerk of Fannin county for four years, was found burned to death in his automobile in Sulphur Creek bottom today.

There was no indication of how the automobile caught fire. Priestley was sitting at the steering wheel, his body burned almost beyond recognition.

FACTORY TO LACK WINDOWS

Solid-Wall Structure in East, Costing $1,500,000, to Be Artificially Illuminated and Ventilated

CLEVELAND, Oct. 13. (AP)—Award of a contract for industry's first windowless factory building, a $1,500,000 plant entirely without sunlight, and embodying radically advanced ideas for scientific creation of artificial lighting, ventilation and other working conditions, was announced here today by the Austin Company, engineers and builders.

The structure will be built for the Simonds Saw and Steel Company at Fitchburg, Mass. It will occupy five acres and will be one story in height.

CONFIDENCE VOICED

A. T. Simonds, president of the saw company, advised the engineers the decision to build at this time is based on the confidence of the concern's officials that business recovery is near, and their belief present construction costs are favorable for immediate expansion against future needs.

The unique building will have solid, sound-resisting walls. Its roof will have neither windows nor skylights. Illumination will come from hundreds of 1000-watt electric lights arranged to provide uniform light intensity which is rarely possible in daylight factories dependent on the cleanliness of windows or upon the weather.

ODD COLOR SCHEME

One of the many innovations will be the painting of machinery in orange color to increase their visibility and help reduce accidents. Walls and ceiling will be blue, green and white.

The ventilation system will bring fresh air to all parts of the structure after purification and temperature regulation. Cork pads will be used under heavy machinery and other efforts made to keep noise at a minimum.

Construction is to be started within a few weeks.

Polish Premier Periled in Plot

WARSAW, Oct. 13. (AP)—Discovery of a Socialist bomb plot against the life of Marshal Joseph Pilsudski, Premier of Poland, was announced tonight by the semiofficial Iskra agency.

Eight members of the Polish Socialist party were arrested here and accused of preparing the plot. The authorities searched the headquarters of an illegal Socialist militia group and found a large number of revolvers and rifles.

Casualties Told by China's Chief

NANKING (China) Oct. 13. (AP)—President Chiang Kai-shek, speaking at the National government office today, said that in the recent revolt the total of the rebel armies was 600,000 and that they suffered 150,000 casualties. He said the Nationalist armies lost 35,000 killed and 60,000 wounded.

CHINESE PIRATES ROB STEAMER PASSENGERS

HONGKONG, Oct. 13. (AP)—Chinese pirates posing as passengers today held up the steamer Sunnamhoi on the West River, killed two of the shipguards, seized four guards and thirty passengers, and escaped with $9000 in valuables. Bandits ashore co-operated by firing on the ship while the hold-up was taking place.

DRY LAW ARRESTS DECREASE

Prohibition Bureau Gives Report Showing Decline for Three-Month Period

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP) — A decreasing number of arrests for violations of the dry laws through the months of July, August and September was shown today in the monthly report of the Prohibition Bureau.

September arrests totaled 4899, as compared with 5759 in August and 6448 in July.

At the same time a huge increase in convictions, fines and jail sentences was reported, due to the Federal courts resuming their activities after the summer recess.

Conviction by juries totaled 288 for September, as compared with 41 in August, and pleas of guilty totaled 3885 for September, as compared with 1211 in August.

There was a corresponding increase in fines assessed from $143,451 in August to $411,214 in September. Total jail sentences reached 589,551 days in September, as compared with 55,455 in August.

During the month of September, 6282 new cases were placed on the dockets of the Federal courts. Unfinished cases totaled 23,007 on August 31, and 24,553 on September 30, an increase of 1546.

Nationalists in Clash With Cuban Guard

HAVANA, Oct. 13. (AP)—The newspaper El Pais says Nationalists and the Rural Guard clashed at San Vicente, Santa Clara Province, today, and two of the guard were injured.

El Pais reports Juan de Dios Perez, one of the speakers addressing an assembly of Nationalists, was cautioned by members of the guard against using abusive language against the government, and when he persisted, an attempt was made to disperse the gathering.

A short fight ensued, in which the Nationalists threw bottles and stones, El Pais asserted. The guard, using the flat sides of their machetes, established order.

Survey to Curb Gas Loss Urged

ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.) Oct. 13. (AP)—A nation-wide study of methods to prevent waste in production of natural gas was proposed today at the American Gas Association convention.

H. C. Cooper of Pittsburgh, chairman of the technical and research committee of the association's natural gas department, made the suggestion. He proposed the United States Bureau of Mines and the American Petroleum Institute co-operate in the study.

Arizona Fails to Hold Up Funds

Comptroller-General Rules Against Interference With Boulder Project

Supreme Court, However, Grants State Permission for Test Action

BY LAURENCE M. BENEDICT
By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (Exclusive)—The State of Arizona today lost its fight to have Comptroller-General McCarl hold up funds provided by Congress for the construction of Boulder Dam. The Comptroller's decision was announced by Secretary of the Interior Wilbur, who declared that the work put under way last month at Black Canyon "will proceed with all possible expedition."

Simultaneously the United States Supreme Court granted Arizona permission to test the constitutionality of the Colorado River project with a suit against California and the other States in the river basin and against Secretary Wilbur as administrative officer. This was merely a technical action on the part of the court. The Arizona suit was filed last Monday, along with the request that it be received.

DATE SET FOR REPLY

The order of the court gives the government until January 5, 1931, to reply to the Arizona contentions. However, it is understood the Solicitor-General's brief and any supporting briefs he may ask from the States, the city of Los Angeles, Metropolitan Water District of Southern California and the Southern California Edison Company will be ready for filing within a few weeks and that the government counsel will couple with its own quick handling of the matter a request that the high court set an early date for a hearing.

It is the hope of government officials and counsel that a final decision may be had by early in January so the litigation will not interfere with the plans of the Interior Department and Budget Bureau for asking additional funds for Boulder Dam from Congress this winter.

TWELVE-PAGE DECISION

The Comptroller-General's decision has been communicated to K. Berry Peterson, Attorney-General of Arizona. It fills twelve pages and concludes as follows:

"Accordingly, in specific answer to the question submitted I have to advise that there appears to be nothing presented by the State of Arizona requiring or justifying a holding by this office that the appropriation made for the specific purpose of commencing construction of the dam and incidental work in connection with the Boulder Canyon project act is not available for that purpose. Therefore, no action will be taken to withhold approval of withdrawals of funds for such purpose."

Objection had been made by Arizona that the contracts executed by the Interior Department for the sale of power to the city of Los Angeles, the Metropolitan Water District and the Southern California Edison Company are invalid because of asserted inability of the city and the Metropolitan district to make the contracts. In overruling these objections the Comptroller-General called attention to the fact that the same argument had been presented to the Attorney-General who had ruled in favor of the validity of the contracts and to the committees of Congress, which recommended the initial appropriation based on these contracts.

STRIKE ON AT EDISON FACTORIES

Sixteen-Year Peace Ends as Polishers' Union Calls Out Eight Members

WEST ORANGE (N. J.) Oct. 13 (AP)—For the first time in sixteen years labor union trouble developed today at the plant of Thomas A. Edison.

Members of the local polishers' and buffers' union were ordered on strike by officials of the union. H. J. Dumpert, business representative of the workers, said a recent cut in wages by Edison industries would allow a man to earn only 70 cents an hour, against 93 and 97 cents under the former scale.

Ten union pickets were stationed outside the gates today. Police kept them moving, but did not attempt to drive them away. There was no disturbance.

The company said only eight men at the plant are members of the polishers' union and on strike.

Several thousand persons are employed in the various departments.

Three Soldiers Hit by Shrapnel

COLUMBUS (Ga.) Oct. 13. (AP)—Three soldiers at Fort Benning here were injured seriously today by shrapnel from a shell which burst when one of them dropped it. Those injured were Privates George Fullbright, Herman Eller and George Duzek.

Will Rogers Remarks:

BEVERLY HILLS, Oct. 13. [To the Editor of The Times:] The Harvard College paper says the American Legion convention in Boston was "just one wild party." Poor Harvard papers; they have a habit that is just bordering on genius for saying the wrong things. Imagine any college paper criticising somebody for giving a wild party. Wait till another war comes and let the Harvard editorial staff fight it, and then they can show how a convention should be conducted. Where the mistake was made was in not asking our boys when recruited if they ever took a little nip and if they did why not allow 'em in our war. In that way we could have had a respectable war, but lost it.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

FILM BLAST CLIFF HIDES ADDED PERIL

Huge Store of Explosives Still Buried at Scene of Disastrous Explosion

FLAGSTAFF (Ariz.) Oct. 13. (AP) Officials of the Pathe Film Company said here tonight a charge of approximately 750 pounds of explosives remains buried in the face of a cliff in Dinosaur Canyon, seventy miles northwest from Flagstaff, where Saturday a miscalculated blast sent rocks showering down on the heads of forty persons, injuring fifteen seriously, one perhaps fatally.

Attempts will be made, they said, to explode the cache by firing off dynamite on the surface over the spot where it is buried. Wires over which it was intended to send an electric spark to set off the explosives were destroyed by the blast in which more than two tons of black powder and dynamite were exploded.

Little hope is held for the recovery of William F. Wallace of Flagstaff, most critically injured. Wallace, employed by the picture company as a chauffeur, suffered a fractured skull.

Other victims brought to the Flagstaff Hospital for treatment are recovering.

The condition of two of those injured, patients in a Tuba City hospital, is reported tonight as unchanged. Frank Galland of Los Angeles, one of them, suffered a possible fracture of the skull and body injuries. His condition is critical, but physicians say he will recover.

Nye Phone Leak Blamed on Rats

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—Echoes of the wire-tapping charges that have hovered about the Senate campaign funds committee penetrated to the Senate Office Building today when employees in Chairman Nye's office found what they considered evidence that his telephone wire had been tampered with.

In an investigation that followed the appearance of a light on the telephone switchboard when no person had lifted the receiver in the Senator's office, they discovered the insulation was gone from the wires, bringing them into contact.

The telephone inspector blamed the incident upon rats.

REBELS WIN HOT FIGHT

Brazil Federals in Flight

Government Troops Routed With Heavy Losses in Five-Hour Battle

Engagement on Sao Paulo Front Most Desperate of Revolution

PORTO ALEGRE (Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil) Oct. 13. (AP) — Revolutionary troops engaged in an advance on the State and city of Sao Paulo fought for five hours today with Federal troops, between the towns of Carlopolis and Offonso Camargo, near the Parana-Sao Paulo frontier. An official revolutionary announcement said the Federals were routed with a heavy loss in dead, wounded, prisoners and supplies.

The revolutionary troops, consisting principally of the First Battalion, commanded by Col. Alcides Etchegoyen, also suffered some casualties.

The Federals were said in the official announcement to have fled toward Carlopolis, leaving behind them important supplies, including several machine guns.

The battle was characterized as the most desperately fought of the revolution thus far, and was regarded here as marking a stage in the series of engagements along the 200-mile Parana-Sao Paulo front in which the rebels are contesting the Federals for possession of Sao Paulo.

REBELS CAPTURE FEDERAL STRONGHOLD

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 13. (AP)—News coming through Uruguayan sources today indicates the Brazilian rebels have routed the Federals from their last stronghold in Southern Brazil by capturing the city of Florianapolis.

That important trading center in the State of Santa Catharina has been virtually the only place in Brazil south of Sao Paulo the government has held since the revolt began nine days ago. While rebel troops marched from the extreme south of the country, the State of Rio Grande do Sul, and went northward through Santa Catharina toward Sao Paulo, the Federals had held the coastal city and used it as a base for small operations against the revolutionaries.

Capture of the city—if confirmed—means the rebels can consolidate their lines from the southernmost part of the republic to the Parana-Sao Paulo border region, where they have engaged the troops of President Washington Luis Pereira da Souza in an effort to reach Sao Paulo.

FEDERAL REPORTS

Rebel sources claim continued advances against the government, although their announcements are disputed. Gen. Miguel Costa, insurgent commander on the Sao Paulo-Parana front, reported he had crossed the Sao Paulo border and captured the towns of Ourinhos, Singues and Punto Ribeira, with his forces continuing toward Itarare, important railhead on a line leading to Sao Paulo.

Gen. Costa told of other conflicts in his area, saying on his left insurrectionary troops had captured both Jacarezinho and San Jose da Platina, State of Parana, where the Federals fled without fighting. He added another force under Atalviva Leonel had crossed the Sao Paulo border.

Dispatches from Rio de Janeiro quote the Minister of Justice as saying 2000 insurgents were beaten off at Punto Ribeira. As to the Jacarezinho conflict, he asserted 2000 Federals had routed the rebels and had begun a southward march into Parana, heading for the city of Colonia Mineira.

Military observers here say the only thing definite is that fighting

TEXAS RIVERS ON RAMPAGE

Floods Caused by Heavy Rain Menace Town of Brady Second Time Within Week

DALLAS (Tex.) Oct. 13. (AP)—Fed by heavy rains which poured off already water-soaked lands, Texas streams went on another rampage today, spreading their waters beyond their banks for the second time in a week.

Brady, a town of 5000 population in McCulloch county, again bore the brunt of the discomfort and damage of the flood water when the Brady River again overflowed, flooding fifteen business houses and coming within two or three feet of last Monday's high-water mark, when $350,000 damage to stocks in sixty business houses was done and 200 persons were made homeless.

Aroused from their slumber by an alarm sent down the stream from Eden, where a torrential rain sent the river on another rise, residents of Brady went from their beds before dawn to build improvised levees of cement and sand bags in an effort to ward off the second inundation in eight days.

After rising within two feet of the Courthouse Plaza, which was submerged last Monday, the waters began to recede, but not until scores of persons had been forced to flee from their homes.

The South Concho River at Christoval left its banks and four feet of water stood in the Santa Fe Railway station. It was the biggest rise recorded there since 1906.

Four hundred head of sheep were drowned, trapped in the shipping pens. The river was 900 feet wide. The Concho waters washed out 300 feet of Santa Fe Railway track between Valera and Talpa.

The Canadian River in the Panhandle swept away two railroad trestles, one each for the Fort Worth and Denver and the Rock Island, tying up railroad traffic north and northwest of Amarillo.

The Colorado River was up eighteen feet at Ballinger and Elm Creek was on a fifteen-foot rise. However, no damage was anticipated. The streets were flooded after 6.21 inches of rain fell within three hours.

THREE RAILWAY BRIDGES IN OKLAHOMA GO OUT

THOMAS (Okla.) Oct. 13. (AP)—Flood waters, sweeping down the South Canadian River from the Texas Panhandle, paralyzed railroad traffic in Western Oklahoma today when bridges of three railroads over streams in Dewey county were washed out.

Bridges of the Santa Fe and Frisco railroads north of Thomas were carried away by the floodwaters. The Missouri-Kansas-Texas Company's bridge in Western Dewey county previously had gone out.

The river reached a nine-foot stage tonight. Another four-foot wave was reported on its way to Dewey and Custer counties from the Texas Panhandle.

Pile driving equipment was rushed to the scenes of the washouts by the railroads tonight, ready to make repairs as quickly as the water has receded.

MAL DAUGHERTY HELD FOR FRAUD

Brother of Former Cabinet Member Indicted

Bankrupt Banker Accused of $34,000 Embezzlement

Kin Provide $40,000 Bail to Obtain His Release

WASHINGTON COURTHOUSE (O.) Oct. 13. (AP)—Mal S. Daugherty, president of the defunct Ohio State Bank, and brother of former U.S. Atty.-Gen. Harry M. Daugherty, was indicted today on fifty-eight counts charging embezzlement, misapplication of funds and falsification of the bank's condition.

The counts were contained in fifteen indictments returned by the Fayette county grand jury in connection with its special investigation of circumstances surrounding the failures of the Ohio State and the People's and Drovers' Bank here last summer. An additional indictment was reported against Virgil Vincent, grain dealer, charging perjury.

DECLARED BANKRUPT

After making its partial report, the grand jury adjourned until November 12, next, when it will resume the inquiry, which was ordered by Prosecutor W. S. Paxson following involuntary bankruptcy proceedings against Daugherty. He was declared a bankrupt after admitting his inability to pay $77,000 in promissory notes held by the two banks.

Daugherty surrendered to Common Pleas Judge H. M. Rankin late today and was ordered held under $40,000 bond pending his arraignment. Daugherty later arranged to have the bond signed by his brother Harry, who lives in Columbus, and his mother, Mrs. Jane Daugherty, of Washington Courthouse. Daugherty was not released, however, until his brother arrived from Columbus and furnished his share of the bond. No date was set for arraignment.

VINCENT'S CASE

The indictment against Vincent resulted from asserted false statements before the grand jury in which he denied he had borrowed money from the Ohio State Bank and later gave the funds to Daugherty. The State claimed that such a transaction occurred.

County officials said the indictments were based on the findings of Cecil L. Hall and Frank Schaeffer, Cincinnati accountants, who went over the bank's books at the Prosecutor's request. Daugherty is asserted to have misappropriated $34,000.

FASCISTS HURL STONES IN RIOT

platz, one of the finest department stores in the world. Thirty-six large plate-glass windows were smashed there, a sight which attracted thousands of persons after order had been restored. The fact stones were picked up amid the finery in these displays and others, the police said, proved the outburst had been planned. Since there was no place within a large radius where the stones might have been found, the police said they must have been brought here in anticipation of violence.

AREA PATROLLED

Police lorries patrolled the shopping districts tonight ready to put down any renewal of the anti-Jewish demonstrations. This afternoon, however, so empty had been the locality no arrest was made.

Thus, the new Reichstag, which emerged from the sensational elections of September 24, made its bow to the world today while the shouts of a riotous demonstration were raised outside the chamber and the session within was enlivened by taunts and catcalls of the costumed Fascist delegates and their enemies of the Extreme Left.

Germany's legislators presented anything but a dignified picture. The Hitlerites whistled shrilly to drown out their opponents' voices and the Communists greeted the roll call of names like that of Chancellor Bruening with shouts of "the hunger dictator" and similar cries they deemed appropriate to the person.

Neither of these radical wings showed the usual respect given in the German Parliament for the custom by which age is elevated to high place, this time with the placing in the chair of Carl Herold, as President pro tem. Herr Herold, an 82-year-old Centrist, made himself heard only with the greatest difficulty.

There were shouts of "Mail Hitler" from the brown-shirted and black-booted National Socialists. While the members were qualifying for their duties by answering the roll call the cloak rooms were buzzing with animated discussion of an announcement by the Economic party it is withdrawing the Minister of Justice Johannes Bredt, from the Cabinet.

Conferences were held and President Von Hindenburg had little difficulty in prevailing upon Minister Bredt to remain.

RULING DENIED ON JONES LAW

in one liquor case which is expected to set an important precedent. The Waterloo Distilling Corporation of Waterloo, N. Y., gained a review of the forfeiture of its property in a lower court under the internal revenue laws. If this confiscation stands, persons not connected with the violation, who own an interest in the corporation, cannot recover their property.

Max and Fannie Rein and the Senaca Solvent and Chemical Corporation, who claim a deed to the property, contend the government, having elected to punish the asserted offense under the prohibition laws, cannot forfeit the property under the internal revenue law.

Dog Betrays His Owner to Police

CHICAGO, Oct. 13. (AP)—Joseph Galiani today was in a position to refute, if he wanted to, the statement sometimes made that a dog is man's best friend.

His dog, found by two policemen on the upper story of a garage along with a still, scanned the big crowd that had gathered to watch the raid, singled out Galiani and leaped toward him, wagging his tail. Galiani admitted, police said, his connection with the still.

MORROW QUIETS PRESIDENCY BEE

Eliminates Himself as 1932 Candidate

Hoover Indorsed in Senate Campaign Speech

Advocacy of Prohibition Repeal Reiterated

NEWARK (N. J.) Oct. 13. (AP)—Dwight W. Morrow, opening his campaign for election to the United States Senate on the Republican ticket, reiterated tonight his advocacy of repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and eliminated himself as a candidate for the Presidency in 1932.

Speaking from the same platform where five months ago he first expressed himself in favor of repeal and a return to State control of liquor traffic, he repeated that view, commended warmly President Hoover and the national administration, and concluded:

> "I look forward with pleasure and confidence to the opportunity of voting two years from now for the renomination and re-election of Herbert Hoover."

The Senate nominee said it is idle for any Republican to contend that the United States is not passing through a period of depression, a period when substantial unemployment exists.

"Merely because I am a candidate for public office," he said, "I do not for one moment underestimate the suffering that hard times bring to many people whose margin of saving has been small.

WANTS TO HELP

"Rather I want to recognize frankly the situation that exists and do what I can to assist those public and private agencies which are trying to remedy the difficulties."

Mr. Morrow had been mentioned after the primary in which he won from three opponents by a plurality of almost 400,000 votes, as a Presidential possibility.

Tonight in his tribute to President Hoover Mr. Morrow said: "President Hoover stands today a potent and positive factor for peace in the world—peace at home and abroad. His wise action in bringing the leaders of business and labor together one year ago has contributed in a great degree to an avoidance of those conflicts between capital and labor which so often in the past have complicated our periods of depression and delayed our industrial recovery.

HOOVER PRAISED

"At a time of stress when so many parts of the world are in disorder, our foreign affairs have been conducted with dignity and wisdom. President Hoover's, initiative and driving force created the London disarmament treaty, which eliminated for the first time in the history of the world competition in all classes of naval armament among the three leading nations of the world.

"I am not speaking with the authority of the President of the United States, or even with his knowledge. I do have the right to say, however, that in my opinion the Republican national administration with President Hoover at its head will be judged two years from now by the patience, the calmness, the sympathy and the courage with which it has carried on the government during the period of adversity through which the American people are passing.

"Moreover, I have the right to say, especially in view of wholly unauthorized statements made during the primary campaign about my own position, that I look forward with pleasure and confidence to the opportunity of voting two years from now for the renomination and re-election of President Hoover."

BITTERNESS WANING

The most effective cure for hard times, Mr. Morrow said, rests with the people themselves, and every employer who maintains his plant and his organization is making a substantial contribution to the return of prosperity. He commended the unions for their efforts to maintain a healthful standard of living, to increase productivity and to avoid unnecessary strikes.

Through the history of the country, Mr. Morrow saw a gradual breakdown of bitterness between political parties.

"All parties," he said, "including the Republican party, have been wont to credit themselves with whatever good times happened during their term of power, without looking for the deeper reasons that underlie the ebb and flow of prosperity. Any party which takes credit for the rain must not be surprised if its opponents blame it for the drought. But no Republican need shrink from a discussion of commercial depression and the conduct of the Republican administration in regard to it."

The nominee is "inclined to agree," he said, with the position of the Democratic party in New Jersey that national prohibition is not an issue in the Senatorial campaign.

URGES TEMPERANCE

"I do not believe the fundamental problem can be reached by an amendment of the Volstead Act," he said.

Continuing almost word for word in the language of his first primary address he said, "so long as the Eighteenth Amendment and statutes thereunder are the law of the land, I favor generous appropriations for their enforcement."

"What I sought to do last spring, and what I seek to do now is to urge in the discussion of this world-old problem of temperance a more temperate attitude on the part of those who differ in opinion.

"My own opinion is clear that there should be a further change in the Constitution. It will not come as a victory of the liquor interests. It will come when the moral leaders of this land realize that the present experiment is a failure."

REBELS SEIZE FEDERAL BASE

has occurred, whoever may have been the victor.

While their main force is concentrated in the south, the rebel chieftains assert gains in the northeast and the central portions of the country.

Capt. Juarez Tavora, conqueror of Pernambuco, has invaded Alagoas with 10,000 men and captured the capital, Maceio, setting up a revolutionary junta for the State. He declares all Brazil north of the River Sao Francisco is in rebel hands, with his army continuing across the river and into Bahia.

The other rebel movement is from Minas Geraes into the States of Bahia, Espirito Santo and Rio de Janeiro. The insurrectos report the capture of Caravellos, port of Southern Bahia, and say their armies are marching through Espirito Santo toward Victoria, the capital. Other forces, they say, have invaded Northern Rio de Janeiro and near Ciudad Campos have captured the power plant along the Parahyba River. This plant supplies much of the State with electricity.

These claims also are disputed by the government in dispatches reaching here, the Federals saying the Minas Geraes rebels were beaten off in their attack on Caravellos, with three leaders and many others being captured. The Federals also say they defeated a detachment of rebels in the loyal State of Goyaz, taking the leader, Pedro Ludovico, and seventy others, with 200 more being routed.

CAPITAL SCENE OF REBEL ROUND-UP

RIO DE JANEIRO, Oct. 13. (AP)—Capture of a group of revolutionary plotters hiding in the Federal capital in the hope of leading an uprising against the government when revolutionary troops approached the city, was announced today by the Federal authorities.

Among the leaders arrested are Jose Bonifacio and Afranio de Mello.

A heavy movement of troops toward the front continues here and in Sao Paulo, soldiers, police and volunteers going forward by trainloads and truckloads.

The government announces its soldiers are advancing on two fronts in Sao Paulo and Minas Geraes and denies all reports of rebel successes in the southern states.

It is said the rebels in Rio Grande do Sul have been unable to move any considerable number of troops across the border of Santa Catharina owing to slow transportation.

The Federals assert that rebel troop trains are obliged to run only at night in order to escape bombing by Federal airplanes.

Despite claims of success, the government asserts the rebels have done nothing important during the past two days. The country north of Santa Maria da Bocca do Monte, Rio Grande do Sul, where Getulio Vargas was last reported, is sparsely settled farming land. It is asserted that rebel troop movements across this tract have been greatly delayed.

The Federal plans for a campaign at present include concentration on an advance in Minas Geraes toward the State capital, Bello Horizonte, and then a drive southward from Sao Paulo toward the heart of the revolution in Rio Grande do Sul.

The Federals assert the populace in the south is out of sympathy with the revolutionary movement. They say Borges de Madeiras, several times President of Rio Grande do Sul, and head of the Federal party in the State, has offered opposition to the revolutionists, who are obliged to keep watch over him.

AMERICAN PLANES BOUGHT BY GOVERNMENT

RIO DE JANEIRO, Oct. 13. (AP)—Ten Curtiss-Wright guardsman type fledgling airplanes, equipped with bombing racks, and machine guns front and rear, soon will be added to the Brazilian Federal air forces through a contract signed here today by a representative of the Curtiss-Wright company.

The machines will be shipped from New York Friday. The government also is negotiating for amphibian planes armed with three machine guns and two bomb racks carrying ten fragmentation bombs to the plane.

Bombs and ammunition are included in the order for the ten ships.

This is the first sale of American equipment to the Brazilian army, which heretofore has been supplied by France.

Alaskan Fathers and Pilot Picked Up Dead

Experienced Flyer at Stick When Motor Fails

KOTZEBUE (Alaska) Oct. 13. (AP) Two Catholic priests and a pilot were killed here yesterday when the mission plane Marquette crashed. The dead are Ralph Wien, noted Alaska aviator; Father Philip I. Delon, head of Jesuit missions in Alaska, and Father Walsh of the Kotzebue Mission.

Wien had made a test flight before taking up the two priests. The crash came at 3:45 p.m., while Wien was circling the field.

Spectators said the motor seemed to stall and the ship dived to the ground, burying the nose of the plane in the frozen earth. All three were killed instantly.

Brother George J. Feltes, S. J., co-pilot of the plane, was not aboard.

The Marquette, a six-passenger Bellanca cabin plane powered with a 225-horsepower motor, was sent to Alaska from the States this summer. It was to be used by Jesuit priests in visiting their missions in Alaska.

The plane was to be stationed at Holy Cross, 300 miles up the Yukon River.

VICTIM WELL KNOWN AT SANTA CLARA

SANTA CLARA, Oct. 13. (AP)—Father Phillip I. Delon, S. J., who was killed in an airplane crash in Alaska yesterday, attended the convention of the Jesuit order here this summer and for a month conducted services in St. Clare's Church here. He was well known in this vicinity, having been minister of the Los Gatos novitiate from 1909 to 1912 and at the same time pastor of St. Mary's Church, Los Gatos.

MARINES AWARDED NICARAGUAN MEDAL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—President Moncada of Nicaragua has awarded posthumously the Nicaraguan Medal of Merit to seven Marine Corps officers and thirty-two enlisted men who lost their lives during bandit operations in this country from January, 1927, to the present time. The enlisted men include Sergt. Johnny F. Hemphill, Los Angeles.

RAILROAD BRIEF ON PLAZA FILED

State Authority to Order Depot Challenged

Final Appeal Taken Before Highest Tribunal

All Parties Hopeful Issue Will Be Closed

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (Exclusive)—The railroads serving Los Angeles carried their final legal fight against the Plaza Union Station project a step further today when they filed a brief with the United States Supreme Court challenging the authority of the California Railroad Commission and the California Supreme Court to require them to go ahead with the $20,000,000 development.

The brief argued only the matter of jurisdiction, contending that the State commission's order violates the commerce clause of the Federal Constitution and the Interstate Commerce Act, and that power to pass on the project rests solely with the Supreme Court of the United States.

This represents what is felt to be the last legal dodge of the railroads in their effort to sidestep the terminal project. Their appeal from the decision of the California Supreme Court upholding the State Railroad Commission, had already been noted before the high tribunal and the brief today is on the point of jurisdiction alone. It cites seven decisions by the Supreme Court in former railroad cases to show that the court has in the past assumed jurisdiction in similar disputes between carriers on the one hand and local communities and State authority on the other.

Giving the history of the litigation up to and including the decision of the California Supreme Court last May that the railroads must obey the commission order and construct the terminal, the brief of the carriers says:

"Said judgment of the Supreme Court of California held that the Interstate Commerce Commission having issued certain certificates of convenience and public necessity, the Railroad Commission of said State thereupon had power to order appellants to construct the works and do the things for which the Interstate Commerce Commission had so issued certificates; thus in effect converting and transforming a permission from the Federal government into an order by the State government; thereby regulating interstate commerce in a particular in which Congress had already exercised its power to regulate such commerce, contrary to said commerce clause and the Interstate Commerce Act."

A clear-cut decision is hoped for not only by the counsel for Los Angeles and the State Railroad Commission, but by attorneys for the railroads of the entire country. If the Supreme Court does not settle the case in a manner clearly to define the respective powers of the State and Federal commissions in such circumstances, it is feared the effect will be to create a legal vacuum which can be remedied only by act of Congress.

MAYOR OUTLAWS SEIZED LIQUOR AS FIRE HAZARD

POTTSVILLE (Pa.) Oct. 13. (Exclusive) — Mayor Dengler gave warning today that the Federal government hereafter will be fined $100 every day that it stores inflammable liquor in this city.

"The kind of liquor sold nowadays is as explosive as gasoline," the Mayor said. "The prohibition department seizes this liquor in large quantities in all parts of the State, brings it to Pottsville and apparently forgets all about it.

"An explosion of liquor here yesterday damaged streets and sewers of the city, set fire to several buildings and seriously threatened the northern part of the city. If we have to run that risk from bootleg whisky we will at least make a source of revenue from it by imposing daily fines of $100.

HOOVER LETTER ROILS CATHOLIC

Greetings to Lutherans Brings Criticism

Welfare Conference Head Issues Statement

Executive Defended Against Intolerance Charge

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—A letter of greeting sent by President Hoover to members of the Lutheran denomination in the United States was criticised tonight by a Catholic churchman and was quickly defended by a White House attache.

Rev. John J. Burke, secretary of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, charged in a statement that the President "clearly violates the spirit if not the letter of his oath of office as President of the United States" and added that the message was "an insult to many millions of American citizens."

President Hoover was defended by George Akerson, one of his secretaries, who said, "Any such suggestion or implication as that made by Father Burke is an injustice both to the President's own sentiments and the complete religious tolerance he has always felt and has always advocated both publicly and privately."

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The message of the President, which was sent recently to the American Lutheran, a church publication, said:

"I send cordial greetings to the Americans of Lutheran faith who are celebrating October 31 as the anniversary of the Protestant reformation and the 400th anniversary of the reading of the Augburg confession, from which date so many of the changes in point of view from older conceptions both of religion and government.

"The effects of these historical events are reflected in our national life and institutions, in religion through the predominant numbers of adherents to Protestant faiths and in government through the principle of separation of church and state. It is fitting that we should commemorate the persons and events from which mighty forces have sprung."

BURKE'S STATEMENT

Father Burke's statement, which was sent to newspapers from the office of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, said:

"It is altogether in order for President Hoover to send a message of congratulation on the civic work done by Americans of the Lutheran faith, but in the actual message which President Hoover sent to them, for the celebration of Reformation Sunday, the President clearly violates the spirit if not the letter of his oath of office as President of the United States.

"It may matter little that the message is an insult to many millions of American citizens. It may matter little that the statement is historically inaccurate. Luther was not a champion of the separation of church and state, but a most arbitrary defender of state absolutism.

"It does not matter very much to the whole constitutional structure of our country and its institutions that the President of all the people, who is called by virtue of his office to respect the religious rights of all, congratulates one particular religious body on the changes it introduced from older conceptions of religion and government, and declares that we as a nation should commemorate the Protestant persons and the events from which 'these mighty forces shaping our country have sprung.'"

LUTHERAN HEAD DEPLORES CRITICISM OF HOOVER

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) Oct. 13. (AP) Rev. Dr. F. H. Knubel, president of the United Lutheran Church in America, tonight "deplored" the statement of Rev. John J. Burke, secretary of the National Catholic Welfare, concerning President Hoover's letter to Lutherans on the 400th anniversary of the Augsburg convention.

"This is no quarrel between Catholics and ourselves, but between a Catholic spokesman and the President's message," he said. "We do not, therefore, care to enter. But we would not object if the President sent a message to Catholics calling attention to what that church considers historically important.

"So far as we have any opinion, we deplore that from any Catholic source there should be any objection to President Hoover sending a message which concerns the more than 10,000,000 persons of Lutheran origin."

Intruder Shot by Doctor in Protecting Nurse Dies Despite Efforts to Save

CARTHAGE (Mo.) Oct. 13. (Exclusive)—In the stillness of an operating room Dr. W. B. Chapman of Carthage called on all of his surgical skill to save the life of a man who, a short time before, had been shot in a struggle with the doctor.

But the effort was in vain. Three hours later Bernard Grinder, 32 years of age, of Washington, a registered nurse and a graduate of Bellevue Hospital, New York, died of the wound he had received while scuffling with Dr. Chapman in the Chapman Hospital. Grinder's father, Adam P. Grinder, is a member of the Washington Police Department.

Grinder was shot when he refused to leave the hospital after he is said to have entered a nurse's sleeping quarters as she was retiring.

NEW WEAPONS IN CRIME WAR

Death Charge Resurrected Against Chicago Suspect

Prisoner, Reputed Terrorist, Put in Gallows' Shadow

Ancient Statute Provides Long Terms for Gunmen

CHICAGO, Oct. 13. (AP)—An old murder charge and an unused Illinois law were resurrected today as new weapons in Chicago's war on crime.

The murder charge was directed against "Three-finger Jack" White, reputed labor-union terrorist, one of three men arrested yesterday in a raid by police on suburban Cicero, and was a reinstatement of a charge that he shot and killed Edward Pflaum, a patrolman, in a West Side roadhouse on December 13, 1928. He was held without bail.

GALLOWS PROSPECT

If convicted White, who has been listed by the Chicago Crime Commission as one of twenty-eight "public enemies," will face the possibility of hanging, since the crime was committed before Illinois substituted the electric chair for the gallows.

About the same time the case against White was reinstated Judge David recalled an old statute under which a convicted felon, found with a pistol within five years of his conviction, may be imprisoned from one to ten years instead of the single year possible under a gun-carrying charge alone.

PISTOLS IN CAR

Patrick Roche, chief investigator for the State's Attorney who conducted the Cicero raid, reports he found two pistols in a car in which White, George (Red) Barker and Claude Maddox were seated, and Harry S. Ditchburne, assistant State's Attorney, said indictments under the old law will be sought. Barker and Maddox were arrested with White. All three were charged with carrying concealed weapons.

White was once convicted of the slaying of Patrolman Pflaum, but the case was appealed, reserved and subsequently stricken for want of evidence, with leave to reinstate. In reviving the matter Ditchburne said he has turned up two witnesses who disappeared before the original trial.

GIOVANNA TO GET HER WISH

Marriage to Boris in Italy's Oldest Gothic Church, Favorite Edifice, Apparently Assured

ROME, Oct. 13. (AP)—The Princess Giovanna, 23-year-old daughter of the King and Queen of Italy, tonight appeared certain to become the bride of King Boris of Bulgaria in the oldest Gothic church in Italy, where she has so often prayed over the tomb of St. Francis of Assisi.

There still is nothing official either about the date or place of the wedding. There is little doubt, however, the bride will fulfill her wish that the marriage be the great religious event of her life. She is not only devoted to the memory of the saint, but is a tertiary of the Franciscan Order.

PROBABLE DATE

So far as known the wedding will take place on the 25th inst. Premier Mussolini, who under all normal conditions would be present at the marriage, has accepted a speaking engagement in Rome on that day. From this it is inferred there is a desire to avoid all undue emphasis on the importance of the ceremony for several reasons.

Giovanni and her family, it is said in ecclesiastical circles, are eager to show their respect for the Pope by making the wedding essentially religious. This is all the more true because the ceremony in Bulgaria must be considered as contrary to a strict interpretation of church rules, since King Boris is Greek Orthodox.

VATICAN'S VIEW

From the Vatican's point of view, however, the Bulgarian ceremony will be construed as a recording in that country of the Italian Catholic marriage, since Orthodox priests there serve as civil registrars of weddings.

From the Bulgarian people's standpoint the ceremony may be regarded as a marriage in their favor. This will make the Bulgarian ceremony, combined with the coronation, the more important. Such a combination will be acceptable since, under the constitution, the King must be married in his own country.

HOOVER'S GOOD WISHES FORWARDED BY MINISTER

SOFIA (Bulgaria) Oct. 13. (AP)—Henry Shoemaker, American Minister, today sent to King Boris the following telegram:

"In behalf of the Honorable Herbert Hoover, President of the United States of America, it gives me great pleasure to convey to Your Majesty the President's sincere felicitations and hearty congratulations upon the occasion of your engagement to Her Highness, Princess Giovanna of Italy, and to wish you many years of happiness and prosperity."

PARASITES MOW DOWN FRUIT FLIES

War on Pest in Hawaii Succeeds After Failure of Artificial Means

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—A natural enemy of the fruit fly has brought results in combating the pest in Hawaii where artificial means failed but the Department of Agriculture considers the Hawaiian method would have little place in an eradication effort such as has been under way in Florida.

The department said the natural enemies, parasites imported from Australia and South Africa for the purpose, had destroyed almost half of the fruit fly larvae in Hawaii while clean-up and spray could not be effective because the host fruits of the fly were wild or not of commercial importance.

The opposite is true in Florida, however, it said.

Dog Blamed for Death of Youth

SANTA MONICA, Oct. 13.—An inquest will be conducted Wednesday at the Kirkelle, Bernard & Peek Mortuary, Venice, over the body of Harold Bell, 20 years of age, Western Union messenger who was killed last Saturday while riding his motorcycle near Castle Rock. A dog running across the street is said to have caused a crash between the motorcycle and a car driven by M. Gordon of Venice, who was not held.

Bell, who lived in this city, died at the Santa Monica Hospital from his injuries.

RUM RUNNERS TO BE OUTRUN

New Coast Guard Chief Here Plans Campaign

Faster Boats in Use to Bar Liquor Landings

Relentless Pursuit Awaits Pacific Lawbreakers

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13. (AP)—Fast boats and an elaborate, relentless campaign are going on to drive terror into the hearts of rum runners off the California and Oregon Coasts, Lieutenant-Commander Frank B. Lincoln said here today. The Lieutenant-Commander arrived to take charge of the Twelfth Coast Guard District, embracing ten stations on the California and Oregon coasts.

Rum runners will be unable to cope with the speed of new boats soon to be adopted by the Coast Guard, he said. An improved personnel and an elaborate campaign, Lincoln declared, would give the smugglers a decided setback.

Simultaneously Capt. Eugene Blake reported the recently released Canadian rum runner, Ray Roberts, had become discouraged trying to break through the Guard's patrol and had returned to its base near Guadeloupe, Mexico.

Lincoln was formerly in charge of the Third District, including Narragansett Bay and the Approaches to Vineyard Sound.

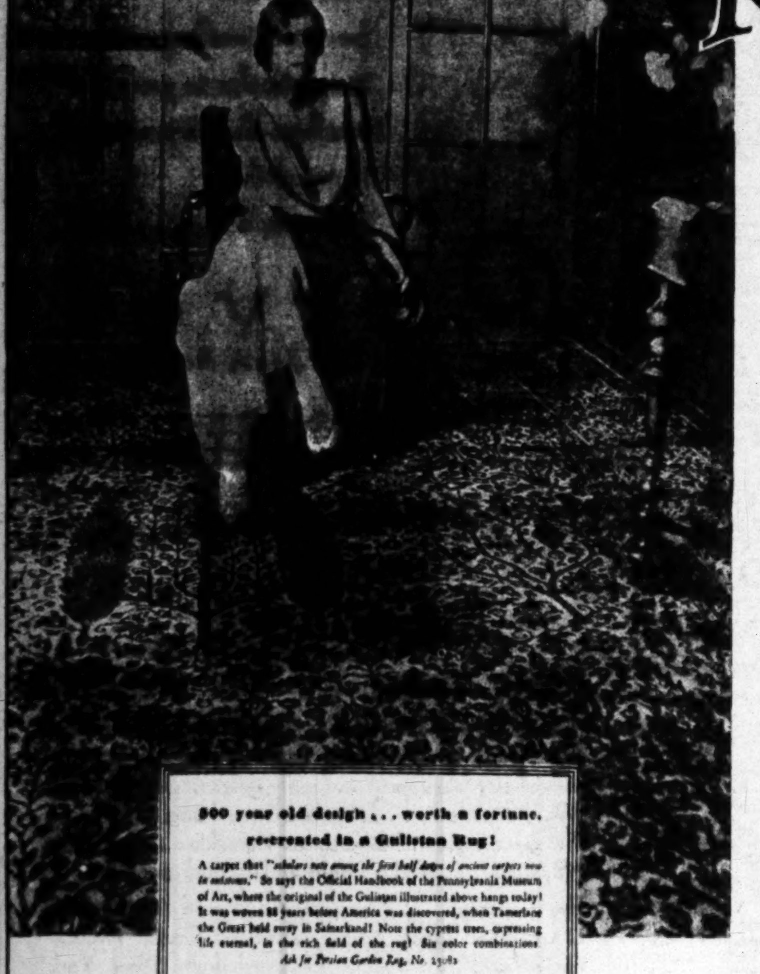
Sensational! New Low Prices Gulistan Rugs!



500 year old design ... worth a fortune, re-created in a Gulistan Rug!

A carpet that "scholars rate among the first half dozen of ancient carpets now in existence." So says the Official Handbook of the Pennsylvania Museum of Art, where the original of the Gulistan illustrated above hangs today! It was woven 88 years before America was discovered, when Tamerlane the Great held sway in Samarkand! Note the cypress trees, expressing life eternal, in the rich field of the rug! Six color combinations.

for 9 x 12 foot size Other sizes in proportion (Prices higher in Canada)

$125

Little wonder that rug values were revolutionized when Gulistan was placed on the market two years ago.

Today, new Gulistans are in the stores. They reveal another amazing development.

Gulistan now places Old Masters of Oriental Rug Art within your reach!

Masterpieces of design originally created for the palaces and mosques of old Persia!

Rugs so cherished by museums that they are really the sentimental property of whole peoples and cannot be purchased even by multi-millionaires!

Moreover, rugs so intricate in design that even reproductions of them in imported Orientals are seldom found!

Does beauty such as this transform a home, a room? One glance gives the answer. Rugs this Fall come ahead of other demands upon the family purse!

But to know exactly what you are getting when you go shopping for rugs, remember these plain facts.

Gulistan is the American product of Karagheusian, the largest makers of Oriental Rugs.

Only Karagheusian can make Gulistan. All rugs so marked come from this famous House.

In Gulistan you have the same sturdy Oriental wool yarns, the finest dyes, the very same finishing process as you get in their expensive Persian and Chinese rugs.

Naturally, all the best stores have Gulistans. Many of them have arranged art gallery displays to show these beautiful rugs appropriately.

Look on the back of the rug for the silken label pictured below. That is your guarantee of authenticity. No Gulistan Rug has been O. K.'d by Karagheusian without it.

There are many designs and color combinations. Sizes from 22½ by 36 inches ($10) to 11 feet 3 inches by 21 feet ($435). Also Stair Carpets and Hall Runners.

CONSULS CHECK PAUPER INFLUX

Officials Abroad Cut Down Immigration Flow

Right to Discriminate Among Applicants Invoked

Only Able and Prosperous Now Given Visas

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—A higher type of prospective citizen is entering the American melting-pot today than under the system of immigration selection used up to the present.

Without any change in the immigration laws, American consuls abroad within a few days have changed completely the type of those coming to this country with the intention of becoming naturalized.

In an effort to relieve unemployment by reducing the number of ill-equipped immigrants, American consular officers from all parts of Europe met in three separate cities recently to discuss a more rigid application of the law permitting consuls to refuse visas to prospective immigrants who, in their opinion, might become public charges.

CASE OF MEXICO

A strict enforcement of these regulations along the Mexican-American border reduced the immigration of common labor from Mexico in a comparatively short period from some 60,000 a year to about 3500. To effect this reduction consuls applied strictly the law permitting them to discriminate between applicants for visas who can support adequately themselves in a profession or have independent means and the laborers whose entry would increase unemployment in the United States.

A study of the European situation disclosed the influx of laborers into the United States was making it possible for foreign labor to undersell American labor. Frequently American citizens were being dismissed to make a place for immigrants who would work for less wages.

Under the new system put into effect at the European consulates, the consul to whom application is made for a visa is now able to employ a wide discretion.

PICK IMMIGRANTS

In this way, visas can readily be confined to persons in professions or trades needing additional help and to persons of independent means who would not deprive Americans of work.

Harry E. Hull, Commissioner of Immigration, commenting on the new system, said he anticipated immediate benefits to accrue to the American laborer.

"Instead of taking each applicant in the order in which his application was filed and permitting him to enter the United States irrespective of whether he can maintain himself or not," he said, "we are now able to select the type of immigrant who will not become a public charge or increase unemployment."

Manager Says Capital's Purse $50,000 Short

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 13. (AP)—The Sacramento city government will face a deficit of at least $50,000 at the end of this year, James S. Dean, City Manager, declared today.

Dean said the deficit results from padding of revenues estimated by a former City Council. Last March when a new city administration took office a retrenchment policy was put into effect when it was discovered there was a paper deficit of approximately $180,000.

This year's deficit will have to be carried over into the 1932 budget, Dean said.

Bank's Former Chief Indicted

CINCINNATI, Oct. 13. (AP)—J. J. Castellini, former president of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks' National Bank, was named today in three indictments returned by a Federal grand jury for asserted violation of national banking laws.

The action was another chapter in the series of events which followed the $1,000,000 peculations of A. W. Shafer, whose stock market gambling operations led to closing the Cosmopolitan Bank and Trust Company and the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks' National Bank.

Shafer is serving a ten-year term for embezzlement.

STATE PEACH CROP LARGEST RECORDED

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 13. (AP)—The largest California peach crop on record was produced this season, the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service announced here today. With harvest completed the production of clingstones was estimated at 482,000 tons, while freestones totaled 211,000 tons. This made California the greatest peach-producing State in the Union.

September brought no tonnage reduction in outlook for any of the major fruit crops, the statisticians said. Scattered showers late in the month caused slight delays in harvest and in some localities quality may have been injured. Inconvenience and extra cost of stacking trays of drying fruit was an important item.

HIGH WIND IN FRANCE RUINS WALNUT TREES

GRENOBLE (France) Oct. 13. (AP) Damage of many millions of francs was inflicted yesterday and last night by a wind of tornado force which swept through the rich walnut-growing district between Vinay and Tullins in the River Isere district. More than 6000 trees were destroyed and it is estimated it will take twenty-five years to replace them. Many persons were made homeless.

RUSSIAN'S DEATH PUZZLE SOLVED

Gen. Koutiepoff's Kidnaping and Killing Admitted

Former Secretary in Soviet Embassy Confesses

White Leader's Activities in France Blamed

PARIS, Oct. 13. (Exclusive)—A confession from a former secretary of the soviet embassy in Berlin that he engineered the kidnaping of Gen. Alexander Koutiepoff here and that one of his agents murdered the White leader has been obtained by the noted Russian journalist, Vladimir Bourtzeff, who took up the investigation when the French police dropped it.

Bourtzeff's announcement rocked the Russian emigre colony of Paris to its foundations and provided a new sensation in the most sensational political crime recently committed. Although Bourtzeff himself admits the impossibility of verifying the confession at present, well-informed circles here are really impressed.

Bourtzeff is not a crank, but a serious, competent newspaper man who has devoted his life to exposing crime perpetrated by the secret police of the Czar and later by the Cheka. Twenty odd years ago he won world-wide fame by exposing the sinister Czarist's agent provocateur, Azeff, and the evidence he dug up eventually took Azeff to the gallows.

CONFESSION VERBAL

After weeks of patient investigation Bourtzeff finally succeeded in wringing a confession from Andre Fikner, who used to be second secretary of the Berlin embassy and later was head of a special Cheka committee charged to watch the activities of emigres. The confession was only verbal and given in the absence of witnesses, but Fikner, who disappeared recently, has fled to an unnamed country where extradition does not exist and promised Bourtzeff to mail a sworn deposition as soon as he arrives safely.

Bourtzeff received from Fikner the following version of the crime:

Worried by the increasing antisoviet activities of Gen. Koutiepoff and the terrorist campaign launching in Russia, the Cheka chief passed on the order to Fikner's death squad to get Gen. Koutiepoff. The instructions called for bringing Gen. Koutiepoff alive to Russia, there torturing to get him to reveal the name of his agents.

RENDEZVOUS NAMED

Accordingly Fikner sent the White chieftain a faked telegram signed by the head of the antisoviet committee of one of the Central European countries saying that the committee was in Paris for a day only and anxious to arrange a secret meeting with Gen. Koutiepoff, who was watched by the Cheka. The telegram gave a rendezvous at a street corner near Gen. Koutiepoff's home.

Not suspecting a plot the White general showed up at the given spot the next day and found a taxi waiting containing three men, one of whom he believed to be a loyal Czarist. He got in the taxi before he realized that something was wrong and then started a terrible struggle. One of Fikner's agents clamped a chloroform mask over Gen. Koutiepoff's face intending merely to subdue him, but the old warrior's heart, which was undermined by wounds and exposure on countless battlefields, broke down and Gen. Koutiepoff did not recover consciousness.

What was done with the body has not been divulged yet, but Fikner told Bourtzeff it was buried somewhere in France. Fikner named as his accomplices Evsei Goldenstein and three other Chekists, Geltan, Erbet and Janovitch, all of whom are known to the Paris police.

Grain Dealers Hit Farm Act

CHICAGO, Oct. 13. (AP)—The government's farm relief program and operation of the Canadian wheat pool came in for condemnation today by speakers before the thirty-fourth annual convention of the Grain and Feed Dealers' National Association.

Charles Quinn of Toledo, secretary-treasurer of the organization, denounced the agricultural marketing act as "wholly unsound, wholly inadequate to bring relief to farmers and wholly unsuited to the psychology of the American people."

Gunmen Victim's Companion Slain

DETROIT, Oct. 13. (AP) — Louis Salvio, who was with Henry Tuppancy when the latter was slain by gunmen, July 14, last, was shot and killed, and Mrs. Grace Triano was seriously wounded at the Triano home early today. Police are searching for Mrs. Triano's husband Felix, who is accused of the shooting by his wife.

More Paralysis Closes Schools

FORTUNE TALE APPEARS SCHEME TO STEAL BRIDE

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 13. (AP) Mrs. Ruth Urban, 22 years of age, told county detectives today she married Leonard Urban, 25, so he could inherit $60,000 from a wealthy aunt and in turn give her $12,000 so she could obtain a divorce and marry the man of her choice.

Urban was held under a technical charge of being a suspicious person pending investigation.

Detectives said they were told Urban informed Reed Miller, a friend and the young woman's fiance, he was to inherit $60,000 from an aunt if he married by the 1st inst. Miller and the girl agreed to Urban's proposal of marriage and divorce, officers said they were told, and the ceremony was performed at Cumberland, Md., September 26, with Miller as best man.

October 1 came and went and Urban said and did nothing about the $12,000. Mrs. Urban, who had not been living with him, had him arrested when he called on her last night.

Sailor's Leave Ends Fatally

LORDSBURG (N. M.) Oct. 13. (AP)—Oliver G. Cox, sailor from the U.S.S. Tennessee, was killed and two other sailors on leave were hurt last night when an automobile in which they were traveling from Los Angeles to El Paso crashed head-on with a car driven by Howard Poole of McCurtain, Okla.

Leon Eppitt and H. J. Chick, the other sailors, were badly hurt. In the car with Poole were his wife and small son, Miss Eunice Hicks and Seines Hicks, 20 years of age. The Hicks boy was most seriously hurt of those in Poole's car.

Ether Too Full for Education

CHICAGO, Oct. 13. (AP)—Legislation is necessary if more educational broadcasts are to gain place on entertainment-crowded programs, Federal Radio Commissioner Lafount told a conference of seventy-five university representatives and associate commissioners today.

A resolution calling upon Congress to pass a law whereby air channels would be given colleges after the fashion of government land allotments was submitted to a committee for study. The meeting was arranged by W. J. Cooper, United States Commissioner of Education.

FALL OF SILVER VEXES MEXICO

Value Drops to 12 Per Cent Below That of Gold

Further Decline Forecast in Official Circles

Government Takes Steps to Check Downward Trend

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 13. (AP)—The fall of silver exchange to 12 per cent below the value of gold currency today alarmed business circles and was the principal topic of comment in the press and Congressional circles.

The normal value of the silver peso is 3 per cent under that of gold, but has been gradually declining recently. It was predicted today that the decline will continue to 15 per cent under gold.

The fall of silver has been accompanied by an increase in the price of prime necessaries payable in silver to 10 per cent over former prices, in many instances. The government has taken measures to check it.

HYDE FIGURES TARIFF SAVING

Secretary of Agriculture Talks at G.O.P. Rally

New Bill Gives Farmer $102 a Year Advantage

Estimate Answers Charges of Ten for One Loss

MOUNT VERNON (O.) Oct. 13. (AP)—The farmer of the United States receives a "theoretical advantage" of $102 a year under the new tariff bill, Arthur M. Hyde, United States Secretary of Agriculture, said in a Republican rally address here tonight.

Hyde made the assertion after a comparison of the tariff rates as applied to various agricultural products and industrial merchandise. He said that the average farm family buys products during the year on which a tariff of $48 is collected, while his entire production is protected by the Tariff Act and he collects approximately $150 a year more than when his products are duty free.

The American market on farm products, Hyde said, is much higher than that of foreign countries thus reflecting the results obtained from protection.

Hyde said his comparison is in answer to assertions of the national Democratic headquarters that the farmer would pay out $10 on the new tariff for every $1's protection he obtained.

The Secretary said that every phase of the agricultural industry now is protected from foreign competition which has saved the American market for the American products.

He added the new tariff bill "offers an opportunity for more profitable diversification and better balance in agriculture which has not heretofore existed."

SOLOMON MUST LOOK TO CROWN

American Farmer to Be Made Wisest Man in World

Federal Bureau to Furnish Exhaustive Information

Foreign Crop Reports Will Give Prices in Advance

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—The American farmer is to have more information than anyone else in the world regarding production and demand for agricultural products all over the globe.

Carl Williams, representative of cotton growers on the Federal Farm Board, is confident that within two or three years the foreign agricultural information service will be able to give exact figures on conditions everywhere.

FROM OWN FUNDS

Without any direct appropriation from Congress the oard has set aside from its administrative fund $260,000 this year to establish a comprehensive foreign service. It has just added three commodity specialists, who are to be stationed in Australia, Egypt and Jugo-Slavia. Foreign representatives of the Agriculture and Commerce departments are taking on a large share of the work.

"If we know at what price world production will stand still in comparison with world consumption," Williams said, "it will be fairly easy to determine what price the American farmer will get for cotton over an average period of years.

"When the farmers know that they will know for themselves whether they want to grow cotton or not.

"The Farm Board's job is to help the farmers not only now, but at all other times. That means that we, in co-operation with other departments, especially the Department of Agriculture, should work out a land-utilization program. In order to do that intelligently, we need to have more information than anybody in the world now has."

FARM BOARD'S JOB

E. C. Paxton, formerly in charge of the crop and live-stock reporting work of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics in Kansas, has been assigned to Sidney to establish headquarters there and act as the bureau's resident representative for Australia and New Zealand.

Percy K. Norris, former head of cotton grade and staple work in Georga, goes to Egypt, where he will make cotton production surveys and collect consumption data.

J. Barnard Gibbs, recently with the crop statistician's office in Missouri, has been assigned to the Danube Basin, with headquarters at Belgrade, the Jugo-Slavian capital.

CURED LEPERS HAUNT COLONY

Many Former Patients Going Back for Treatments

Some in Perfect Health Refusing to Leave

Paroled Men Come From Far to Re-enter Institution

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—The rehabilitated leper who longs for his colony, instead of wanting to live in the work-a-day world, is one of the puzzling problems of the United States Public Health Service.

Instance of a cured leper, who had twice paid his way from a distant city to Carville, La., was reported to public health headquarters here today by the medical officer in charge of the Carville colony.

This particular discharged patient was reported a malcontent during his hospital life, but was anxious to make amends in the hope of readmission for permanent residence, though no longer diseased.

RETURN FOR TREATMENT

The medical officer told of other cured lepers who insisted on returning to the colony physicians for treatment of their ailments, instead of consulting local physicians in their home towns. And he described one case in which a man, "completely cured and in the pink of condition," refused pointblank to leave when discharged.

"He was put in an ambulance by a guard and taken home," the report related.

PAROLED MAN PROBLEM

"He had merely temporarily ruined his digestion. Another drove from Florida in his own car to be treated for a gangrenous finger, alleging the same lack of confidence in the home doctors. A few days ago a paroled patient rode the brake rods from New York to Baton Rouge, and then walked to Carville (twenty miles) for readmission—and he surely needed it for he could hardly drag his feet and was about forty pounds underweight. As soon as we get these chaps in good condition, we release them again on parole."

The medical officer said the problem of what to do with the paroled leper is under serious consideration by many institutions. Some permit readmission for observation, others insist that they shift for themselves.

Immediate Relief for INDIGESTION

WHAT most people call indigestion is usually excess acid in the stomach. Food has soured. The instant remedy is an alkali which neutralizes acids. But don't use crude helps. Use what your doctor would advise.

The best help is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. For the 50 years since its invention, it has remained standard with physicians. You will find nothing else so quick in its effect, so harmless, so efficient.

One tasteless spoonful in water neutralizes many times its volume in acid. The results are immediate with no harmful after-effects.

Once you learn this perfect way you'll never deal in any other manner with the headaches, gas, bloating, nausea, dizziness, indigestion, biliousness, etc., due to an over-acid stomach and bowels.

Be sure to get genuine Phillips'. It is always a liquid; never made in tablet form. Look for the name Phillips on the bottle. All drugstores—25c and 50c.

PHILLIPS' MILK OF MAGNESIA

The New and Finer

PACKARD

STANDARD EIGHT

You are paying for one - why not own it?

NO new Packards of recent years have offered so many refinements and improvements as the new series Eights now on display at our show rooms.

Yet the new cars embody no radical changes—no experimental features. Last year's luxurious Packards—the finest of all fine motor cars—have simply been made finer still.

The new Packard Standard Eight, for example, offers more power through improved carburetion and manifolding—finer performance in traffic and on the hills. Longer and softer springs, together with new shock absorbers, provide still greater riding comfort.

A "short-shift" type of four-speed transmission—easy and quiet—adds to the pleasure of driving. An entirely automatic lubrication system removes the human element from daily chassis care.

Packard designed and built bodies, with shatter-proof glass, are the finest ever mounted on the Standard Eight chassis. The interiors have been refined and improved—new comforts and conveniences added. And in exterior design, the traditional and individual beauty of Packard lines has been retained, as always.

Come and see the new and finer Packard Standard Eight—or let us send one to your door for a day's trial. If you are driving a car of similar size and power you are paying for a new series Packard Standard Eight. Why not try the Packard and see if you wouldn't rather have it?

Operating costs are no greater for the Packard than for your present car. Depreciation, the major cost of car ownership, will be no greater if you follow the example of other owners and keep your Packard longer. These are facts and we can prove them with actual figures taken from your records and ours.

Why not let us show you in black and white that you are paying for a Packard? There is no obligation—and our discussion may lead to your having the car you would really prefer—the distinguished, luxurious Packard Eight.

The new Standard Eight Sedan is priced at the factory at $2385. Your present car, if of average value, will give you possession of your new Packard with little if any initial outlay—and the remainder can be arranged in convenient monthly payments. Isn't the luxury of Packard transportation—at no increased cost—worth looking into?

Unequalled Advantages . . .

LOANS ON HOMES 7%

The outstanding economy and convenience of our residential and income property loans are attracting the greatest loan demand in our history.

Consider the importance of these advantages to you as a property owner:

TERMS OF 5 TO 15 YEARS: Arrange a term to suit your needs, and be freed from the expense of periodically renewing a short term loan. Pacific States Savings' loans may run for 5 to 15 years without renewal and cannot be called as long as the borrower observes the terms of the note.

65% TO 75% LOANS: You may borrow from 65% to 75% of the fair market value of property meeting our qualifications in or near to cities served by our offices.

EASY PAYMENTS: You never have a large payment to meet, for monthly instalments of $8.99 to $15.09 per $1000 pay the loan in full, including both principal and interest.

NO HIDDEN CHARGES: Your note bears exactly 7% simple interest per annum, computed on the balance due on principal remaining after each payment is deducted. You pay, once only during the life of your loan, a moderate office fee, based on the size of your loan, if it is consummated.

SHOULD YOU REFINANCE? You can probably save substantially on your present interest charges and gain the other important advantages offered by our loan facilities by refinancing your present loan.

Why not call and let one of our loan officials show you exactly what you can save through refinancing?

We suggest your personal call. Full information will be courteously furnished and an appraisal of your property quickly made. If you cannot call, send for booklet.

EDITOR FACING TWO INQUIRIES

Nebraskan Bids for Fame of Broken Bow Grocer

Ads Opposing Farm Board Under Investigation

Grain Exchanges Suspected of Backing Campaign

CENTRAL CITY (Neb.) Oct. 13. (NANA)—Robert Rice, editor of a weekly newspaper in this city, seems to be on the verge of attracting even greater attention throughout the country than did George W. Norris, the Broken Bow grocer.

Almost overnight Mr. Norris became a national figure through being investigated by a committee of Senators. But Editor Rice goes the grocer one better. Mr. Rice is confronted by two Federal investigations—one by the Federal Trade Commission and the other by the Postoffice Department.

The reasons for these investigations have aroused considerable interest among farmers in the Middle West. Mr. Rice is editor of the Central City Weekly Republican. Recently he has been publishing page advertisements attacking the Farm Board and its policies. He admits being the "ghost writer" of these advertisements, about fifteen of which have been published in the Weekly Republican since January 1, 1930.

SIGNED BY FARMERS

Nine of the pages have been signed by Nebraska farmers and stockmen and six by men interested in the grain trade. Through publishing the advertisements Mr. Rice has added $525 to the income of his paper, besides obtaining a certain price per 1000 for printing and mailing these page advertisements as circulars to people it was hoped could be interested in the opposition to the Farm Board. The number of these circulars printed and mailed has not been disclosed, but the two investigations are expected to bring this important matter to the attention of the nation.

The main object of the Federal Trade Commission is to ascertain whether Mr. Rice has been paid by various grain exchanges for this series of signed articles opposing the policies of the Farm Board, and, as Mr. Rice admits the advertisements were paid for, the postoffice wants to know whether the payment was in violation of postal laws, rules and regulations.

There is a postal regulation against publishing advertisements as news, but the question is whether controversial news can be published as advertisements—there's a fine point here.

"If it is a crime to oppose the policies of the Farm Board, of its chairman, Mr. Legge, and of Mr. McKelvie, (the Nebraska member of the board") says Mr. Rice, "possibly I am guilty. I admit I have been opposing them.

BRINGS BUSINESS

"Because the Farm Board has been trying to eliminate the grain exchanges," continues Mr. Rice, "it naturally suspects the exchanges of supplying the sinews of war. The charge that the exchanges have been paying for these page advertisements is beyond me to establish to the board's satisfaction. I do not know that individual members of the Omaha Grain Exchange have bought and paid for advertising at the rate of 25 cents an inch or $35 a page.

"However, it has brought us good business, but all of it was at regular rates. No subsidy or big money of any kind was paid. It was our scheme. It has worked fairly well and if that fellow up in the Northwest has been doing the same thing he copied our idea, that's all. The plan to sell page advertising to opponents of the Farm Board originated in Central City. But it is natural for the board to blame the grain exchange, for you expect the party you attack to fight back, don't you?"

Editor Rice contends that the farmers in this county have been hard hit by the low prices of farm products and that they are much concerned over the Farm Board's work. He says twice as much space was required this year in this section to print the list of delinquent taxes as was required last year, and that an equal amount of extra space was necessary to print the list of deliquent taxes on city lots. He has not found his crusade against the Farm Board unpopular in Central City.

RAILROAD SIGNALS BY RADIO NOW

Short-Wave Sets to Link Caboose and Locomotive, Displacing "High Ball"

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—Red flags and swinging lanterns no longer need be relied upon to keep the engineer and conductor of a freight train in communication. Short-wave radio is ready to take over the job.

Today the American Railway Association announced that several years of experimental work have yielded suitable apparatus for maintaining practical, constant communication between caboose and locomotive.

The association's experts have found it practicable also to use radio in the switching yards, where cars are made up into trains. They are going further afield now, studying the possibilities of using short wave sets in New York Harbor between shore stations and tug boats and other craft used in railway service.

Up to now the crews at either end of the often mile-long freights have had difficulties in exchanging important information and signals, especially in bad weather or on curves. The radio sets are expected not only to increase safety, but eliminate many delays.

MISSING MAN'S BODY DISCOVERED IN WOODS

BALTIMORE, Oct. 13. (AP)—The body of Henry Norman Milburn, 55 years of age, retired business man, sought since Friday when he disappeared, leaving a note that he had lost everything in the stock market and was "going crazy," was found in a clump of woods today.

Consistent with its policy of laying the facts before the public, The American Tobacco Company has invited Mr. L. J. Horowitz to review the reports of the distinguished men who have witnessed LUCKY STRIKE'S famous Toasting Process. The following is the statement of Mr. Horowitz:

The fusion of these two important factors has given Thompson-Starrett over a billion dollars worth of activity in thirty years. It is interesting to note the application of this same principle in your business. Its clear evidence is your use of the Ultra Violet Ray in the 'Toasting' of the LUCKY STRIKE tobaccos."

Curry Placed in Arlington Crypt

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—Representative Curry of Sacramento, Cal., who died here Friday night, was laid to rest today in a private mausoleum near Arlington National Cemetery. Funeral services were conducted in a private chapel. Several hundred persons, including representatives of the territories of Alaska and Hawaii attended.

President and Mrs. Hoover sent a wreath to be placed on the crypt.

SAMOAN COMMISSION TO LEAVE HONOLULU

HONOLULU, Oct. 13. (AP)—The congressional commission headed by Senator Bingham of Connecticut, which will draft a Samoan organic act for Congress's consideration, arrived here today on the cruiser Omaha from Pago-Pago, American Samoa. The commission will leave for Los Angeles tomorrow. The Samoans, under recommendations of the commission, will be given American citizenship and a large measure of self-government. With these privileges they will continue under the naval administration which has functioned thirty years.

CURTIS COMPLAINS OF SPEECH MAKING

TOPEKA (Kan.) Oct. 13. (AP)—Vice-President Curtis returned to his home here last night and will make his headquarters here until after the November elections. After a campaign swing through several eastern and central States the Vice-President good-naturedly complained he had been required to make nine speeches in one day when only four had been scheduled.

SIMPLE HOME MIXTURE DARKENS GRAY HAIR

Cincinnati Barber Tells How Any One Can Prepare It in 5 Minutes.

Any man or woman can easily look twenty years younger by simply darkening their gray, faded or streaky hair. This is now easy to accomplish with a recipe given by a well-known Cincinnati barber.

Simply take a half-pint of water, add one ounce of bay rum, 1/4 ounce of glycerine and a small box of Barbo Compound. Shake and it is ready to use. These ingredients can be bought at drug stores at trifling cost.

Applied to the hair twice weekly this delightful mixture quickly gives the desired shade. It is easy to use, is not sticky or greasy, will not color the scalp and does not rub off.—[Advertisement.

BANKERS VISION CLEARING SKIES

Investment Group Meeting Shows Optimism

Better Business Conditions Reflected in Reports

Foreign Securities Takings to July Exceed 1929

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 13. (AP)—The Investment Bankers' Association of America, in convention here today, heard Trowbridge Callaway, New York, its president, predict better business conditions. The convention is to last through Wednesday.

The president's address, reports of foreign securities, legislation and other important research committees and afternoon executive sessions comprised the first day's activities.

ALL OPTIMISTS

While the reports of the committees on important phases of investment banking were frank and exhaustive, none had a pessimistic tone, and one, the report of foreign securities, recorded a sharp increase in trading in foreign obligations for the past six months of 1930 as compared with the entire year of 1929.

President Callaway said business needed no artificial respiration and the wealth-producing power of the country had not been hurt essentially.

"The orgy of speculation which clouded the country's vision has passed," he said. "The equipment and management of American industry have never been more efficient. Commodity prices have declined drastically, it is true, but we are now apparently nearing the final stage of that readjustment."

AMAZING GAINS

Among the special committee reports the statement of the foreign securities committee drew marked interest. This report called the convention's attention to the fact that while foreign securities trading dropped from $1,426,000,000 in 1928 to $706,000,000 in 1929, it had risen in the first six months of 1930 to $804,000,000, or almost $100,000,000 more than the entire year of 1929.

The report attributed the slump in 1929 to abnormal conditions of the American money market and said this country's future prosperity depends on the restoration of foreign credit conditions to the status of two or three years ago.

CAPITALIST DECLARED TO BE SAFE

Charles V. Bob Reported by Relatives as Resting and Not in Peril

NEW YORK, Oct. 13. (AP)—What some business associates and authorities have regarded as the disappearance of Charles V. Bob, capitalist and flying enthusiast, missing since last Wednesday, was termed today by relatives a retirement to avert a nervous breakdown. They said he is resting in seclusion in Chicago.

His expected return in a few days was announced by his attorney, Ferdinand Pecora. Pecora's statement allayed fears Bob might have been injured in a plane accident or held for ransom by Chicago gangsters.

Bob flew to Chicago last week in his private monoplane, saying he intended to fly back the next day. On Wednesday he telephoned his family he would return by train, but so far as can be learned did not do so.

Asst. Atty.-Gen. Washburn said his office wants to question Bob concerning his operations in the shares of Rainbow Luminous Products Company and Metals and Mining Shares, Inc. These stocks fluctuated unevenly on the market prior to the suspension from trading on the 3rd inst. of the New York Curb Exchange house of Piperno & Co., traders in this stock.

R. R. Machlett, president of Rainbow Luminous Products, announced a directors' meeting for tomorrow and said a statement probably will be issued then.

COX BLAMES DEPRESSION ON HOOVER

Democratic Leader Says Business Troubles Could Have Been Avoided

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—James M. Cox, Democratic Presidential nominee in 1920, said in a radio address tonight the world-wide business depression started in the United States "and the dreadful thing about it is it could have been avoided."

Speaking over the National Broadcasting chain, Cox charged the Hoover administration "encouraged the gambling hysteria" preceding the stock market crash and "then forced upon an unwilling people the tariff law which later accentuated the depression."

"We must not lose sight of the impressive fact," he asserted, "that our tariff changes were initiated when our country was living in unprecedented prosperity. When the President signed the now-famous bill in the face of the most representative, far-spread and appealing memorials ever addressed to an executive, he gave furtherance to the ills born of his first failure to act in the face of an inevitable crash in our stock markets."

Cox contended that if Alfred E. Smith had been elected President in 1928 instead of Mr. Hoover "the first cause of our present mess would have been avoided."

Haiti Election Occurs Today

PORT-AU-PRINCE Haiti) Oct. 13. (AP)—The first Parliament since the dissolution of Haiti's legislative bodies fifteen years ago, will be elected tomorrow.

Two hundred thousand voters have registered, representing a fairly large proportion of the potential electors, since only men have the right of franchise.

The new Parliament of fifteen will meet as a national assembly to choose Haiti's next President.

The 800 American marines stationed in Haiti have been ordered to remain in their barracks.

SIX HUNDRED IDLE MEN TO RETURN TO POSTS

BLOOMINGTON (Ill.) Oct. 13. (AP)—Six hundred Chicago and Alton Railroad shop wokers, idle since July, soon will return to their posts and the shop will resume full operation, it was announced today.

The first of the men are to report November 3, next, and the entire personnel is expected to be re-engaged by November 17. A five-day week schedule will remain in effect.

COURT TO SIFT LAW ON RADIO

Supreme Tribunal to Weigh Federal Control Act

Validity Attacked in Two Cases on Schedule

Jurisdiction on Broadcasting Will Be Tested

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—The Supreme Court announced today it will hear next month two cases challenging the constitutionality of the Federal regulation of radio broadcasting and communication.

The cases are those brought by the American Bond and Mortgage Company and Trianon, Inc., and by Clinton R. White, both attacking Federal control.

The White case will be reached in November and under the court's announcement of today the other will be heard at the same time.

The question at issue is the validity of the Act of Congress which asserted Federal control over radio broadcasting. This law under which the Federal Radio Commission was established is based on the jurisdiction of the Federal government over all matters relating to interstate commerce.

WYOMING ALLOWED TO SUE COLORADO

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—Wyoming was granted permission today to file suit in the Supreme Court against Colorado to test its claim that Colorado is withdrawing more water from the Laramie River than it is entitled to under a former decision of the court.

CHURCH TO HELP IDLE MEMBERS

United Lutherans to Seek Work for Communicants

Hoover Commended for Acts Toward Unemployed

Moral and Material Wants to Be Considered

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 13. (AP)—The United Lutheran Church Inner Missionary Board today recommended every Lutheran congregation appoint a committee on employment to assist church members in obtaining work and to co-operate with other local agencies for unemployment relief. The report was made to the biennial convention of the church.

Present unemployment "with its long train of soul-harrowing hardships and bitterness that may lead to lawlessness, the more serious because it is world wide and threatens a world crisis under radical leadership, requires more than welfare work," said the reports. "This leaves the souls of men untouched. It needs more than preaching, or this leaves unsatisfied the pangs of hunger. The world today needs the combination of both."

The board offered and saw adopted two resolutions: Commending President Hoover for his conferences of industrialists and State government heads, and urging individual church employment committees.

AGE WITHOUT BRAIN USELESS

Dr. Mayo Discusses Long Life Before Surgeons

Mind to Match Greater Span of Years New Problem

Public Too Ignorant About Medicine, He Asserts

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13. (AP)—Lengthening human life is of little use if the brain does not keep pace with the body, in the opinion of Dr. Charles H. Mayo of Rochester, Minn.

Dr. Mayo made this statement today after he had given some brief comments before the clinical congress of the American College of Surgeons.

MUST BUILD BRAIN

"Undoubtedly," he said, "a human will be able to live longer in the next half century, but the problem of the medical profession is to build up the brain so it advances in development with the body.

"In institutions and homes we see scores of old people in their second childhood, possessed of a strong body but with a brain that is almost through functioning. There is little use in a long life if, for ten or twenty years, one is senile and helpless mentally."

Dr. Mayo said there is great need for more widespread knowledge about the science of medicine. "The public," he said, "is more ignorant about medicine than any other science."

HOSPITALS CRITICISED

Before the congress Dr. Mayo commented on the paper of Dr. George W. Crile, of Cleveland, in which he discussed the hospital standardization movement and its relation to the practice of medicine. Dr. Mayo criticised hospitals for encouraging poor people to take costly accommodations and said this was a matter for the surgeons, who know the needs of the patients, to correct.

"It is a funny thing," he concluded, "that it is the wives of those who lost money in the stock market, who are getting sick this year. I suppose that is because of the deprivation of food."

Other speakers today included Dr. Franklin H. Martin, Chicago, and Dr. Malcolm T. MacEachern, Chicago. Dr. MacEachern said that 2.4 per cent of the national income in America is spent on doctor bills.

Nicaragua Canal Topographical Work Finished

MANAGUA (Nicaragua) Oct. 13. (AP)—Announcement was made today that all topographical work has been completed in the survey of the proposed Isthmian canal through Nicaragua.

Lieut.-Col. Dan I. Sultan of the United States engineers, in charge of the Nicaraguan canal survey, said the only work yet to be done by his staff is drilling to determine what material will be encountered under the surface of the ground.

This work probably will be completed in June, 1931.

RARE MALADY KILLS VICTIM

Boeing Electrician in Wyoming Succumbs to Attack of Purpura Hemorrhagica

CHEYENNE (Wyo.) Oct. 13. (AP)—Purpura hemorrhagica, a rare malady resulting in a most unusual condition of the blood, tonight claimed the life of Harry McQueen, electrician of the Boeing Air Transport Company in Cheyenne.

Physicians said very few cases of this kind are on record in the history of medicine. McQueen's ailment attracted the attention of specialists in the Rocky Mountain region.

McQueen visited a physician a week ago Sunday, complaining of bleeding gums and several bruises on his arms and legs, for which he could attribute no cause.

To aid the diagnosis he reported a bruise on one of his wrists might be due to an electric shock suffered in discharge of his duties at the airport.

McQueen was immediately taken to a hospital, where through use of laboratory equipment no doubt was left concerning the nature of his affliction.

Physicians attending the case said the cause of the disease is not known.

Through use of serums and several blood transfusions an effort was made to increase the coagulability of his blood. This is the only treatment known, physicians said.

BACK SEAT PILOTS HELD NOT LIABLE

High Court Denies Pleas of Defendants in Three Crash Damage Cases

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—Three cases in which defendants contended that "back-seat drivers" had been injured because they had not warned automobile drivers, were refused review today by the Supreme Court.

Cecile S. Cole was accused by the Spokane, Portland and Seattle Railroad of Washington of contributory negligence because she did not warn a driver that a train was approaching. A $22,000 judgment was returned against the railroad in lower courts.

The Erie Railroad contended that Charles Stewart had been negligent in not warning a truck driver, with whom he was riding, before a train struck the vehicle, in Cleveland. Stewart also was awarded damages against the railroad in lower courts.

The third case was brought by the United Can Company from St. Louis with the claim that Mrs. Theodore Ryan was injured through her own negligence when she failed to tell the driver of a machine in the back seat of which she was riding that a truck was approaching.

MARINE TO CUT CORPS AS SAVING

Men Now in Service Get Chance to Re-enlist, but Recruiting Suspends

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—The Marine Corps, like the Navy, has instituted a personnel retrenchment program in line with President Hoover's request to effect economies in government departments. It may result in a decrease in the enlisted personnel of 18,000 by several hundred.

New enlistments have been suspended effective this month. Reenlistments are to be continued, however, provided the men enroll within three months.

"The Marine Corps does not plan to turn out any of the present men," it was announced. It was added, however, the only way in which economies can be effected is through a decrease in personnel.

The Marine Corps has closed its recruiting stations at St. Paul, Denver, Seattle and Dallas and substations connected with them.

The Navy Department announced last week it will slow up its normal recruiting by 200 men a month for two years.

INQUIRY ON R-101 WILL BEGIN SOON

Investigation Expected to Start Right After Choice of New Air Minister

LONDON, Oct. 13. (Exclusive)—It is said the government has decided that the inquiry into the R-101 disaster will begin almost immediately after the appointment of a new Air Minister to succeed Lord Thomson, who was killed in the crash.

It is understood that Prime Minister MacDonald already has made his selection, which is generally expected to be Lord Marley, and the appointment is anticipated hourly.

Immediately after the conclusion of the inquiry the commission will be decided upon and a well-known judge is expected to be chairman.

The inquiry will be of an independent character and will be held in public and on the finding of the commission will depend the whole future of airships in Great Britain.

Portions of the airship debris have arrived in London by airplane, including the compass, the pilot's command instruments, cables and parts of the structure which will be subject to expert scientific investigation in the effort to unravel the mystery of the disaster.

CONFIDENCE BACKED BY HUGE SUM

Insull Shows His Faith in Future With Plans for $200,000,000 Outlay

CHICAGO, Oct. 13. (AP) — Samuel Insull, public utility operator, has backed with approximately $200,000,000 his confidence that the business depression will be short lived.

In disclosing that the $3,000,000,000 group of corporations which he heads had gained more than 7 per cent in revenues during the first eight months of 1930, Insull revealed that expenditures by his companies which now are completing their 1930 program of extensions and additions will total between $196,000,000 and $2000,000,000.

The combined companies spent but $147,000,000 for these purposes in 1928 and only slightly more in 1929.

The Chicago district in 1931 is to receive approximately $124,000,000, the total being subject somewhat to the celerity with which consolidation of traction properties here is accomplished.

The figures for next year represent, Insull said, "the faith we have in the future of the country."

Americans in Refugee Party Reaching Peiping

PEIPING, Oct. 13. (Exclusive)—Further details concerning the fate of the British missionaries, Eleanor Harrison and Edith Nettleton in Fukien Province, indicate that the area is strongly held by bandits, with all foreign lives endangered.

Among the Americans reaching Foochow in company with the British Consul, who headed the rescue party, are Dr. and Mrs. James Edward Skinner, Topeka, Kan.; Miss Mamie Glassburner, Woodbine, Iowa; J. R. Grace, New York; Bernard Woolard, New York, and Paul Curran. Two other Americans, William Cassidy of Michigan City, Ind., and Dr. Walter Judd of Nebraska, remain, but whether by their own decision or because they could not be reached, is uncertain.

GRAPE SHIPPING CUT ONE-THIRD

Growers Comply With What Board Recommends

Curtailment for First Half of Week Ordered

Three Holidays in Row to Slow Down Market

FRESNO, Oct. 13. (Exclusive)—Complying with a grape control board clearing-house recommendation that fresh grape shipments from the State during the next three days be reduced one-third from the 4892-car total of the same period last week, shippers of the State today requisitioned the various railroads for 724 cars for loading today.

The curtailment in shipments during the first half of the week was ordered in the face of suspension of the New York auction and other selling centers in the East, owing to the observance of Columbus Day today, and Jewish holidays tomorrow and Wednesday, and the fact that the heavy record shipments of last week are now beginning to reach the auctions.

Today's report of the Federal-State marketing service shows that but 325 cars of fresh grapes were shipped from the State yesterday, as compared with 1136 a week ago. This brought the total to date to 37,974, as compared with 37,495 to this same date last year.

Information from New York is to the effect that there will be approximately 1400 cars of grapes for sale on that market during four selling days.

MISSOURI BANDITS IN KIDNAPING

Young Matron Forced to Drive From Parents' Home in Her Own Car

GREENFIELD (Mo.) Oct. 13. (AP) Mrs. Benton Wilson, wife of a wealthy oil man, tonight reported the kidnaping of her daughter, Mrs. Harold McKinley, 24 years of age, by a masked man or men who forced her to drive away in her own automobile.

Mrs. Wilson said she and Mrs. McKinley were alone in the house at the time, Mr. Wilson and the daughter's husband having gone to Kansas City with two sons of the Wilsons, Earl and Everett.

At about 7:30, Mrs. Wilson said, a small, masked man entered the home with a shotgun. He demanded money. Told there was none in the house he queried:

"Which of you can drive a car?"

Mrs. McKinley said she could. Then, Mrs. Wilson told authorities later, the man gagged and bound her, cut the telephone wires and made off with Mrs. McKinley.

Mrs. Wilson said she set herself free after a half-hour's effort.

Mrs. McKinley, a graduate last spring of the University of Missouri, is about 5 feet 4 inches tall and weighs 135 pounds.

RELIGIOUS FIGHT LOST TO SCIENCE

Missouri Pastor Jailed for Holding Services Despite Paralysis Ban

CARROLLTON (Mo.) Oct. 13. (AP) A Baptist minister is in jail here as one result of a clash between science and religion.

The prisoner, Rev. W. W. Woodson, 50 years of age, proclaiming the end of the world is at hand, defied medical science in the form of a city-wide infantile-paralysis quarantine yesterday in conducting prayer services with a "surrendered band."

He was taken from the pulpit to the County Jail building, wherein Bonnie Jean Schnapp, 8-year-old daughter of Sheriff Schnapp, died Saturday of infantile paralysis. The services went on in private last night at the church parsonage.

Mr. Woodson's followers, a group of fifty in his congregation of 600, left the church only after Ralph Lozier, Representative in Congress, presented an appeal on behalf of the children.

"The world is coming to an end," the pastor said, "and I must prepare my flock. I cannot cease my meetings until released by the Lord."

San Diego River Rights Assured

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (Exclusive)—The city of San Diego was assured complete control and full use of all the water in the San Diego River when the Supreme Court today refused to review the decision of the California Supreme Court granting these rights to the city.

The court refused to review the case on the grounds it has no jurisdiction.

Retiring Legion Head Marries

ELDORADO (Ark.) Oct. 13. (AP)—Mrs. L. Shankle announced tonight that her daughter, Miss Irene Richardson, 25 years of age, and O. L. COTTON OFFERED TO PAY FOR CAR

Southerners Ask Makers of Autos to Accept Bales as Down Payments

HOPE (Ark.) Oct. 13. (AP)—As a means of stabilizing cotton prices and at the same time stimulating automobile purchases, five American automobile companies were asked in a telegram sent from here today by six associated Arkansas newspapers to accept a bale of cotton as part payment on all motor-car purchases in the South.

The message was addressed to General Motors, the Ford Motor Company, Chrysler Motors, the Studebaker Corporation and the Nash Company.

McCuen, Greenville, S. C., president of the American Cotton Shippers' Association, and chairman of the meeting, the delegates decided to withhold discussion of any amendments to the Federal Farm Act so it might have more mature consideration.

Addressing the assemblage and asking confidence in the administration of the Federal Farm Board, the Department of Agriculture dealing with the problems confronting the farmer, business and industry were Chairman Alexander H. Legge of the Farm Board; Carl Williams, cotton member of the board, Secretary of Commerce Lamont and Mr. Creekmore.

Prolonged and sometimes heated discussion featured the executive session of several hours in which criticisms were hurled at the American Cotton Co-operative Association, the challenge accepted, apologies made and the remarks expunged from the record.

The program adopted follows:

"Cotton at the present level is below the cost of production.

"This being the case, it is a safe commodity for investment.

"The textile industry is, and has been for some months, in a very unhealthy condition. [Cason J. Callaway, La Grange, Ga., and B. E. Greer, president of American Textile Manufacturers' Association, were appointed to interpolate a note of optimism here.]

"Spinners may now well be urged to anticipate their future requirements not only for the present season, but for at least a portion of the season of 1931-32, and even periods beyond, in view of the acreage reduction that must follow the severe decline in prices that has taken place.

"There is an abundance of money available through the banking institutions for liberal advances on cotton at the present price, and the banks of the South are urged to so inform the cotton producers, merchants and spinners."

ADVICE TO FARMERS

The above being the case the farmer should be counsellor:

"To go ahead with the harvesting of his crop before elements damage the quality.

"But to sell as little as possible at the present level to store the remainder in a dry place and hold for better prices;

"Also to make a very substantial reduction in cotton acreage for next year.

"Also that banks be urged in making advances to producers on this crop and for producing the next crop, to do so contingent upon the borrower making a substantial reduction in acreage."

SUBMARINE REDUCTION PARCELED

Fifty-five Craft Remaining in Service Reassigned to Various Stations

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12. (AP)—A reassignment of the fifty-five submarines to be kept in service under the new operating plan was announced today by the Navy.

The new assignments under which twenty-five submarines will be withdrawn from the fleet follow:

Nineteen at Pearl Harbor, Honolulu, in place of twenty; nine at Coco Solo instead of eleven; six at San Diego, where originally there were eighteen; nine at New London, where there had been nineteen; the status of the twelve with the Asiatic fleet remains unchanged.

The fifty-five left in commission have a tonnage of 51,050 standard treaty tons. Those now out of commission or to be placed out of commission under the new plan number fifty-one with a 24,690 tonnage. Sixteen submarines will be kept in a state of preservation for possible recommissioning including five S-boats originally scheduled for scrapping. These sixteen submarines, totaling 9780 tons, become overage by London treaty provisions in 1932 and 1933.

The twenty-five submarines to be decommissioned under the new operating plan will join the "back-channel fleet" at the Philadelphia navy yard.

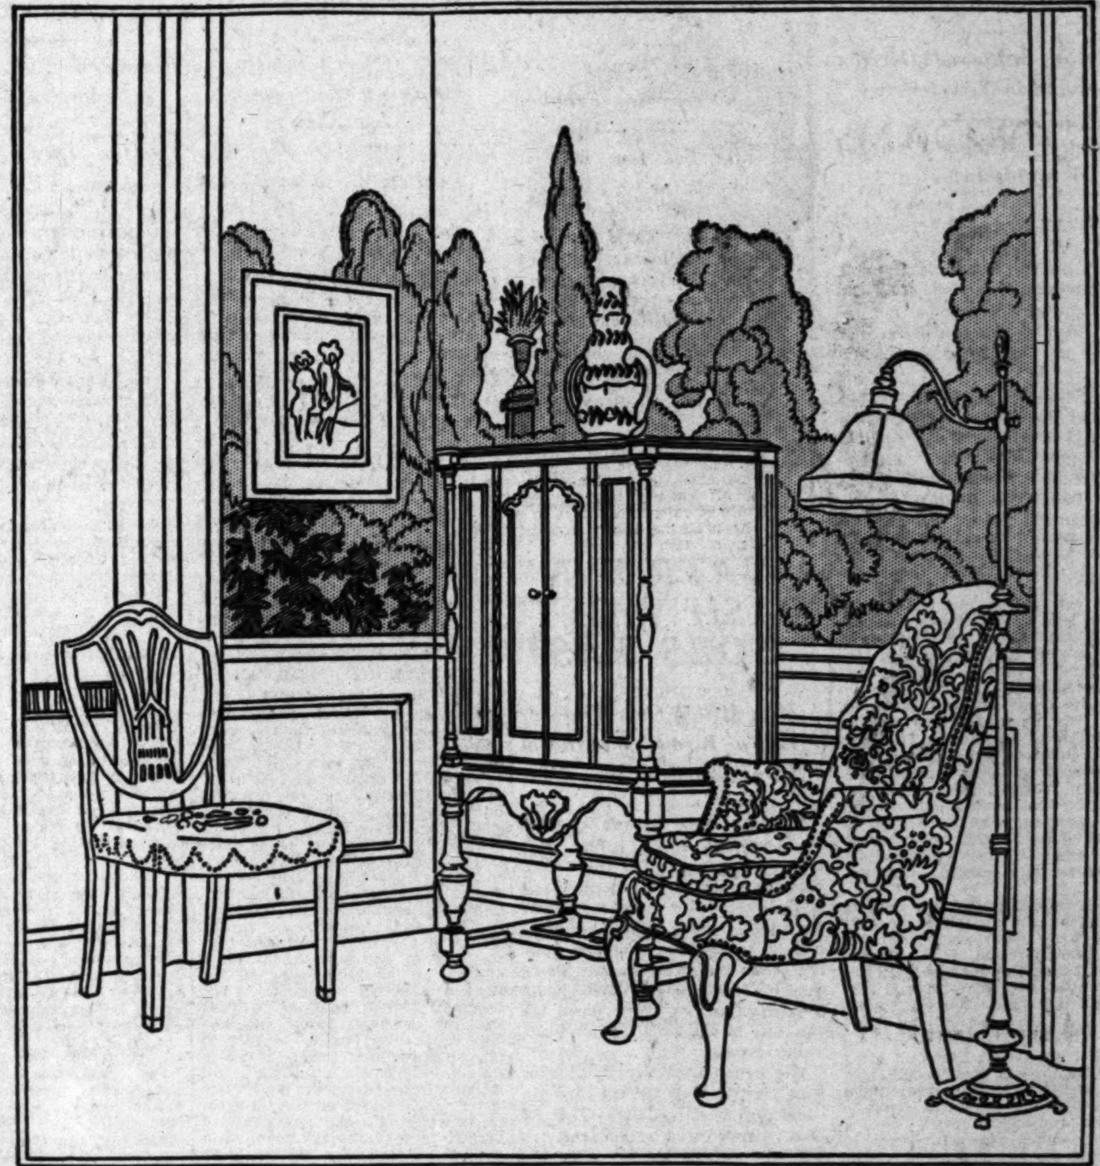
Insurance Case in High Court

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—The Supreme Court today consented to review a case involving whether the war risk insurance of a World War veteran is subject to his debts after his death. Jacob L. Hallbom of Kandiyohi county, Minnesota, carried $10,000 insurance with the Veterans' Bureau at the time of his death. The administrator of his estate contended the money received from the policy should be applied to the payment of his debts, but the lower courts held it should be paid to his mother and was not subject to his debts.

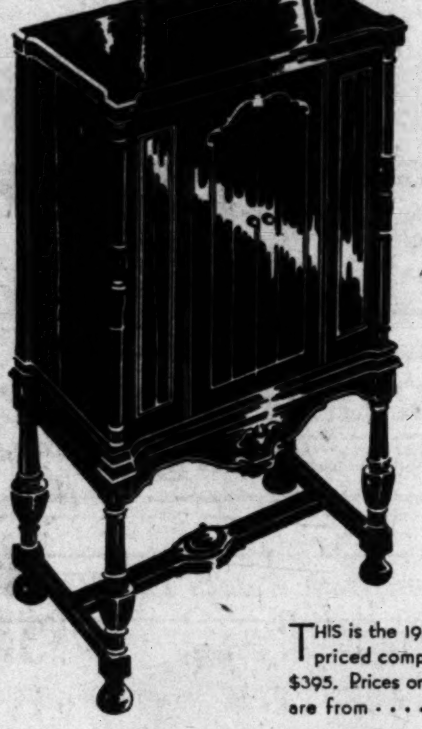
MUSEUM EXPERT DIES

LONDON, Oct. 13. (AP)—Dr. Harry Reginald Holland Hall, keeper of Egyptian and Assyrian antiquities at the British Museum, died today.

JOHN B. HOLTZCLAW CO. of Los Angeles, distinguished interior decorators, offer this pleasing arrangement of the Sparton Radio, Model 870, showing a drawing room corner of typical English arrangement. ◆ ◆ ◆ You will observe the complete harmony and blending of the Sparton cabinet with the Heppelwhite . . . (on the left) . . . and Queen Anne chairs against the background of scenic Georgian wallpaper.



PLEASING TO THE EYE



THIS is the 1931 Sparton Model 870, priced complete with 13 tubes at $395. Prices on other Sparton models are from · · · · · $149.50 to $595.

JUST AS PLEASING TO THE EAR

SPARTON families, almost always, keep their Spartons. Whether they own the newest Ensemble Model or one of smaller size or lower price, they continue to use and enjoy their radio for one important reason.

They know their Spartons excel in tone. Whatever other reason may have prompted the original purchase, it is the full, natural, faithfully-reproduced tone that has kept Spartons in these families. From merest whisper to full room volume there is that same fidelity of tone . . . no over-emphasis of base or treble, but the true, undistorted tone of instrument or voice.

Many of these families have amused themselves in logging countless distant stations on their Spartons. But their great delight has come from balanced tone.

The 1931 Spartons introduce new beauty of design, appropriate to the most gracious and livable interiors. Truly, they are pleasing to the eye, and just as pleasing to the ear.

Unemployment Board Proposed

CHICAGO, Oct. 13. (AP)—A group of business, labor and social leaders, summoned to an unemployment conference by Gov. Emmerson, today, voted for the appointment by the Governor of a commission to work on plans to alleviate conditions in Illinois.

The Governor said the commission will be put to work as soon as its members can be appointed.

NUMBER OF CHINESE THEATERS DOUBLED

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (Exclusive)—Despite the disturbed conditions which have prevailed in China the number of motion-picture theaters in that country has more than doubled during the past four years, according to a bulletin issued today by the Commerce Department's motion-picture division. At the present time the bulletin shows there are 233 motion-picture houses in the country having a seating capacity of 137,000 as compared with 106 theaters in 1927, with a seating capacity of 68,000. Of the estimated 450 feature films exhibited in China in 1929 the bulletin shows 90 per cent were of American origin.

HIGH COURT UPHOLDS CONTENTION OF I.C.C.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—The Supreme Court today sustained the contention of the Interstate Commerce Commission it has no jurisdiction over rates on shipments between two points in the same State until they have been put into operation. A decision of the District of Columbia courts under which the commission was directed to inquire into proposed rates on petroleum shipments in Montana, was set aside by the higher court. The commission took the position its jurisdiction included State rates only after they had been made effective.

GANDHI FOLLOWERS SENTENCED TO JAIL

DELHI (India) Oct. 13. (AP)—Two prominent Moslem clerics today were sentenced to a month each of simple imprisonment with preferential treatment for taking part in the civil disobedience movement. They are Mufti Kifayatuallah, president of the Jamiet Ulema, an influential religious body, and Maulana Armed Safed, secretary of the same body and fourth "dictator" of the Delhi war council.

LIGHT THROWN ON GANG CRIME

Diamond's Bodyguard Slain to Clear Way to Master

Body of Supposed Derelict Found in New Jersey

Racketeer Nearing Crisis of Wounds Inflicted

NEW YORK, Oct. 13. (Exclusive) While Jack (Legs) Diamond fought for life in the Polyclinic Hospital, the true story of how the King Cobra of the underworld was shot unrolled tonight from the unrevealed murder of Diamond's chief bodyguard.

Gangland shot and killed the only friend of Diamond remaining at liberty and thus cleared the way for his attempted execution in the Hotel Monticello Sunday morning.

DIAMOND DOOMED

If Diamond passes the crisis he faces tomorrow he will be shot again as soon as he shows his head to his enemies, investigation today revealed.

The tale of the murder of Diamond's lone loyal bodyguard—about eight hours before the Broadway killer himself was trapped with Marion Roberts, his red-headed showgirl sweetheart—emerged tonight from the crime-splashed Club Abbey. This rendezvous for red-hot entertainment seekers, the spot whence Justice Joseph Force Crater disappeared and the hub of other outlawry recently, yielded the information that Louis Figura, dapper little gunman, who could not be bought off from loyalty to the handsome Legs, was slain by those deadly foemen who wanted Diamond's life.

Even while Diamond was dancing Saturday night at the same club, Figura was "taken for a ride" and slain near Harrison, N. J. It was Figura whom the enemies who had bribed other bodyguards found they couldn't take from Diamond's service.

ENEMIES KNOWN

Both Figura and Diamond knew these enemies—in fact thought they were friends. On Saturday night Figura called a supposed friend in Newark and said:

"I'm coming over with some of the boys to talk things over and later I'm coming back and pick up Jack."

Figura "came over." But he went to New Jersey with two guns pressed against the back of his neck. And he was dumped in a swampy hole near Harrison a corpse.

With Figura out of the way it was easy for the King Cobra's enemies to stalk him in the Monticello and send four bullets into his frame when he faced them unarmed and sitting in bed clad in red silk pajamas.

Another woman entered the case tonight. She was taken from an uptown hotel for questioning and there were rumors that several days ago, in a white-lights cafe, she knowingly remarked that Jack Diamond had not more than ten days to live. Police refused to discuss her.

CHICAGO GAMBLER SHOT IN AUTOMOBILE

CHICAGO, Oct. 13. (AP)—David Emmett, South Side gambler, was shot to death here tonight.

Stephen Piaton, who was sitting with Emmett in a parked automobile, told police another car pulled up near by and that Emmett shouted to him to "duck" and, at the same time, started his motor.

Before he could start the car, however, an occupant of the second machine rushed up and shot Emmett.

SENATORS ADJOURN CAMPAIGN INQUIRY

RALEIGH (N. C.) Oct. 13. (AP)—The Senate Campaign Funds Investigating Committee late today adjourned its hearing here after a day of questioning witnesses, which failed to produce evidence of any large expenditures in the Bailey-Simmons primary contest.

SHE SEEKS RECORD IN PLANE JOURNEY

AVIATRIX IN DASH WEST GOES FAST

Mrs. Miller Cuts Time of Laura Ingalls on Initial Hop to Kansas City

KANSAS CITY (Kan.) Oct. 13. (AP)—Mrs. Keith Miller, British aviatrix seeking to better the transcontinental women's speed mark, landed here late today to spend the night, having clipped approximately twenty-nine minutes from the New York-Kansas City flying time of Laura Ingalls of St. Louis, the record holder. The flight began this morning at Curtiss Field, Valley Stream, N. Y.

The British aviatrix's flying time from New York to Kansas City was computed as 11h. 16m. That of Miss Ingalls, who established the east-west record a week ago, was 11h. 45m. Miss Ingalls's transcontinental mark is 30h. 27m.

Conditions south of Kansas City were such tonight that Mrs. Miller thought it impossible to go on to Wichita before tomorrow, which she had set for her goal for the first day of flying.

EASTBOUND PAIR KEPT AT AMARILLO

AMARILLO (Tex.) Oct. 13. (AP) Miss Laura Ingalls of St. Louis and Robert Buck, 16 years of age, of Elizabeth, N. J., flying back east after setting transcontinental records in westward flights, were forced to spend their second consecutive night here because of unfavorable weather conditions.

The hop for Wichita, Kan., was not undertaken because heavy fog and exceedingly low ceiling were reported.

Chicago Pay-Roll Outlook Dark

CHICAGO, Oct. 13. (AP)—The prospects look very poor for about 20,000 city employees, including police and firemen, getting paid this month.

City Hall officials said it is unlikely that employees will get any money until after the first of November. The money shortage is attributed to the refusal of banks to purchase city bonds until the State Supreme Court has ruled on the validity of the special legislative action under which the bonds are issued.

EMPIRE PARLEY AT STANDSTILL

Delegates Await London's Food Tax Plan Denial

Blow Will be Administered With All Gentleness

Various Substitute Proposals Laid Before Assembly

[Copyright, 1930, Chicago Tribune]

LONDON, Oct. 13. (Exclusive)—The Imperial Conference still is in a state of suspended animation, waiting for the coup de grace to be administered by the British government in the shape of a declaration that it cannot and will not grant food taxes enabling preferences to dominion food growers.

This final blow will be administered with all gentleness and formality after various British government departments to which the proposals of Prime Minister Bennett of Canada have been referred, have gone through the process of considering them and reporting to the government that they are unacceptable under the present British fiscal system. This the government has no idea of changing.

LEADERS MEET

The heads of the delegations met today and listened to a long dissertation by William Graham, president of the Board of Trade, supported by Philip Snowden, Chancellor of the Exchequer. Both are firm free traders, but Mr. Graham unbent so far as to say that the government accepts in principle the preference of existing British tariffs. He gave no promise, however, that existing tariffs will be continued and his declaration in connection with statements by both Mr. Graham and Mr. Snowden in the House of Commons, indicates that the aim of the government is to abolish all present duties at the earliest possible moment. Mr. Graham also is believed to have told the delegates today that any idea of taxing food, or in fact of imposing any new tariffs, is out of the question. As a substitute for Prime Minister Bennett's tariff plan, Mr. Graham threw on the table for consideration various other ways of helping inter-imperial trade, but without in any way putting them forward as British plans.

VARIOUS SUGGESTIONS

Among these suggestions are the import board's bulk purchase arrangement for the exchange of staple products such as English coal for Canadian wheat, or British steel for Australian wool. A quota system for mixing dominions and home-grown wheat also was suggested, and another suggestion was a series of credit agreements such as provided in the Anglo-Argentine and Anglo-German treaties. All these suggestions were discussed in general today and tomorrow morning the heads of delegations meet again to take them up in detail.

The committee on communications met also and continued its discussion on broadcasting, dealing particularly with the finances of the great empire broadcasting station in England and reciprocal stations in the dominions.

LOS ANGELES CENSUS MODEL

Bureau Director Cites Idea of Trade Center

Bracketed With Chicago as Example to Nation

Greater City's Population Put at 2,115,323

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—Pointing to Chicago and Los Angeles as examples Census Director Steuart said today all cities of more than 100,000 population should be at work defining their areas as trade centers.

This information on metropolitan areas is asked as basis for a supplemental Census Bureau publication to aid chambers of commerce in giving a clear presentation of the commercial possibilities of their respective cities.

The supplemental trade center bulletin will be compiled as soon as routine census publications are cleared, the director said.

Steuart also advocated city planning on the basis of population growth logically to be anticipated.

PROVIDE FOR GROWTH

"If a territory must inevitably come into a city, it should be planned with that in mind," said Steuart. "That's the advantage of a law like Georgia's, which defines as 'Atlanta' an area big enough for a city of 1,000,000 inhabitants."

The Chicago self-census bulletin, compiled on the trade-center basis, included 168 urban centers in six counties within a thirty-five-mile radius.

"Chicago only" was given as 3,375,235, the population used in Census Bureau comparative tables. The bulletin said 90 per cent of the increase of the entire State of Illinois took place within the thirty-five-mile radius of Chicago, a fact pertinent to the growth of cities which lay outside the Census Bureau compilations.

GREATER LOS ANGELES

For two years technicians from Los Angeles have been in Washington conferring with Census Bureau officials and crystallizing their claims for the Greater Los Angeles area. This now appears likely to assume a 422-square-mile size with a population of 2,115,323 and including Fullerton, Anaheim, Santa Ana and Orange, outside of Los Angeles county. The Los Angeles municipality figure was 1,231,830.

Since the Southern California development is virtually continuous, the borders of Greater Los Angeles were determined by mountainous and rough unirrigated stretches where the population is less than the Census Bureau requirement of density for metropolitan areas—150 inhabitants per square mile. A large map showing density of population units will be photographically reproduced for the Los Angeles self-census trade territory bulletin. A preliminary bulletin already has been issued.

Parts of near-by Maryland and Virginia were included in a Greater Washington area informally figured at 700,000, instead of the District of Columbia total of 485,716.

Insurance for persons between the ages of 6 and 15 and 60 and 70 years is $1.25. Policy does not cover: (1) Persons blind, deaf, crippled, or who have lost an eye or limb, (2) firemen, policemen or railroad employees, while on duty.

Waterman's Lady Patricia

—the fountain pen for the woman of today

It's new, it's completely feminine, and it's utterly unlike the old fashioned "scaled-down" men's pens. Waterman's Lady Patricia has

A SMART FEMININE CLASP, INSTEAD OF A CLIP—for today's woman carries her pen in her handbag, and this clasp fastens it securely in place where she finds it instantly without searching.

SEVEN PEN POINTS TO CHOOSE FROM—for today's woman instinctively demands a penpoint that really suits her own style of handwriting—and here she gets it.

A SLENDER, GRACEFUL SHAPE; YET HOLDS PLENTY OF INK—for today's woman insists that all her belongings be as practical as they are beautiful.

A CHOICE OF THREE CHARMING, MODERN COLORS—for today's woman is impatient with yesterday's drabness. So we offer her the Lady Patricia in Persian, glowing like a black opal; Jet, night-black with gleaming trim; and Onyx, ivory, shot through with tawny streamers.

A SENSIBLE PRICE, IN TUNE WITH THE TIMES—$5 for the pen; $3 for the pencil. Both, in a beautiful gift box, $8.

Try this new pen at your local Waterman's dealer. You will be delighted by it's smart, feminine appearance—and doubly delighted by the way it writes. By the way, be sure to ask your dealer to fill it with Waterman's Ink—the ink that's made for fountain pens. Then, for the sake of your men-folk, take a look at the Patrician—Waterman's finest man's pen. Choice of five jewel colors, seven pen points. A beautiful gift when you want to give the best. Pen, $10; pencil, $5. Other Waterman's in wide variety to suit every purse and every taste.

Every Waterman's is guaranteed forever against defects. Service Stations are maintained at the addresses below for the purpose of making good our guarantee and for servicing our pens as required.

Even Cleopatra's justly famed toiletries could never hide the tell-tale symptoms of intestinal sluggishness and neglect.

You, who "take a pill" at regular intervals, will learn that the day of reckoning must come. Violent, harsh laxatives are internally destructive. Eventually you pay a staggering price for temporary relief. Yet the cost of permanent relief is small. And the source well known. Not weakening diets, torturous treatment—just Nature's means for correcting that common trouble ::: Intestinal Fatigue. This elemental method is eating Fleischmann's Yeast ::: the corrective food endorsed by leading specialists and world-famed physicians.

Yeast, you know, is a plant, a food. Taken as a regular part of your diet, it moistens and softens indigestible waste products which have accumulated in the intestinal tract.

It stimulates the natural action of the intestines and thus helps the body to throw off indigested food in a normal way. It peps up appetite, stimulates digestion ::: improves your whole health. You feel

Pronto Comenzará la Encuesta Relativa al Desastre del R-101

LONDRES, Octubre 13.—Dícese haber decidido el gobierno que comience la encuesta del desastre del R-101 casi inmediatamente después del nombramiento de un nuevo ministro del Aire que suceda a Lord Thomson, muerto en el siniestro.

Tiénese entendido que ya el primer ministro MacDonald se ha fijado en Lord Marley para ministro, y se espera el nombramiento de un momento a otro.

Tan luego como termine la encuesta, se designará una comisión, que presidirá, según se cree, un conocidísimo juez.

Será la investigación de carácter independiente y las deliberaciones serán públicas. Del fallo de la comisión ha de depender el futuro de las aeronaves en la Gran Bretaña.

Por aeroplano han llegado a Londres pedazos de los restos del dirigible. Entre otras cosas, se han recibido la brújula, los instrumentos de mando del piloto, cables y partes de la estructura del barco aéreo; todo lo cual será examinando por peritos para tratar de resolver el misterio del siniestro.

Pastor de Misurí Encarcelado por Violar una Cuarentena

CARROLLTON (Misurí) Octubre 13.—Se halla aquí en la cárcel un ministro bautista con motivo de un choque entre la ciencia y la religión.

El preso, que lo es el reverendo W. W. Woodson, de 50 años de edad, proclamando que el fin del mundo está muy cercano, lanzó ayer un reto a la ciencia médica, violando la cuarentena declarada para toda la ciudad con motivo de la epidemia de parálisis infantil. A despecho de ella, celebró servicios de oraciones.

Fue bajado del púlpito y conducido a la cárcel del condado, donde Bonnie Jean Schnapp, hija de ocho años del sheriff Schnapp, murió el sábado de parálisis infantil. Los servicios continuaron anoche privadamente en la rectoría.

El Gobierno Federal Amenzado de Multa en Pottsville

POTTSVILLE (Pensilvania) Octubre 13.—El alcalde Dengler ha declarado hoy que el gobierno federal será en lo sucesivo multado en $100 diarios si persiste en almacenar licor inflamable en esta ciudad.

"La clase de licor que hoy se vende es un explosivo como la gasolina", dijo el alcalde. El departamento de la Prohibición confisca grandes cantidades de este licor en todas partes del Estado, lo trae a Pottsville, y, al parecer, no le hace ya más caso.

"Una explosión de licor que hubo aquí ayer causó estragos en las calles y el alcantarillado de esta ciudad, prendió fuego a varios edificios, y amenazó gravemente la parte norte de la población. Si hemos de correr esos riesgos con el whisky de los 'bootleggers,' convirtámoslo al menos en una fuente de ingresos, imponiendo por su almacenamiento una multa diaria de $100."

Las Nóminas de Chicago Ofrecen Triste Perspectiva

CHICAGO, Octubre 13.—Se presenta muy nublado el horizonte para unos 20,000 empleados municipales, incluso policías y bomberos, pues está peligrando su paga correspondiente al mes actual.

Los funcionarios municipales manifestaron ser muy improbable que reciban los empleados ningún dinero antes de primeros de Noviembre. Se atribuye el déficit en la tesorería municipal a que los bancos se han rehusado a comprar los bonos de la ciudad mientras la Suprema Corte no falle acerca de la validez de la disposición legislativa especial, según la cual fueron emitidos los bonos.

Hoy Será Sentenciado Fewkes, Reo de Hurto Mayor

J. B. Fewkes, promotor de Los Angeles, convicto de hurto mayor, ha sido citado para comparecer hoy a las 10 a.m. para sentencia ante el juez superior Fricke.

Fue convicto Fewkes de haberle timado $6500 a la señora Thomas E. Merrill en una operación de bolsa. Esta lo acusó de haber aceptado el dinero que ella le dió para inventir en acciones de la Accounting Service Company, acciones que no llegó a entregarle.

Un Rojo Comparecerá Hoy ante el Juzgado

Miembros del servicio de información de la policía declaran haber arrestado el 12 de Septiembre a Gabria Rabinach mientras repartía papeles radicalistas impresos en Yiddish. GREATER PARKS URGED FOR CITY

Shearer Says Los Angeles Trails Minneapolis

He Suggests Adoption of New System Here

Chicago Dredging Studied as Future Possibility

Los Angeles is twenty years behind Minneapolis in park development and maintenance. Park Superintendent Shearer has informed the park board, following his return from a visit to St. Louis, East St. Louis, Chicago and Minneapolis. As a member of the American Park Executives his visit east was to attend the body's recent convention in St. Louis.

"I certainly had my eyes opened when I visited Minneapolis parks," he informed the board. "Minneapolis has built a wonderful system of parks and parkways within three to five miles from the center of the city. Swamp land which had no value has been changed to the highest-priced residence land in the city by tying up a chain of swamps with lakes and improving them with connecting parkways of trees and sod.

RIVER BANKS PARKED

"The river banks, instead of being devoted to industrial purposes, have been converted to beautiful parkways. I spent a whole Sunday driving around these parkways, which circle the city, a distance of 100 miles. For this distance you are never out of a park or parkway in this city of 400,000 population, which spends $2.50 per capita, compared with $1 per capita in Los Angeles."

Shearer explained that a similar arrangement could be worked out in Los Angeles by putting a system of check dams in the Los Angeles River to maintain fresh water, and by developing low places like Nigger Slough and the lowlands of Venice into a chain of parkways, which in addition to beautifying the city would raise the value of adjoining property for residential purposes.

THINGS NEEDED HERE

"Only three things are needed to make Los Angeles the greatest city in the world," he said. "This is to plant plenty of street trees, decorate all drainage canals and the Los Angeles River with parkways and scenery, and plant the railroad rights of way so that it would appear to travelers that they are entering a vast estate."

Shearer said that St. Louis has wonderful parks as to size, but that they are poorly maintained. East St. Louis, he said, has taken 1200 acres of low, swampy land and is dredging it into a series of lakes and lagoons, surrounding them with lawns.

Chicago, he said, is building islands out in the lake as beauty spots and to protect the water front during stormy weather. He predicted in a few years it will be found necessary to form such islands in Santa Monica Bay to provide for amusements, so that the present frontage may be used for apartments and hotels. He declared a plan similar to that being carried out on the Chicago frontage could be successfully carried out here.

MISTAKE BY ELECTRICIAN CAUSES HOTEL FIRE DRILL

Thanks to a slight miscalculation by an electrician, guests of the Ambassador yesterday received a convincing demonstration of the hostelry staff's ability to mobilize quickly for fire fighting.

Fire-alarm signals began to ring in the early afternoon with the result that employees, rallying at strategic points, speedily located the scene of the supposed trouble and dashed to the place armed with fire extinguishers.

Assistant Manager Harris led the fire fighters, prepared to direct activities until the arrival of the fire department. Harris gazed anxiously at the bungalow from which the signal had come, but saw neither smoke nor flames. He discovered that an electrician had accidentally "shorted" the fire-alarm wires.

He waved an assemblage of employees back to their duties.

COUNTY WILL BUILD FLOOD WATER BASIN

When it was learned yesterday that the county could do the work for approximately half the cost of private contractors the Board of Supervisors rejected all bids for the building of a flood-control spreading basin below Big Dalton Dam, east of Glendora. The county already has equipment at the site which will enable the Flood Control Department to do the work for $2400, as compared with $4800 asked by private contractors, according to E. C. Eaton, chief engineer.

"SAN DIEGO BLOND" LEADS TO TROUBLE

"My San Diego Blond" was the song that George G. Mercier, railway employee, would sing when he returned from spending a few days out of the city, Mrs. Helen Bell Mercier declares in her divorce complaint, on file yesterday. The defendant's treatment of the plaintiff was such that she fell ill, it is further asserted in the complaint.

M.-G.-M. BUYS 'DANCING PARTNER'

Frances Dee Will Star in "Confessions of a Co-Ed;" Myrna Loy and C. Henry Gordon Sign With Fox; Leo McCarey to Direct for United Artists

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

JOAN CRAWFORD

Hot on the trail of Broadway successes suitable for the talking pictures, film producers are grabbing up every available New York play either already on the boards or in course of rehearsal.

Dancing Partner" is the newest one to be secured. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer is the purchaser. The play is by Alexander Engel and Alfred Grunwal. Belasco is producing it currently.

It is understood that the picture has been bought as a vehicle for Joan Crawford.

FRANCES DEE WILL PLAY FAIR CO-ED

FRANCES DEE

I don't know of any co-ed who could possibly be more popular than Frances Dee, either on the campus or the screen.

And so it is with pleasure that I have to announce that the little Paramount star's next picture will be "Confessions of a Co-Ed, which is an alluring enough title, heaven knows, for a picture, even without Miss Dee.

The young actress has been forging swiftly ahead ever since that day not long ago when Paramount, looking about for somebody to play a lead with Chevalier, picked her from a group of young actresses in "Follow Thru."

YOUNG PLAYERS SIGN TO WORK WITH FOX

DOROTHY MACKAILL

Fox is taking no chances of having Myrna Loy and C. Henry Gordon wanted from their organization. They have signed the two on long-term contracts.

Miss Loy's first assignment under her contract is not yet determined, but Gordon has been given one of the three principal roles in "Once a Sinner," with Dorothy MacKaill and Joel McCrea, the latter borrowed from R.-K.-O.

It is said that the contracts are awarded to the players as a result of their splendid performances in "Renegades," with Warner Baxter.

Gordon is an American stage actor who was educated in Germany and Switzerland. He had the heavy role in "The Shanghai Gesture." He made his debut in talking pictures in Victor McLaglen's "A Devil With Women."

Mrs. Lawrence Tibbett Travels

Mrs. Lawrence Tibbett, wife of the opera singer and M.-G.-M. star, is leaving tomorrow for New York, whence she sails on October 24 for Europe. She will be gone until Christmas week and during the period of her famous husband's concert and operatic tour, which opens after he finishes "The Southerner." During the holidays she will join Tibbett in New York, when the two will return to California.

Composers Busy for United

LEO McCAREY

Those versatile young men, Messrs. De Sylva, Brown and Henderson, whom Fox allowed to depart for United Artists to write a story and music for one picture, yesterday reported to Joseph Schenck.

They have already started planning the story they will write for the latter organization, though its name and nature are not yet ready to divulge. It is known that they will write music and lyrics to accompany the yarn.

Leo McCarey was assigned yesterday, according to Mr. Schenck, to direct the picture, although players are not yet picked.

Jeanie MacPherson With Lasky

At the studio where she first made her big success, Jeanie Macpherson, noted scenario writer, so long identified with Cecil De Mille productions, is again to set up her office lares and penates.

Miss Macpherson has been signed by Paramount to write originals and adaptations. The name of her first screen play is not yet disclosed.

While with Mr. De Mille, whose professional fortunes she followed from the Paramount organization to the independent field and then to Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, she wrote the stories for most of the De Mille successes.

Miss Macpherson was formerly, before becoming a writer, a film actress. Before that she was on the stage. She appeared in pictures with Florence Lawrence and Mary Pickford. Her biggest film role was the three-reel Selig production, "Cinderella," in which she had the title part.

Buster Collier Chosen

William Collier, Jr., is one of the busiest boys on the screen. He has just been chosen by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer for a featured comedy role in the new Marie Dressler-Polly Moran picture, "Reducing."

The picture is being directed by Chuck Reisner. Other featured players include Anita Page, Sally Eilers and William Bakewell.

Some of Collier's appearances include "March of Time," "The Show of Shows," "Hard Boiled Rose," "Tide of Empire," "The Lion and the Mouse" and "Backstage."

Zasu Pitts With Universal

No matter how other actresses find the going these days, Zasu Pitts moves right along, professionally speaking.

Miss Pitts's newest engagement is a featured role in "Modern Wives," which, by the way, is the new title of Universal's "Demi-Gods," Sidney Howard's play.

Hobart Henley is directing, and Genevieve Tobin has the featured feminine lead.

Frederick Burke with R.-K.-O.

Frederick Burke, well-known stage and screen actor, is the latest player to join the cast of "The Queen's Husband," according to announcement yesterday by William Le Baron. Lowell Sherman is directing and playing a leading part.

ENGLISH COURSE OFFERED

Beginning next Monday free drill class in the correct use of English verbs will be conducted at Junior College. The class will meet from 9 to 10 a.m., on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. There is no charge.

OPERA CLOSES IN SPLENDOR

"Lucia" Performed in Fine Style by Artists

Clairbert, Jagel Recalled Many Times

Gorgeous Colors Paint Rich Panoply of Art

BY ISABEL MORSE JONES

Donizetti's "Lucia," with its sextet, mad scene and all, ushered out the 1930 season of Los Angeles grand opera at the Shrine Auditorium last night. Clairbert was a dream to look at and sang the florid phrases with the calm ease of a now world-famous diva. Frederick Jagel, the Metropolitan tenor, introduced to the West this year, won his audience with impressive flights of tone. Gaetano Viviani took the center of attention as the villain Henry Ashton.

This was old-fashioned opera as it should be. Gorgeous brocades and vivid satins gleamed against the rich settings of blue mountains or baronial hall, and all the panoply of romantic music-tragedy was bravely exhibited. The chorus sang particularly well. Volume, precision and excellent intonation made the important chorus numbers play a large part in the success of the performance.

Director Merola conducted the work and evidently enjoyed it as much as his appreciative audience.

DIVA ATTRACTS

Clairbert is not yet placed in the critical public mind. She is extremely attractive. Her stage deportment cannot be improved upon and her coloratura feats issue from her throat like the natural notes of a bird until she climbs into her highest register. Then something lamentable happens. The tone becomes white and metallic, her throat tightens and everybody feels sorry. Surely this fault is not irreparable! One hears complaints that her singing is cold. Well, what of it? Most coloraturas are cold, especially blond ones. Coloraturas are rare and when they have a living, throbbing vibrato, impeccable intonation and unquestionable taste in phrasing, it is not meet to pull off their feathers.

That Clairbert has aroused widespread discussion pro and con is a tribute to her personality and her art. As Lucy in this final opera, she said good-by to Los Angeles in an appealing and charming way.

Jagel has been a pleasant surprise to our audiences. He has much to recommend his return. In the part of Edgar, the lover who loses, he excels. In the duet in the second scene, he upheld the difficulties of this difficult tenor ornamentation, with consummate ease. He has become a favorite here, judging by the repeated curtain calls which he received.

BARITONE ACCLAIMED

Viviani sang especially well the baritone part of Henry and was given special acclaim by the audience in the first act. Having sung much in Italy he is rather inclined to walk down center and deliver his voice to the listeners in a conspicuous way that takes him out of the opera picture. This detracts. His voice is splendid and well used.

Pinza as Raymond had all too little to do but joined with the other principals in the sextette, aiding the conductor in making it an acceptable ensemble by his own certainty and the penetrating vibrancy of his bass.

Alfred Kastner, the celebrated harpist, entertained between the first and second scene with an admirable harp interlude of especial beauty.

The large audience filed out after this last opera regretfully. The remembrance of the last scene with the lovely Clairbert in ethereal blue vieing successfully with the flute in clear, staccato notes climbing ever upward, was still singing in their ears as they found their way to their automobiles and the lights went out one by one upon an opera season that has reached a high point in public favor. Sold-out houses have been the rule and enthusiasm warmly expressed.

'Africa Speaks' Scheduled for R.-K.-O. Screen

A narrative of adventure into the wilds of equatorial Africa, "Africa Speaks," will be presented on the next program at the R.-K.-O. Theater starting Thursday.

The travel picture was made by Explorer Paul Hoefler, who led the Coloradan-Alaskan expedition from Mambasa on the Indian Ocean across the Congo, through torrents and marshes to Lagos on the Atlantic.

Closing with the current film, "The Pay-Off," is a stage bill featuring Bill Sharples and "his gang."

"Whoopee" Run Proves Popular

Big Chief Eddie Cantor started "Whoopee" on the screen of the United Artists Theater Wednesday and he is still going strong. In fact, according to reports from the management, the first week which ends tonight will set a new record for the theater.

This attraction is a talking picturization of the play in which Cantor starred for a year, and which climaxed the efforts of Florenz Ziegfeld for spectacular beauty. When Samuel Goldwyn was producing "Whoopee," Ziegfeld came to Hollywood and supervised.

Brown Starts Work on Film

Clarence Brown has started rehearsals of the first scene to be photographed for "Inspiration," the third talking picture in which he will direct Greta Garbo at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios. The scene contains but two players, the star and Robert Montgomery, her new leading man. Other players to appear in the production are Lewis Stone, Marjorie Rambeau and Gwen Lee.

Notables Burlesque Prison Stories

Claire Luce

Plays an important role in "Up the River," the Fox film comedy which starts tomorrow at the Criterion Theater. Spencer Tracy is also prominent in the cast.

COMEDIAN PLAYS FOOTBALL

Joe E. Brown and an all-American football team get together in a motion picture, "Maybe It's Love," at Warner Brothers Hollywood Theater starting Friday.

This noted grid team was gathered from colleges over the country and includes Tim Moynahan of Notre Dame, Russ Saunders of U.S.C., Schoonover of Arkansas, Paul Scull of Pennslyvania, Montgomery of Pittsburgh, Harpster of Carnegie Tech, Haycraft and Gibson of Minnesota, Slight of Purdue, Pommerening of Michigan and Bill Banker of Tulane. Coach Howard Jones of U.S.C. becomes a full-fledged actor and plays the part of the school coach throughout the picture.

"Maybe It's Love" is all comedy with the exception of the big-game sequence in which the team takes part.

Joe E. Brown plays the role of the all-American "laughback" and a drawing-room "drawback." He is a substitute player who does not save the big game, but supplies the majority of the laughs aided by Laura Lee.

Others in the cast are Joan Bennett, James Hall and Stuart Erwin. Joseph Jackson wrote the screen play from the story by Mark Canfield. William Wellman directed.

DOWNTOWN ANNOUNCES NEW FILM

"Sinners' Holiday" Will Start Run Friday; Grant Withers Has Chief Role

"Sinners' Holiday," adapted from the stage play, "Penny Arcade," by Marie Baumer, has been made into a Vitaphone picture by Warners and will start at Warner Brothers Downtown Theater Friday.

Grant Withers is seen as a "smart-cracking" barker whose is accused of murder, while Evalyn Knapp, stage player who makes her motion-picture debut, plays the role of the girl who sacrifices her brother to save her sweetheart.

Appearing in support of Withers and Miss Knapp are James Cagney, Joan Blondell, Lucille La Verne, Noel Madison, Otto Hoffman, Warren Hymer, Purnell B. Pratt and Hank Mann. John Adolfi directed.

Interest High in New Season of Symphonies

Due to unusual interest in the beginning of the new Philharmonic Orchestra's concert season, single tickets for the two opening programs on the evening of the 23rd inst. and the afternoon of the 24th inst. have been placed on sale, according to George Leslie Smith, manager of the orchestra.

Several interesting numbers are to be presented at the opening concerts, including: Bach-Respighi's "Passacaglia;" Brahams's Symphony No. 4; Debussy's "La Mer," and "Bolero," by Ravel. Rehearsals start today and will continue daily under the direction of Dr. Artur Rodzinski.

Ted Healy and Racketeers in 'Soup to Nuts'

Ted Healy and his Racketeers, vaudeville comics, are featured in the cast of "Soup to Nuts," Rube Goldberg's first talking picture, which has its local premiere Thursday at the Boulevard Theater.

Stanley Smith and Lucile Browne are the romantic leads in the romance. Benjamin Stoloff directed.

Frances McCoy, Charles Winninger, Hallam Cooley, George Bickel and William H. Tooker are other players. Howard J. Green wrote the adaptation of Rube Goldberg's original story and dialogue.

Pantages Lists "Spoilers" as Next Picture

Gary Cooper plays a role in the new version of "The Spoilers," which starts Thursday at Pantages Hollywood Theater. Cooper is said to turn in one of his best screen performances in this picture.

The production was directed by Edwin Carewe, and in addition to Cooper and William Boyd the cast includes Kay Johnson, Betty Compson, Harry Green, Slim Summerville and others.

Accompanying the screen feature will be a new Fanchon and Marco offering, "Doll Follies," staged by Gae Foster. Tom Waring will sing.

'WILD DUCK' ENACTED AT PLAYSHOP

Ibsen Points Finger at Self in Drama; Edward Bock in Lead Part

BY KATHERINE T. VON BLON

"The Wild Duck," perhaps the darkest and most obscure of Ibsen dramas, is finding a degree of expression at the Playshop.

Explicable by reason of its place in the development of the psychology of the Norwegian dramatist, it may have been Ibsen's caprice to point a sardonic finger at his own unhealthy idealism. He himself had brought to his first writings that mysticism and idealism of which bitter struggle, adversity and disillusion finally denuded him. Ibsen perhaps never pointed a line more adroitly at himself than when he makes the unhappy Greger reply to the question, "And what is your mission in life?" in this wise: "To be forever the thirteenth guest at table."

From this time on Ibsen ever concerned himself with the condition of society, which he felt lay sick unto death. Disappointment in political idealism colored his works, and that lyricism and Hellenism which had distinguished his earlier works departed him forever. He chose to dwell upon the more ignoble and hypocritical aspects of society as he found it. In his old age he perhaps recaptured some of that mystical fire which had lighted the inner man and lain dormant for so many years, in "The Master Builder."

"The Wild Duck" is somehow lacking in that velocity and inevitability which is the goal of the modern dramatist and which Ibsen does achieve in other works. Incompassed in three acts its thesis would be well expressed and not ask too much of the actors. It is well nigh impossible for the actor to maintain the proper suspense in this vehicle of five interminable acts, and the actors last night, probably through some unavoidable last-moment changes in leads, took a rather sluggish tempo, which further retarded the action. The dialogue is natural and pregnant and the character drawing is excellent, but it could have been told in half the space.

As young Werle, whose tamperings with life end so disastrously, Edward Bock gave a natural and humanly convincing reading of a difficult part. Perhaps a little more intensity would have brought more force to the character. Sydney Dexter gave excellent characterization as old Ekdal. His voice had that peculiar quality of old age, which is tainted with mental disorder. As the frisky pater Werle of questionable business and amorous situations, Charles Maurice acted with finish and significant dramatic emphasis. Don Murray as the villainous Hjalmar Ekdal was consistent and sympathetic in portrayal of the weakling. His performance was slightly marred by a sort of unctuous theatricality. Gina the wife found a degree of reality in the hands of Kathryn Pierce, and Virginia Steele seemed to possess that eerie quality of the Norse child.

DRAMA RIGHTS OBTAINED

"Children of the Streets," an original drama by Robert Milton, noted playwright and stage director, has been acquired for the talking screen by Radio Pictures, according to an announcement today by William Le Baron, vice-president in charge of production.

CAWTHORN A PLUMBER

Joseph Cawthorn, portrays an elderly plumber in "The Princess and the Plumber," for Fox. He is also the burgomaster in the mythical kingdom where the action of the story takes place.

CRACKLING LINES MARK FAST FARCE

Veteran Cast Supports Betty Bronson in "Little Orchid Annie"

BY MURIEL BABCOCK

As "Little Orchid Annie," a dulcet-voiced lady digging for pay dirt in the cloak and suit spaces of New York, Miss Betty Bronson floated airily out onto the stage of the Hollywood Playhouse last evening and, through three fast wisecracking acts of bald farcical comedy, managed to preserve a certain characteristic demureness.

"Little Orchid Annie" is that innocuous, at moments sprightly, comedy by Hadley Waters and Charles Beaban which was performed here at the Mayan Theater about a year ago. It is modeled on "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" lines and in its dialogue is sprinkled plentifully with wisecracks and conversation, which, putting it mildly, are pretty naughty and at times even pretty broad even for Hollywood.

It has a fashion show with music and models (real Hollywood ones, a couple of whom had stagefright and almost missed their footing,) a torrid dance (Miss Albertine Pickens in person,) a hilarious Christmas Eve party (most of the guests are in rompers and bibs,) a knock-'m down-and-drag-'em-out fight, a raid by the police and a happy ending.

That's the kind of a play, folks, in which you can now go and see Miss Betty Bronson, the winsome lassie of "Peter Pan," cavorting at the Playhouse. She isn't bad. Although badly outshadowed by an excellent and experienced supporting cast (Mabel Forrest, Frederic Sullivan and others) Miss Bronson manages to keep to her character and deliver a performance which at moments is good. She suffered last night, one would venture a guess, from stage fright, for her work gathered in authority as the scenes progressed.

In fact, the whole production seemed to be affected by opening-night blues. It moved swiftly, but unevenly. Many of the best lines missed fire, although plenty went across in a big way.

Here are a few samples: "It's women like you who put men like me in the electric chair."

And when Annie tells her young lover, "You made me cry, it's Christmas Eve." He retorts, "Every day is Christmas in this house."

Again, "You stick to me, darling, and you'll wear diamonds." With the retort, "Or stripes."

"The girl who dunks her tea biscuits in his champagne, doesn't dunk for nothing."

When the curtain goes down, Betty, still mining for gold, pets her college boy lover, and says, "Darling, you don't mind if I keep the Rolls from Mr. Kuppenheimer? After all, we need a car."

Mabel Forrest is in her original role, as Madge King, the veteran model. She has most of the good lines and makes them count. Frederic Sullivan as Myron C. Kuppenheimer, the big cloak-and-suit magnet, gives a fine performance. And Julia Blanc as Madame Elaine is excellent. Georgie Harris does Bud, the door boy, for all the comedy he's worth. Earl McCarthy, as the boy lover, proved a very likeable performer. He has an engaging smile and lots of personality which should carry him right along as he gathers more experience. Arnold Walsh did Ossie Reynolds, the effeminate clothes designer. He seems unsure of himself. And then there were Isabel Keith, Camille Rovelle, Roy Largay, John Manning, Byron Alden and Virginia Thornton, as well as groups of Hollywood models, to be seen. Ed C. Rowland and A. Leslie Pierce staged the production. Pierce directed.

Noted Scenarist Responsible for New Stage Play

Jane Murfin, widely known playwright and scenarist, is the author of "Women Who Take," the stage play which will be presented at the Mason Theater starting Monday night, the 27th inst.

Miss Murfin, a member of the writing staff at the Radio Pictures' studio, started her dramatic career as one of the "giggling girls" in Belasco's production of "The Music Master." Richard Warfield was the star. Jane Cowl was the other "giggling girl."

Later, with Miss Cowl as collaborater, Miss Murfin established herself as a playwright with such stage successes as "Lilac Time," "Daybreak," "Information Please" and "Smilin' Through." Miss Cowl starred in all of these, excepting "Daybreak."

"Women Who Take," with Irene Rich, Olive Tell and Morgan Wallace in the leading roles, will be the first step in a permanent stage enterprise recently inaugurated by Metropolitan Productions, Ltd., a subsidiary of Radio Pictures, and will be followed by other new productions.

S.C. Students to Honor John Wayne Friday

The walls and forecourt of Grauman's Chinese Theater will ring with the cheers and songs of S.C. Friday evening when the student body gathers to pay homage to a former class-mate, John Wayne, who plays the male lead in "The Big Trail."

The S.C. night is being sponsored by the Sigma Chi Fraternity, in honor of Wayne, who is a member. As "Duke" Morrison, the actor, was a popular player on the gridiron at U.S.C. in 1925-26.

The former athlete was discovered by Raoul Walsh while working as electrician and property boy on the Fox lot during a summer vacation period, and with nothing in his favor but a fine physical bearing and a pleasing personality, Wayne received a test for the coveted role. Walsh wanted a natural, boyish type who looked the part of a hard-riding, courageous pioneer and his search was over when Wayne's test was made.

CHAMBER SEEKS CHANGE IN LAWS

Revision of Incorporation Requirements Urged

Benefits to Enterprises of California Cited

Los Angeles Body Indorses Amendment No. 16

With the indorsement of constitutional amendment No. 16 at the November election, directors of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce have gone on record as favoring the revision and modernization of California's corporation laws, it was announced yesterday through Eugene Overton, member of the board.

The existing corporation laws of the State were branded by the chamber directors as archaic and detrimental alike to investors and corporate managements.

The constitutional amendment which would pave the way for the proposed revision of the corporation laws has also been indorsed by the Municipal League of Los Angeles, the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, the State Bar Association and other organizations.

"Probably no other provision of California's constitution has done or is doing more to obstruct healthy development of legitimate business enterprises in this State than the corporation law in its present form," Mr. Overton stated. "Many thousands of dollars in fees annually are lost to California through incorporation of domestic concerns in foreign States, which have revised their corporation laws to meet the needs of modern business.

"The present corporation law tends to discourage investment in California enterprises. Provisions such as those prohibiting issuance of nonvoting stock, or stocks in the same company of different par values, and the further provision relating to stockholders' liability, all are obsolete and are wreaking incalculable harm to industry and commerce in this State.

"By approving Proposition No. 16 at the November election, the voters of this State will have taken the first step necessary for intelligent revision of California's antiquated corporation laws."

Net Income of German Steel Trust Slumps

BERLIN, Oct. 13. (AP)—The German Steel Trust's annual report, covering the period October 1, 1929, to the end of September, 1930, shows a turnover of 1,251,000,000 marks (about $312,750,000,) a decline of 194,000,000 marks (about $48,250,000,) compared with the figures for the previous year.

The decline in production and sales continued without interruption throughout the year and the orders in hand at the end of September were down by 44.3 per cent compared with a year ago.

The decline in trade also necessitated the dismissal of many employees. At the end of September of this year the pay roll numbered 134,708 employees compared with 176,716 a year ago.

Music Lecture Due Tomorrow

Dr. Bruce G. Kingsley will give the first of the series of his symphonic interpretations at Bullock's tomorrow at 10:30 a.m.

The programs promise great interest this season as Dr. Kingsley will give the history of symphonic music and tell of the instruments of the orchestra, explaining their beauties.

Selections will be from "A Midsummer Night's Dream," "Tristan and Isolde" and overtures to "Rienzi" and "Parsifal." The programs are given the Wednesday preceding the Thursday concerts of the Philharmonic Orchestra.

Coffee Imports Gain Reported

NEW YORK, Oct. 13. (AP)—Arrivals of all coffees in the United States for the quarter ended September 30, the first three months of the current crop year, amounted to 2,559,542 bags, against 2,518,440 bags in the corresponding period last year, the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange reports.

Stocks of all coffees in the United States as of October 1 were 933,614 bags, compared with 688,765 bags on October 1, 1929.

UTILITY REVENUES INCREASE

Tri-Utilities Corporation Shows $3,381,367 Gain in Gross for Year

Tri-Utilities Corporation for the year ended July 31, last, yesterday reported consolidated gross revenues of $37,850,080.79 as against $34,468,713.42 for the preceding twelve months, an increase of $3,381,367.37 or 9.89 per cent. The corporation controls Federal Water Service, People's Light and Power, American Natural Gas, Southern Natural Gas and Power, Gas and Water Securities Corporation.

Earnings for the year just reported do not include any operating income of Southern Natural Gas Corporation whose transmission system, now comprising over 1300 miles of pipe lines, was put into operation this year and is serving principal cities and other communities in Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia.

Operating expenses, maintenance, depreciation, depletion and taxes, including Federal income taxes, totaled $19,841,490.33 as against $18,650,277.60, an increase of $1,191,212.73, or 6.38 per cent. Gross corporate income was $18,008,590.46, a gain of $2,190,154.64 or 13.84 per cent over the twelve months ended July 31, 1929.

Net income accruing to Tri-Utilities Corporation was $2,256,747.79 after deduction of interest and dividends on subsidiary companies' funded and unfunded debts, preferred stocks, Class "A" stocks and earnings applicable to Class "A" stocks and minority interests. After annual interest requirements totaling $750,000 on the corporation's 5 per cent convertible gold debentures and on its one-year 5 per cent gold notes, there remained a balance of $1,506,747.79, which compares with annual dividend requirements of $442,173 on the corporation's preferred stocks. The balance available for the common stock after such preferred dividends was $1,064,574.79, equal to over $3.54 a share on 300,664 shares outstanding July 31, last.

Building-Loan Moves to Cut Interest Rate

Advisability of revising the rate of interest paid on investment certificates to 5 per cent will be considered by building-loan associations of the San Francisco Bay District and the Peninsula at a dinner-meeting this evening at San Jose, the California Building-Loan League announced yesterday. Building and Loan Executives' Association of San Jose is sponsoring the meeting.

The experience of associations in other parts of the United States where a lower interest rate has been put into effect and the trend of interest rates on other types of fixed income securities will be factors which will have some influence on the decision tonight, J. Lester Miller, secretary of the group, stated.

Several associations, Mr. Miller said, are now offering a graduated return, depending upon the length of time the investment remains with the association.

Charles A. Whitmore, State Building and Loan Commissioner, and Neill Davis, secretary of the California Building and Loan League, are expected to attend the meeting.

CONDITION OF BOND MARKET REVIEWED

Recession in bond prices during the past week was attributed to a partially sympathetic reaction to the severe decline in the stock market, according to a survey of the bond market issued yesterday by the California Company, Ltd. Fundamental conditions have not changed adversely to the bond market, the survey concludes, pointing out that commodity price levels and the abundance of cash and credit remain as favorable factors for fixed income securities.

INCREASED DEMAND FOR DOMESTIC COAL

NEW YORK, Oct. 13. (AP)—September proved a good month for domestic coal in the nation's bituminous markets, though lump and egg figured principally in the increased demand, Coal Age reports. With the resultant increase in production of the larger sizes, coupled with the continued business depression, slack and screenings accumulated glutted the markets in many instances, with consequent demoralization of prices on those sizes.

INVESTORS TRUST VOTES DIVIDENDS

Massachusetts Investors Trust announced yesterday the declaration of a dividend of 42 cents a share payable the 20th inst. to stockholders of record the 8th inst. A year ago a dividend of 45 cents a share was paid. The trust also pays 2 per cent in stock annually, the cash and stock distribution combined indicating a yield at current market prices in excess of 6 per cent.

CUSHMAN'S PURITY BAKING NET HIGHER

CHICAGO, Oct. 13. (AP)—Cushman's Sons, Inc., a subsidiary of the Purity Bakeries Corporation, reports net earnings for the forty weeks ending the 4th inst., of $923,472 compared with $624,774 in the corresponding period one year ago. For the twelve weeks ending the 4th inst., net earnings were $187,350 compared with $104,610 a year ago.

TIDE WATER APPRAISAL ON

News From Richfield Survey Expected Within Ten Days; Merged Unit Would Pass Shell in Gasoline

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Definite information on the progress of negotiations between the Richfield and the Tide Water Associated oil companies is expected within the next week or ten days. Late last week it was understood tentative working terms were agreed upon, and examination of accounts and properties immediately started.

Union Oil's offer, reported as an exchange of shares on a four-for-one basis, evidently was sidetracked by the Richfield management in favor of the Tide Water Associated proposition. At current prices it seems likely that the latter company's proposal may result in a share-for-share exchange. Richfield is selling around $8 and Tide Water at $10 a share.

DIVIDEND NOMINAL

Richfield common at present is a nondividend stock, while Tide Water Associated common is on a nominal annual basis of 60 cents a share. Later in 1929 the company authorized two payments of 30 cents for 1930, the last previous payment of 15 cents having been made on November 1, 1927. The second semiannual payment for 1930 was made on August 15, last.

The gasoline marketing angle of the proposed consolidation offers some interesting possibilities affecting rivalry in this State among the leaders. In possession of the Richfield gallonage, Tide Water Associated apparently would pass the Shell Union Oil Company to rank second in the State behind Standard Oil of California.

Virtually since its entrance into the marketing business in California, Shell Union has been the runner-up to Standard Oil. Repeated assaults by Union Oil and Richfield have failed to dislodge the British company, which has been more concerned with cutting down the Standard's lead.

On the basis of gasoline figures for the second quarter ended June 30, last, Richfield ranked third with a total of 39,283,000 gallons. Associated ranked sixth with 27,325,000 gallons, or a total of 66,518,000 gallons for the two companies. This would compare with 61,156,000 gallons for Shell and 74,384,000 gallons for Standard. Third-quarter figures, of course, may change these positions.

IDENTITY THREATENED

The Richfield Oil Company would probably lose its identity if the consolidation is concluded, but whether the Richfield trade name would be sacrificed is conjectural. Tide Water Associated at present markets two brands, Associated in the West and Tydol in the East. Because Associated has not been particularly successful as a marketer on the West Coast, the consolidated company could readily utilize the Richfield marketing brains.

Tide Water Associated on June 30, reported a total of 5,843,937 shares of common outstanding, compared with approximately 2,100,000 for Richfield. On its common Tide Water Associated earned 58 cents a share for the first six months, against 56 cents on 5,089,310 shares in the same period of 1929.

In cash and marketable securities Tide Water Associated reported a total of $11,600,000, or approximately $2 a share on the common. Earned surplus totaled $20,000,000. Ahead of the common stock is 732,845 shares of 6 per cent convertible preferred, and $35,000,000 of subsidiary company's funded debt.

Working control of Tide Water Associated is believed to rest with the Transamerica-Blair group through the purchase a few months ago of the Tide Water stock owned by Standard of New Jersey. Tide Water Associated will probably find a place in the proposed consolidation of which Sinclair will be the nucleus, and for which the Transamerica-Blair group is the banker.

Golden Bridal in Sad Ending

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Oct. 13. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hurd of 306 Fifth street, who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary yesterday at their home here, were injured in an automobile accident today while driving on the highway near San Fernando.

Mrs. Hurd is in the San Fernando Hospital suffering with injuries to the head and one arm. Her husband is less seriously injured. Miss Ruth Hurd, a daughter, living here, left immediately to be with her aged parents.

WISCONSIN UTILITY PROFITS INCREASE

Wisconsin Hydroelectric Company, a subsidiary of People's Light and Power Corporation, reported yesterday operating income for the year ended August 31, last, of $412,096.76 after expenses, maintenance and taxes other than Federal income taxes, against $408,023.38 a year ago, a gain of $4073.38. Gross revenues totaled $762,037.63, against $697,720.57 a year ago.

NEW MUNICIPAL BOND OFFERINGS IN SLUMP

NEW YORK, Oct. 13. (Exclusive) New municipal bond issues scheduled for award this week amount to $13,824,278, compared with offerings of $30,515,000 in this group last week. The largest single issue scheduled for award is $3,422,000 Phoenix (Ariz.) water, sewer and funding bonds to be placed on Wednesday.

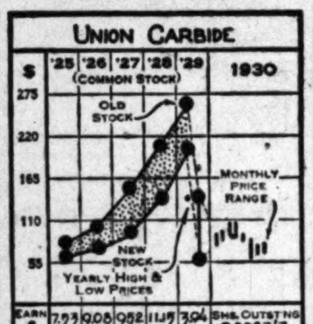
WHAT'S BEHIND YOUR STOCK



UNION CARBIDE AND CARBON

The fifty-odd subsidiaries operating under this large holding company are engaged in a wide variety of chemical and metal fabricating activities. Calcium carbide, used in the generation of acetylene gas, is an important item in a large group of products that includes carbon, flash lights, batteries, acetylene, stellite and other alloys used in steel manufacture, and various industrial chemicals and solvents. The company controls a large number of water power sites in the United States, and is carrying forward a program of dam construction in order to make its electric power assets available for use. Subsidiaries own 164 plants, almost 900 warehouses, and large raw-material reserves.

The steady earning power of the company in the past few years was continued into 1930 when $1.42 was earned per share as compared to $1.75 in the 1929 period—a very favorable showing in a year of widespread industrial depression. At the close of 1929 current assets were better than eight times current liabilities.

Hugoton Field Adds New Area of Natural Gas

NEW YORK, Oct. 13. (Exclusive) To the four principal natural gas producing areas in the United States, which are delivering gas to pipe line systems running to an increasingly greater number of the large cities and industrial areas throughout the country, has been added a fifth defined area of substantial proportions in Southern Kansas, known as the Hugoton field.

Although less than a year ago the Hugoton natural gas field already had been proved the second largest in the country, the first being the Amarillo field in the Texas Panhandle and Western Oklahoma, and may be found even more extensive than it now appears when drilling is extended beyond the present limits of the field.

Information received in Wall street last week indicated that the Hugoton field has proven reserves of 6,000,000,000,000 cubic feet, and continued development and extension may bring its ultimate gas reserves close to the 10,000,000,000,000 or 11,000,000,000,000 cubic feet which geologists claim underlie the Amarillo plains of the Texas Panhandle.

The other main fields of the country are the Texas-Louisiana fields, of which Shreveport, La., is about the hub, and the vast fields of Southern California, and the extensive natural gas region extending from Kentucky to Western Pennsylvania and from Ohio to West Virginia. Wyoming constitutes a sixth natural gas area, but cannot be classified with the others in importance.

BOND MART HIT BY LIQUIDATION

South American Issues in Drastic Decline

Brazilian Revolution Causes Heavy Selling

General List Also Reflects Downward Trend

NEW YORK, Oct. 13. (AP)—The bond market suffered a severe setback last week under a storm of liquidation that brought a drastic decline in South American bonds, and spread to virtually every section of the list.

Quoted values of Latin-American obligations melted away as the Brazilian revolution gained headway and further undermined the confidence of American investors who previously had been disturbed by political and economic developments in other countries. Nearly every day of the week Latin-American issues dropped to new low levels for the year on losses which, in many instances, read like the movement of equity issues.

The perpendicular drops of Brazilian, Colombian, Peruvian, Argentine and other Latin-American obligations were without precedent in recent years. The cumulative effect of the selling was to reduce the quoted value of many issues from 1-4 to 1-3. Moody's estimated that the average paper loss on each $1000 bond of South American dollar bonds during the past decade, most of which developed this week, was $75.

GERMAN ISSUES OFF

The rest of the foreign list reflected the unsettlement to a lesser degree. Largest drops in European bonds were in German obligations. German International 5½s declined about 5 points and the Dawes 7s reached a new low. Toward the end of the week these governments steadied following confident expressions of Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, former head of the Reichsbank, that Germany will fulfill its obligations.

The liquidation of prime domestic bonds was not so easily explained. In bond circles, it was attributed to several factors. Some called it a technical reaction from the peak levels reached in a laborious but virtually steady climb of several months. In another quarter dealers were reported to be liquidating their holdings in anticipation of new financing this fall. In addition some selling was prompted by the weakness of the share market forcing speculators to sacrifice investments to protect their marginal accounts.

AVERAGES DROP

The averages for thirty domestic corporation bonds showed the sharpness of the setback, resting one to three points lower at the end of the week.

As usually is the case when a sharp reaction occurs in the stock market, share privilege bonds and speculative issues moved with them, to new 1930 minimums. Second and third-grade rails were heavily sold, apparently on adverse earnings reports. The prospect that some railroad mortgage issues may be stricken from the legal list accounted for some of the sharp declines.

Offerings for the week totaled $119,739,000, the largest portion of which was in one issue—the $100,000,000 4 per cent loan of the Dominion of Canada. The issue takes rank as the largest single piece of foreign borrowing consummated in the American market this year, being $1,750,000 larger than the German 5½ per cent loan.

FIXED TRUST TYPE FAVORED

Investments in This Form of Securities During Last Year Set at About $500,000,000

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

[Copyright, 1930, by the North American Newspaper Alliance]

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Of all the investment trusts today, "the fixed trust" is the only one that is gaining ground. In the last twelve months, about $500,000,000 of fixed trust securities have been sold to all classes of investors.

"The fixed trust" has been described as "the holding of specific property by a trustee for the benefit of the shareholders under the right of contract and within the limits of the declaration of the trust."

The only other form of trust—"the management trust"—gives wide latitude in the trust agreement to the managers of the trust in the purchase and sale of securities.

The organizers of the fixed-trust idea put into their portfolios at the beginning the very best stocks, selected from the standpoint of management, dividend, record prospects and earning capacity. The management trusts' directors, during the debacle of 1929, fared badly. Since then, this form of a trust has become somewhat unpopular.

Probably the trusts of the future will be modified to embody the excellent features of the fixed trust plus the flexibility of the management trust. Somewhere in between the two lies the ideal form. And it may take a generation to find out what it is.

There were 58,683 Americans who visited Great Britain between January 1 and July 1 of this year, as compared to 56,302 for the first six months in 1929, an increase of 3 per cent.

Robert Townsend, United States Department of Commerce trade commissioner, thinks $40,000,000 is a fair estimate of what Americans left in the British Isles last year. It is based on the assumption that the average American in Great Britain stays fifteen days there and spends an average of $20 a day.

In 1929, the foreign visitors in Great Britain numbered altogether 457,000, of which 142,000 were Americans. Tourists' receipts in Great Britain now exceed more than $100,000,000 a year. This is still far short of what France has received from the United States tourists since the war, but the figure for Great Britain is growing every year.

The European countries, since the war, were often favored because of the cheap living conditions in those nations. Great Britain has been orthodox all the way through and has brought her money back to par, and her cost of living has but slightly decreased. That has had a tendency to keep tourists away from her country.

But now that money is stabilized pretty much in all European countries that advantage is no longer enjoyed by France, Germany and the other European nations. It costs just as much to travel in those countries now as it does in Great Britain.

American tourists to the British Isles should show relatively a big jump during 1931.

FIREMEN OF HARBOR DISTRICT TO MEET

HERMOSA BEACH, Oct. 13.—Members of the Harbor District Firemen's Association and their wives will be guests of the local fire department on Wednesday evening, at a combined business and social session. Fire Chief Barney Hibbetts and D. R. Ensign, secretary, are in charge of the arrangements for the visitors, which will include a theater party for the women, and refreshments.

Gross Business of McEverlast Hits New Peak

On the basis of reports for the first eight months this year from three of its principal offices, McEverlast Corporation of America, will have the largest business in its history during 1930, A. M. Shenk, president, announced yesterday.

Sales of the New York office for the eight months totaled $60,071 against $21,311 a year ago and $49,945 for the full year 1929. Sales of the Chicago office amounted to $37,667 against $12,801 for the first eight months of 1929 and $27,098 for all of last year. The Dallas office reported sales of $51,184 for the eight months against $49,700 for the same period of 1929 and $69,842 for the full year.

McEverlast Corporation is a Los Angeles company organized four years ago. Its principal activities include the curing of concrete by the Hunt process to which it holds exclusive patents, and the manufacture of exclusive patented coatings for underground pipe lines. The company maintains offices throughout the United States and agencies in principal centers of the world.

Not in the public eye

Companies whose names appear frequently on the front pages of newspapers and in the advertising columns of our publications are well known to the public. Their bonds are in demand, are actively traded in on the leading exchanges and are quoted in financial pages every day.

But there are many companies, not so well known, ably managed, with a long history of successful operation and with excellent prospects for the future whose bonds may be obtained at very attractive prices. Such bonds often present an opportunity to the shrewd investor.

5½ to 6½% income from the bonds of well-managed American companies

We have available in moderate amounts, bonds of a few companies of the latter type which we have thoroughly investigated and recommend for investment. They yield from 5½ to 6½%. We shall be glad to send you descriptive circulars entirely without obligation.

BARGAIN METAL DEMAND ACTIVE

Buying of Copper Reported Especially Brisk

Drop in Lead Attributed to London Weakness

Zinc Unchanged but Status of Market Shaky

BY CHARLES F. WILLIS
Editor The Mining Journal, Phoenix

Brisk selling of copper at exceptional bargain prices has featured the nonferrous metal market of the past week, with no change from the 10-cent f.o.b. Connecticut points price but with many sellers having no metal which they are willing to dispose of at that figure. Lead has dropped again more in line with other commodity prices and is now 5.15 f.o.b. New York and zinc remains at 4.20 f.o.b. St. Louis.

The lead demand has been fair as consumers realize that they are getting a value that is only being forced by foreign competition and is lower than that which they would pay if the domestic market were left to itself. The fact that immediate shipment is asked on many lead orders indicates that the consumers are not stocked ahead and that there is much metal yet to be purchased for current use.

The weakness in lead during the past several weeks has been a result of unsettled conditions abroad and the competition of the London price. While the position in the domestic market is favorable, with consumption and production well balanced, the lead price must fluctuate with London in such a manner as to prevent making it profitable to ship lead into this country. London weakness came as a result of a sympathetic movement and poor demand.

ZINC WEAK ABROAD

Zinc also has been exceptionally weak abroad, which fact did not change the domestic price but did serve to further weaken the confidence in the domestic market. Sales have been very slow and on many days the quotations have been merely nominal.

The zinc price is the lowest since 1921 and with that exception is the lowest since 1908. The price concessions, however, have failed to stimulate any great interest in the market or consuming demand. Consumers hesitate about covering their requirements owing to uncertainty both as to price and general business outlook.

United States zinc figures for September show no material change in the position of that metal. Unfilled orders of slab zinc of all grades declined slightly during September to 27,108 tons, compared with 28,972 tons at the end of August. Production last month showed a slight increase to an average of 1349 tons daily, compared with 1324 tons daily in August.

HEAVY COPPER BUYING

It is reported that the heavy buying of copper has resulted in a condition whereby there is less than 100,000 tons of refined copper on hand remaining to be sold, or about one month's supply. This has resulted in numerous rumors that a price advance will be posted shortly, knowing, of course, that it will stop buying, but there is very little to be bought anyway. While the September figures will probably show another increase in refined stocks, a considerable portion will consist of supplies that have been bought but not yet delivered.

Delivery dates for the copper purchased, while the price has been 11 cents and below, run over the balance of the year but, generally speaking, the producers have been unwilling to quote current prices for 1931 delivery. Refined stock figures are going to be misleading for the next several months as they are not going to reflect the correct condition without knowing the total of unfilled orders or metal purchased for current delivery on which shipment has not yet been called for.

The figures that are going to be watched more closely than surplus stocks, will be those pertaining to production, for, without further curtailing, production will continue to be in excess of consumption and the real start of actually getting rid of the copper surplus can only come when it is being replaced at a rate slower than it is being depleted by shipments. Some believe that the 10-cent price is sufficient to stop enough high-cost production to make a real dent in the production figures.

COULD SELL MORE

It is stated that copper producers could sell more copper if they were willing to take the orders but it is appreciated that the heavy buying is no particularly healthy sign as it is not for metal to go into actual consumption but is merely the building up of plant stocks at a low price level. While a few have taken orders for January delivery, many are out of the market entirely, having no more metal that they wish to dispose of at this time at 10 cents a pound. Some are quoting 10.25 for delivery during the first quarter of 1931.

There is rather a peculiar situation among the fabricators. While general price levels of their products have been scaled down to a 10-cent basis, the independent brass manufacturing companies are working on the same basis but are reluctant about making public announcement for fear that they cannot get sufficient copper to take business promiscuously at that level. They appreciate, of course, that if the low price did stimulate a large ultimate consumer demand, the copper available would go first to those plants affiliated with the producing interests.

stock market, were aggravating developments, although wheat, after getting close to the September lows, developed a better tone at the end of the week. Copper held at 10 cents a pound, and as expected, the statistics for September showed an increase of nearly 16,000 tons in stock on hand. Buying of copper and other nonferrous metals was in fair demand, however. Lead prices were under pressure.

A firmer tone in the New York money market was regarded as indicating increasing commercial demands to finance accelerating activity. The Department of Commerce's figures on bank debits to individual accounts gave the same indication. Freight car loading, as reported for the latest week, again declined, although the drop was slight.

Massachusetts Investors Trust

LEADERSHIP

"HOW MUCH DARE WE TELL THE SHAREHOLDERS?"

Since 1924 Massachusetts Investors Trust has included in its quarterly reports to stockholders the full facts regarding the trust — the number of shares owned in each company; and their cost; stocks bought and sold during the period; rights and subscriptions; changes in the approved list; purchases and sales made during the quarter, current assets, etc.

Recently a few other trusts have published their lists of holdings, but none give as complete a picture as the Quarterly Report of Massachusetts Investors Trust.

Within the next ten years, we believe, every reputable investment trust will submit at the demand of conservative investors the complete facts about its portfolio.

Massachusetts Investors Trust has set a standard that others are following.

Dull times have proved golden opportunities

—to men of courage and vision

Rothschild coolly bought French bonds when the streets of Revolutionary Paris ran red with blood. John Jacob Astor, during the war of 1812, invested heavily in Government securities sold by frightened "patriots" who thought America would not come through.

History is full of similar incidents. Men of outstanding financial acumen have all realized that the time to pick up good securities at attractively low prices, is when the majority are either selling in panic or else refraining from buying through fear that a temporary economic setback may become permanent disaster.

Taking advantage of present market conditions

Today's market offers some exceptional investment opportunities. But never was there greater need for care in the selection of securities. The market abounds with pitfalls as well as opportunities. But in order to decide wisely what securities to sell and what to buy in their place, you must have accurate knowledge of market conditions and of the outlook in the leading industries as well as of specific companies within these industries.

Standard Supervisory Service

A Personalized Service for Individuals and Institutions Employing Funds in Excess of $150,000 in the Security Markets.

Standard Supervisory Service affords a selected clientele of investors, a means of obtaining intensive, individualized and unbiased supervision of their investment programs and security holdings — with recommendations for changes, whenever desirable to secure greater safety, greater income or greater enhancement of capital.

The accounts administered by the Standard Supervisory Service consist of large personal funds of individuals, trust funds, investment funds of banks, insurance company funds, endowments and surplus funds of business organizations.

Supervisory Service is thorough, definite, confidential and personalized to the nth degree. The exact details of the Service rendered and the fees charged for services vary according to the requirements and security holdings of each client.

Solving your problem

Here is where the Standard Statistics Company can be of invaluable assistance in solving your investment problem. For a quarter of a century this organization has been engaged in the task of furnishing timely, unbiased investment information and counsel. From a mere handful of people, it has grown to a force of over 1200 employees.

And the sole reason for its astounding growth is because the service it gives fills a real need—because the investment counsel it offers has proved sound, helpful and very much worth following.

Standard is an organization of specialists—field men skilled in gathering business and financial data at first hand, many others interpreting broad economic forces and their far-reaching effects, analyzing the positions of the key industries, dissecting corporation balance sheets, reducing a mass of vitally important facts to clear, concise, pithy reports with recommendations for action. The final Standard reports and recommendations that reach you do not represent the judgment of any one man. They are the crystallized opinion of dozens of trained minds.

Standard numbers thousands of individual investors among its clients as well as a big majority of the largest banks and financial houses of North America and Europe. Whether you are interested in business or security markets as an individual investor, a trustee, a banker or business executive, there is a Standard Service to fit your needs. Simply fill out the coupon below and we will send more detailed information. And if the investments in your charge total over $150,000, your special attention is directed to the Standard Supervisory Service, outlined in panel above.

ANSWERING A LETTER FROM A MINISTER

A minister, living in a community not served by the Associated System, questions the correctness of statements in regard to cheapness of electricity in an advertisement of the Associated System. The following letter was written in answer:

DEAR SIR:

I have read with keen interest your letter of September 11th, and wish to thank you for it. We are interested in knowing what people think, whether they represent a majority or minority. We need and welcome things to make us think, and when people have doubts or criticisms regarding our Company or our business, we are glad to have them say so frankly and intelligently.

We do not believe the public utilities of this country have much to apologize for. It cannot be denied that some mistakes have been made. In a business so vast it cannot be expected that every company and every individual will act wisely in every instance; but we believe that the utilities have done a huge task and that they have done it well.

Criticisms of their actions seem for the most part to emanate initially from those who seek thereby to gain political or some other ulterior advantage.

By telling only half of the story, apparent justification for such criticism is circulated; and it is a problem which gives us much concern how to offset such distorted statements by bringing to the mass of honest citizens the complete facts, so that they may realize the problems which the utilities are obliged to solve in making available to the millions of users the service which will best promote their convenience and comfort.

You mention the "great expenditure in improvements and increasing rate-base investments." This is a matter of the gravest concern to public utility executives. I may assure you that they do not pour money (and it has to be literally poured) into improvements and additional facilities without the most careful consideration, and without being convinced that it is either necessary in order to deliver the constantly increasing volume of high quality service which the consumers require or that the resultant economies will justify the expenditure.

The increasing ratio between dollars invested and dollars of annual revenue is something which we would like to avoid, but it seems to be inherent in the wider extension of service and in the modern development of the art which makes the construction of large new power plants and the building of great transmission networks more efficient than the small and isolated systems of the past. The ratio is also influenced by the decreasing prices at which the service is sold.

This brings me to your comment about "The steady increase in the bills which we have to pay and in shiftings in the rates which make larger fixed service charges and lower big-user rates." I do not know what your experience has been, but the general statistics indicate clearly that the average rates are decreasing, not only for the business as a whole, but to the residential customer class as well.

The number of rate increases made in recent years is negligible, and the reductions have been numerous. Of course the consumers are finding increased uses for electricity, and with increased consumption it is to be expected that the bills will somewhat increase, although it is noteworthy that the cost per customer has increased little, if any, notwithstanding the considerable increase in use.

We know of few, if any, increases in "fixed service charges." The establishment of rates with fixed service charges is the result of careful study and a sincere (and we believe successful) attempt to make it possible for the ordinary consumer to use increased quantities of electricity to his great advantage at a favorable price. By making the fixed charges to compensate the company for the fixed expenses which it is obliged to incur, the additional energy may be sold at a low rate per kilowatt hour so that the consumer may increase his use as much as he has need for on an extremely reasonable basis.

As far as the Associated System is concerned, and we believe quite generally among other groups, the establishment of rates of this type has been carried out in such manner as not to increase the bills of anyone, but to decrease the bills of many and to make possible increased use at a very low rate. I enclose a small *pamphlet which deals with this subject and which I hope you will find of interest.

I do not think we are under any misapprehension as to our function or as to our duties. We realize that we must deserve the business if we are to retain it. We know that we must give the consumers the kind of service which they want and at prices which are fair and reasonable or we cannot hope to continue.

We know also that we must pay taxes (which municipally owned plants do not), that we must meet our operating expenses, and that we must pay the investors in our securities a fair rate of return or they will not continue to provide the money necessary for carrying on the constantly expanding functions for which we are responsible.

I hope that you may find this letter half as interesting and helpful as yours has been to me, and I can assure you that frank and honest words of either criticism or praise will always be welcome.

LOS ANGELES MARKET

CATTLE—The week opened with around 45 loads of cattle available, the major portion being steers. California furnished bulk of supply with a few loads from Arizona and intermountain sections. Trade was slow to get under way but became fairly active around midsession with most of the supply changing hands before the noon hour. Prices in general were fully steady on all killing classes.

Two loads of good 1222-pound Central California fed steers topped at 8.50 with several loads of medium to good 912 to 1213-pound California and intermountain steers at 7.75@8.10. A part load of 1159-pound Montanas sold at 7.50 and two loads of 1117-pound improved Mexican steers at 7.00. The large supply of Mexican steers, mostly Imperials, moved readily at 6.25@6.65, with a load or two of plainer kinds at 6.00 and 6.10.

Odd heifers reached 7.00 for fairly good kinds, with in-between kinds in part loads at 5.75@6.25. A load or two of well fleshed young intermountain cows brought 5.90@6.25, with a scattering of dairy type cows up to 6.00. Bulk of the common to medium cows were taken at 4.50@5.50, with a load and odd bunches at 5.75. Low cutters and cutters moved at 2.50@4.50, including a couple of loads of thin Arizona cows at 3.75. One outstanding 1890-pound bull sold at 6.75, with bulk of the medium to good animals at 5.00@6.00, including a load of 1263-pound Colorados at 5.25. Low grade bulls sold down to 4.00.

CALVES—The supply of vealers was again light and all offerings sold readily at about steady rates, medium to good kinds going at 9.50@11.50, with a few small lots of choice kinds up to 12.00. Heavier weight California and southwestern calves were uneven with some advance in spots. A load of 238-pound Californias brought 9.65, with two loads of 310-pound Arizonas at 9.00. Rough heavy calves and cull vealers sold down to 5.50.

HOGS—Receipts of three loads of eastern butchers and a load and few small lots of local fed and California hogs were disposed of in good season at about steady rates. The three loads of easterns averaged 174 to 182 pounds and went to killers at 11.00@11.25, top 11.25 on two loads. A few lots of trucked-in grain fed hogs brought 10.75@11.10, with local feds at 10.00@10.50. Packing sows were limited to a few odd head at 8.50@8.75.

SHEEP—Supply consisted of about eight decks of common to medium California and Arizona lambs and about a deck of cull and common ewes. Trade was fairly active and quality considered, sales were unevenly higher. Abut three decks of sorted 81-pound lambs brought 6.00 and nearly five decks of 64-pound lambs brought 5.50. About two decks of plainer lambs and cutouts averaging around 71 or 72 pounds were taken at 4.25@4.50. Strictly choice light lambs on the basis of these sales are quotable around 8.00. A deck of plain 88-pound ewes brought 1.25 and a few bucks made 2.00.

METAL MARKETS

CLEVELAND, Oct. 13. (Exclusive)—Daily Metal Trade today says: Structural steel inquiry confined largely to small railroad and highway needs in the West. Fabricating capacity in the Chicago district is barely 35 per cent engaged, despite the fact two or three of the larger shops are fairly well booked for the remainder of the year.

Steel-making operations appear to be holding at the rate recently established. The immediate market outlook continues uncertain, with consumers continuing to follow cautious course in covering their requirements.

Pig iron is moving slowly and at Buffalo a reduction of $1 per ton has been put into effect.

IMPORTANT FACTS ABOUT NATURAL GAS

Article 2—The Supply

A question often raised by investors in natural gas securities concerns the length of time the supply will last. The life of a gas well is limited and the question of the life of the supply is a pertinent one, particularly in view of the tremendous rate of consumption.

In the opinion of geologists, fear of exhaustion of natural gas may be dispensed with. While reluctant to estimate the exact time the available supply will last, leading scientists are of the general opinion that the reserves, particularly in the Southern fields, will not be exhausted for generations to come.

The older natural gas fields, the so-called Appalachian fields in Kentucky, Ohio, West Virginia and Western Pennsylvania, have been producing natural gas for half a century and are furnishing all the principal cities in this territory. In spite of the fields' comparative age and the large and continued withdrawals, prospecting within recent years indicates that a supply still exists so vast that serious consideration is being given to bringing the gas to the large cities on the Eastern seaboard, including Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and even New York.

Of the newer fields, particularly those of Oklahoma, Texas, Louisiana, Kansas, Colorado and California, it is estimated that each possesses a reserve comparable to that originally held by the Appalachian fields. Having been drawn upon for so much shorter a time, it is evident that these newer reserves will be sufficient to supply the increasing demand for many years to come.

Past estimates of how long the available supply of gas will last have proven woefully insufficient. Today geologists feel that due to significant developments in the Industry, any new estimates would fall just as far short as those of the past. Chief of these developments are the following... 1. New fields are continually being discovered. 2. Gas is being uncovered in supposedly dry areas at lower strata. 3. Through conservation, gas will be more efficiently used and wastage avoided.

In the early days of the business, the personnel was drawn from non-technical ranks and only in recent years has the Industry acquired scientifically trained men. Consequently, improved methods in prospecting, drilling and producing are continually being developed. Wells were formerly drilled to depths of from a few hundred to perhaps 2,000 feet; now it is possible to drill from 5,000 to 10,000 feet, and enormous gas pools are being uncovered in areas which previously had been supplying gas from shallower levels only. Examples are: the recent discoveries of untold reserves in the Amarillo and Monroe fields in Texas and Louisiana.

There is sufficient natural gas already available for requirements far beyond the needs of the present generation, and it is safe to assume that in the future as in the past the supply will increase with demand. From the standpoint of supply, therefore, the future of the natural gas industry in the United States is secure.

* * * *

Through 1330 miles of transmission system, Southern Natural Gas Corporation furnishes the principal cities of Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia with natural gas from the Monroe and Richland fields in Louisiana. The present supply of gas in these fields is enormous and it is being constantly augmented by the discovery of new gas-bearing sands, either in strata below those now producing or through the expansion of present proven areas.

CREDIT TERMS TO BE LECTURE TOPIC

"Credit Terms" will be discussed by A. W. Sigel, credit manager of Kelly-Springfield Tire and Rubber company, and Z. R. Zoeller, credit manager of Los Angeles Manufacturing Company, before the class in credits and collections at university college, University of Southern California, tomorrow evening. Factors governing length of net terms, datings, shipments to distant territories, extra datings, discounts and possible improvements in terms are some of the topics to be discussed. Walter E. Sykes will introduce the speakers.

INSURANCE AGENT ACHIEVES RECORD

Ira Homer of Los Angeles led the entire field force of the State Life Insurance Company of Indiana for individual volume of new business for September, Arthur J. Hill, California manager, announced yesterday. The California agency has scored its tenth successive victory as United States leaders of the company, Mr. Hill stated, adding, that the agency for the year to date, is $4,000,000 ahead of last year and experiencing the most successful year in its history.

MARLAND TO REDEEM ISSUE OF OIL NOTES

NEW YORK, Oct. 13. (AP)—The entire $7,500,000 principal amount of Series C 5 per cent gold notes of the Marland Oil Company, now the Continental Oil Company, dated June 15, 1927, and due June 15, 1931, has been called for redemption December 15, next. The notes will be paid off at $1002.40 for each $1000 principal amount of notes upon presentation and surrender, with all unmatured coupons attached.

BRITISH AUTO RACER TO TRY FOR RECORD

LONDON, Oct. 13. (AP)—Capt. Malcolm Campbell, famous British racing motorist, intends to make another attempt on the world's speed record at Daytona, Fla., in January.

He will use a car built secretly during the last nine months. He also will take with him other British cars with the object ultimately of getting them built in America under licenses.

CARGO TRAFFIC GAIN HOLDS UP

Intercoastal Trade Revival Evidenced Anew

American-Hawaiian Docks to Have Busy Week

Total of 11,600 Tons to Be Handled in Period

BY WALDO DRAKE

The American-Hawaiian Line terminals this week present further evidence of the recovery of the intercoastal freight situation, with 11,600 tons of cargo to be handled during the six-day period by Supt. R. A. Stewart and his staff on six steamers.

Yesterday there were three vessels at the Mormon Island piers, including the American-Hawaiian liner Ohioan, discharging 1900 tons from the North Atlantic; the Iowan, of the same fleet, loading 1600 tons for New York and Boston; and the Williams liner Willsipo, discharging 2000 tons from the North Atlantic.

Tomorrow, the Williams Line freighter Willboro will come in from the north to load out 1100 tons for the east coast, while on the same day the American-Hawaiian steamer Minnesotan will come in to unload a record cargo of 3000 tons from the east coast. On Thursday, the American-Hawaiian steamer Kentuckian will load out 2000 tons for the North Atlantic.

Advance bookings, both east and westbound in the intercoastal trade, promise similarly heavy traffic for the next several months, Mr. Stewart said yesterday.

BLUE FUNNEL LINE AGENT VISITING PORT

A. H. Colenso, freight traffic manager of Alfred Holt's great Blue Funnel fleet, is here from Liverpool on a general inspection of all American ports, and today will complete a three-day survey of local terminal and administrative facilities in company with Perry Newcomb and E. J. Manion, Los Angeles and Seattle managers, respectively, of Dodwell & Co., Coast agent for Blue Funnel.

Mr. Colenso, on his first visit to Los Angeles Harbor since 1920, said yesterday the development of the port in the last decade has been the outstanding harbor growth in world shipping. He will leave tonight for New Orleans and other Gulf ports.

Appointment of Rear-Admiral Frank Taylor Chambers of the Civil Engineer Corps as director of the Navy petroleum reserves, succeeding the late Rear-Admiral Harry H. Rousseau, was announced yesterday by the Navy Department. Admiral Chambers will have additional duty as the Navy representative on the Federal Oil Conservation Board.

Columbus Day had special significance and gained unusual recognition yesterday from Capt. F. Dodero, master of the Italian motor liner Rialto, which sailed in the afternoon with passengers and freight for Italy.

Capt. Dodero was born in the San Vincenzo quarters of Genoa, just as was Columbus, and on a major part of his ship route to this Coast and back, follows the same course. Celebration was restricted to gustatorial accomplishment to guests while the ship was in port, but was to be unrestrained when the ship went to sea when lockers were to be unlocked.

The skipper is only 31 years of age, but has crowded into his life five years as master, a year on American transports during the war, and three years in the Italian army. The liner carried out a score of Pacific passengers and freight bound for the Mediterranean.

The newly formed Pacific Travel Association will stimulate trans-Pacific intercourse such as never was dreamed, in the opinion of S. Nagase, general manager at San Francisco for the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, greatest ship line of Japan. He made the voyage from the Bay City on the new N.Y.K. motor liner Asama Maru yesterday. The liner also brought 180 passengers for discharge here, and several hundred tons of freight, and will embark 200 travelers and load cargo before sailing back to Japan tomorrow.

The new Norwegian tank motorship John P. Pedersen arrived on her maiden voyage from the United Kingdom yesterday to go under long-term charter to the Anglo-Saxon Petroleum Company. She is loading 60,000 barrels of gasoline at the Shell loading station, and will sail today for Bahia Blanca and Rosario in the Argentine.

Refrigerated space will be taken to capacity on the Barber Line motorship Tai Yin, in yesterday from New York, when she sails today for Manila and the Orient. The cargo includes oranges, grape fruit, vegetables and grapes and apples, the latter sent here overland for loading. Five passengers and miscellaneous cargo also will go out. The sister ship Tai Ping is due from the Orient today to discharge 500,000 feet of Philippine hardwood, 1000 tons of raw copra for the Los Angeles Soap Company, and to discharge passengers and embark others, bound for Panama, en route to New York.

A captain in the Japanese navy reserves, and conversant in five languages is the distinction of Capt. I. Tsuda, master of the O.S.K. steamer Hague Maru, in yesterday from New York and the gulf. Capt. Tsuda, as a graduate of the Japanese Naval Academy, speaks English, French, Spanish and German, and "gets by" in several other tongues. The ship topped off with cargo here and sailed for Yokohama last night.

NEWLYWED PLEADS GUILTY TO FORGERY

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13. (AP)—John Roseberry, who was married recently in San Jose, today pleaded guilty to forging and cashing a government check. He said he was out of funds and had no work. He was released on his own recognizance pending a report on his appeal for probation. While in the courtroom, Roseberry was notified of the death of his father at Anaheim.

We haven't changed policies!

IT TAKES NO NEW ECONOMIC POLICY . . of the Bolshevistic N.E.P. type . . because the old-fashioned, small-town MUTUAL Building and Loan Association of POMONA . . kept its economical 10th floor offices in the I. N. Van Nuys Building . . all through the 10-year cycle of astounding prosperity.

We resisted all the pleadings of aristocratic friends who wanted the old-fashioned MUTUAL OF POMONA to "expand and become up-to-date," in the expensive and expansive style of modern financial institutions. My goodness! We are glad we kept our expenses down!

WE ONLY WANT TO APPEAL TO ONE CLASS OF PEOPLE . . and that is why we advertise on the financial pages . . to people who OUGHT to be experienced in conservatism . . enough to know that the payment of 6% by a building and loan association . . calls for old-fashioned principles of economy . . and the MUTUAL OF POMONA has earned three State records through 37½ years.

We've been through FOUR periods of depression, with the consistent policy of SAVING our profits during good times just as though they were bad times. We have EXPECTED to make losses—so we have made PROFITS instead.

There can be no carelessness behind unlimited liability as a measure of safety back of $3,400,000 paid-in capital, surplus and reserve, and $16,000,000 resources. We'd like to meet you in our 10th floor offices in Los Angeles.

Party seeks to trade income property in Texas city for ten-acre orange grove in Southern California.

"Priced below present cost," according to owner of seven-room home with two baths, which can be purchased on monthly payments and down payment of $500.

"TIMES" THEATER GUIDE

MOTION PICTURES

Bard's, Eighth between Broadway and Hill—"For the Defense." The clash between law and crime offers interest. William Powell.

Boulevard, Washington at Vermont—"The Last of the Duanes." More doings on the prairies with that adventurer, George O'Brien.

California, Main near Eighth—"Olympia." A well-done Spanish version of Molnar's play featuring the skill of Jose Crespo.

Carthay Circle, Carthay Center—"Just Imagine." A fantasy and simply swell. El Brendel and Maureen O'Sullivan.

Chinese, 6925 Hollywood—"The Big Trail." Spectacular in setting and photography, this production demonstrates the power and sweep of Grandeur film.

Criterion, 642 South Grand—"Madam Satan." A spectacular but noisy De Mille product. With Kay Johnson.

Figueroa, Figueroa at Santa Barbara—"Our Blushing Brides." More popular struggles of the modern girl. Joan Crawford.

Filmarte, 1228 North Vine—"The Melody of the Heart." Exquisite photography and nice music stamp this German talkie.

Forum, Pico at Norton—"Scarlet Pages." Mediocre melodrama with Elsie Ferguson.

Loew's State, Broadway at Seventh—"Those Three French Girls." A vivacious bit of nonsense with Fifi Dorsay.

Majestic, Broadway at Ninth—"The Bad Man." No sense to this, but then there's Walter Huston.

Million Dollar, Broadway at Third—"The Silent Enemy." A silent picture of singular quality exploiting the American Indian.

Pantages, Hollywood at Vine—"Rain or Shine." Delightful foolishness by Joe Cook.

Paramount, Hill at Sixth—"Her Wedding Night." A bedroom farce for Clara Bow, but the gentlemen take the honors.

Ritz, Wilshire at La Brea—"Animal Crackers." The four Marx Brothers in their own delightful stuff and nonsense.

R.K.O., Hill at Eighth—"The Pay Off." Melodrama and crime, but rather well handled by Lowell Sherman.

R.K.O., Orpheum, Broadway at Ninth—"Half Shot at Sunrise." A war comedy which ought to bombard the box-office. Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey.

Tower, Bdwy. at 8th—"Isle of Escape." The old story of the tropics, but Myrna Loy is good.

Uptown, Western at Tenth—"Animal Crackers."

United Artists, Broadway near 9th—"Whoopee." Eddie Cantor in the best of screen musicals.

Warners' Downtown, Hill at Seventh—"The Road to Paradise." Loretta Young is sisters or twins or something, and it is so confusing.

Warners' Hollywood, Hollywood Blvd. at Wilcox—"Sweet Kitty Bellairs." It is all color and music and quite poor. Claudia Dell.

Wilshire, 8440 Wilshire Boulevard—"Dough Boys." Buster Keaton's latest and it's funny.

STAGE

Belasco, Hill at 11th—"The Crimson Hour." Lurid melodrama for those susceptible to Pauline Frederick's charms.

Biltmore, 5th and Grand—"Death Takes a Holiday." A fantasy somewhat slow in ending its dream. Henry Daniel.

El Capitan, Hollyw'd Blvd. nr. Highland—"Parlor, Bedroom and Bath." Charlotte Greenwood strides onto the stage, and the play matters not at all. Destined for a healthy and wealthy run.

Hollywood Playhouse, Vine near Hollywood Blvd.—"Little Orchid Annie." Reviewed in today's Times.

Mayan, Hill near 11th—"Temptations of 1930." A modern revue exhibiting some tuneful songs, clever dancing and colorful ensemble work.

Vine St., Vine near Hollywood Blvd.—"Kongo." The tropics will surely get you if you don't watch out. Charles Middleton.

BURLESQUE

Follies, Main at Fourth—Burlesque.

FRENCH PRESIDENT SAILS

TOULON (France) Oct. 13. (AP)—President Doumergue sailed today for Morocco aboard the cruiser Colbert. He will pay a courtesy visit to the Sultan of Morocco.

U.C. Man May Rule Filipinos

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—Prospects of another recess appointment for Vice-Governor of the Philippines are small, with Congress scheduled to reconvene in December, but several men are being mentioned prominently as likely choices.

Among these are Dr. David P. Barrows, first educational director of the Philippines and now professor of political economy at University of California; Dr. Luther Boone Bewley, Philippine educational director since 1919; Dr. Paul Monroe of Columbia University, chairman of Philippine education survey in 1926, and Arthur F. Fischer, director of the Philippine Bureau of Forestry.

COURT FAILS TO PASS ON OIL CONTEST

Ruling Refused on Right of Interior Secretary to Fix Minimum Price

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—The Supreme Court today refused to pass on the authority of the Secretary of the Interior to fix the minimum price at which oil taken under lease from government land may be sold.

Roy O. West, then Secretary of the Interior, issued an order in 1928 under which the Cody Petroleum Company, having a lease from the government on land in the Oregon basin oil field in Park county, Wyoming, was prohibited from selling oil to the Texas Company at a price fixed by contract made between the two companies. Under the lease the government received a royalty on all oil produced.

In July, 1928, the Secretary of the Interior announced that the government royalty on all oil produced in the Oregon basin oil field would be based on a minimum price of 85 cents a barrel.

The Texas Company, asserting it had erected a refinery costing $1,000,000 to handle the oil, sought to enjoin the government from fixing the minimum price it must pay for the oil, but the Secretary of the Interior was sustained by the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia.

REDLANDS, Oct. 13. [illegible] Funeral services for Thomas Seymour Wadsworth, who died at his home here this morning, will be conducted Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. at the chapel in Hollywood Cemetery. Burial will follow in Hollywood Cemetery.

Mr. Wadsworth, who was born in Chicago on May 21, [illegible] came to Los Angeles in [illegible] and had lived here for the past eight years following a three-year illness. For a long period he was actively engaged in the larger development of Los Angeles, and also laid out the town of Billings, Mont. In later years he devoted his attention to orange culture here.

He leaves his widow, one daughter, Miss Charlotte, and a brother, Guy W. Wadsworth of Los Angeles, executive secretary of the Church Extension Board of the Los Angeles Presbytery.

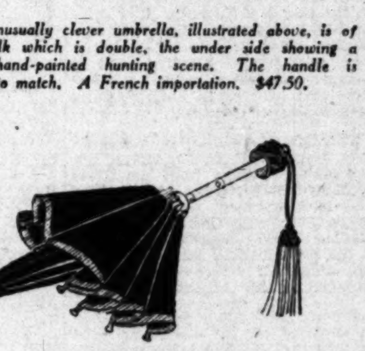
Fashion Recognizes Umbrellas

UMBRELLAS ARE NOW DESIGNED TO BE A DISTINCTIVE COMPLEMENT OF THE COSTUME AND NOT MERELY UTILITARIAN. J. W. ROBINSON CO. IMPORT THEM FROM ENGLAND, FRANCE, AUSTRIA AND GERMANY.

The handles are delightful features, fashioned of prystal, wood or leather. They take many shapes, bird's heads, dog's heads of scotty or bull variety, elephant handles or those of plain crook or straight style.

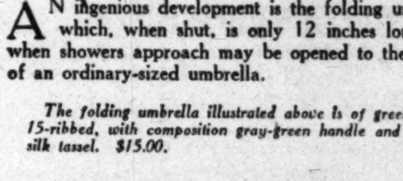
An unusually clever umbrella, illustrated above, is of black silk which is double, the under side showing a bright hand-painted hunting scene. The handle is painted to match. A French importation. $47.50.



The Folding Umbrella

AN ingenious development is the folding umbrella which, when shut, is only 12 inches long, but when showers approach may be opened to the extent of an ordinary-sized umbrella.

The folding umbrella illustrated above is of green silk, 15-ribbed, with composition gray-green handle and green silk tassel. $15.00.



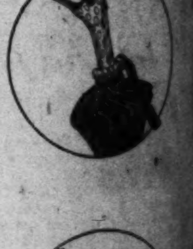
The Cane Umbrella

THE cane umbrella is unusually chic as in its jointed case of composition material, resembling laquered wood, the effect is of a walking stick.

Umbrella illustrated above of dark blue silk with matching silk cover and silver brown outside composition cover. Prystal dog's head handle and metal wrist chain. $22.50.

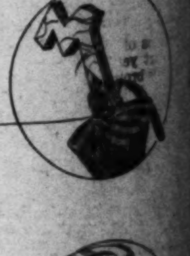
FIRST FLOOR—UMBRELLA SECTION

Gull



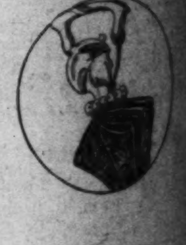
Heavy navy blue silk umbrella with border checks in alternate satin and rib-weave finish in self color. Handle of pale yellow composition material in the shape of a bird's head. A tailored style. $16.50.

Alphabet



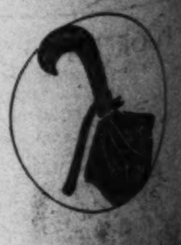
This plain black umbrella of heavy silk is finished with a smart letter handle of amber color with a narrow base stripe of blue. In this case the letter is M.

Parrot



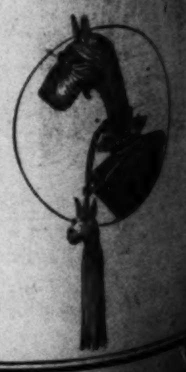
A more elaborate type of umbrella shows the handle finished with a parrot's head carved in prystal and a chain attached handle of the same material. Each one of the sixteen ribs is finished with a small parrot's head similar to the large one. $29.50.

Reptile



A very smart sportsy umbrella is of polka dot rubberized silk with leather covered handle in natural and navy blue lizard. It is light and of small, convenient size. $18.50.

Scotty



This dog's head umbrella has a handle of carved, painted wood in the form of a dog's head with smaller replicas finishing each of the sixteen ribs and as a top for the silk tassel. The ferrule is in the form of a dog's paw. $19.50.

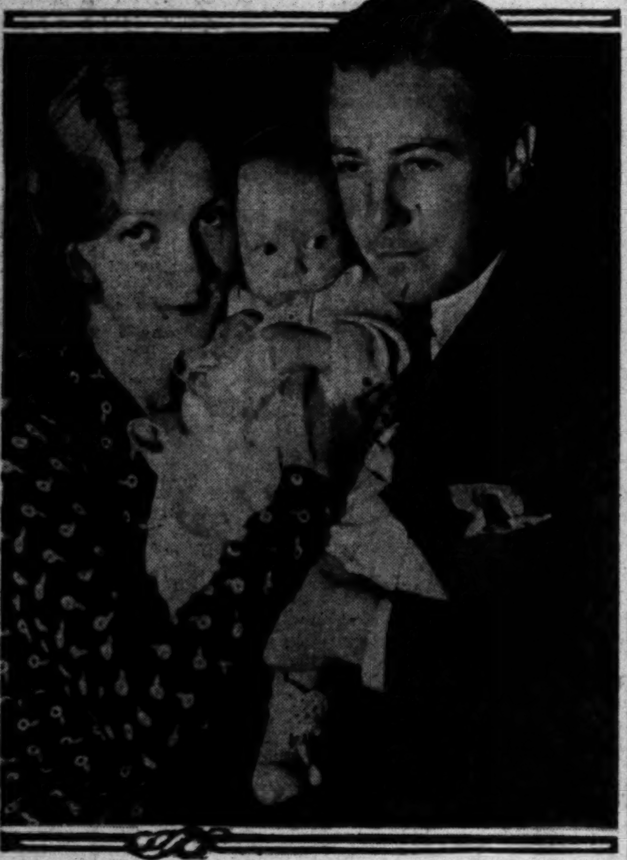
FILM BABY MAKES HIS DEBUT

"Skeets" Gallagher "Ham" to Son



Mr. and Mrs. "Skeets" Gallagher and Baby

RICHARD GALLAGHER, 6-weeks-old son of Richard (Skeets) Gallagher, comedian, looked at his first motion-picture yesterday. His father and mother took him to the Paramount studio when they went to attend a preview of Gallagher's latest picture.

The picture showed Papa Gallagher cutting up in characteristic manner. The young son looked at just one of papa's efforts to be funny, yawned and fell asleep. Gallagher is doubtful now whether he will follow in his dad's footsteps. In any event they managed to keep their heir awake long enough to have his first picture taken.

Mrs. Gallagher formerly was Pauline Mason, well-known on the New York stage. She and Gallagher were married in Mexico in 1929.

RESCUE OF ANGELENO ARRANGED

Hunter Who Fell Into Canyon Must Be Taken Ten Miles Through Brush

Efforts were being made late yesterday by deputy sheriffs, forest rangers and volunteers to save the life of Roy C. Kaiser, an attorney of 826 H. W. Hellman Building, this city.

It was reported that Kaiser, member of a group of hunters, Sunday night fell over a cliff in Indio Canyon, near Acton. He was accompanied by several other hunters, who searched all night and finally found the man at the bottom of the canyon. They were able to reach him, but unable to take him out up the steep cliffs. Forest rangers and deputy sheriffs were notified and arrangements were made to cut a trail a mile and a half long through heavy underbrush, and to carry him out ten miles by horseback.

It was learned that Kaiser had broken a leg and was seriously injured otherwise.

Mission Board Official Will Give Address

DR JOHN McDOWELL

Dr. John McDowell of New York, who was a breaker boy in a coal mine and lost an arm before he was ordained a Christian minister and rose to be secretary of the board of national missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, is to be in Los Angeles from the 23rd to the 27th inst. in the course of an official tour of the nation.

While here Dr. McDowell will deliver one of a series of addresses, stressing the need of the Christian church in America, the importance of national missions and the dangers of commercialization of spirit confronting the country.

MUNICIPAL JUDGES IN NEW JOBS

Numerous Changes Made by Presiding Jurist Due to End of Vacation Period

Municipal Judge Stafford who has been presiding in the master calendar felony preliminary division during the absence on vacation of Judge Ballard, is relieved from that court and assigned to Division 9 at San Pedro by an order of Presiding Judge Ambrose. The order, effective today, makes numerous other changes in assignments as a result of several of the judges returning from vacation.

Judge Ballard is reassigned to Division 3 in place of Judge Stafford and Judge Thompson is sent to Division 5, a misdemeanor court without juries. Judge Sheldon, who has been in Division 7, the misdemeanor jury court, for several years, is temporarily assigned to the Van Nuys court, and Judge Austin goes to Division 7 in his place. Justice of the Peace Wix of Glendale is assigned to Municipal Court, and will preside in Division 10, the traffic trial court. Judges Lickley and Frederickson, returning from vacation, are assigned to their former civil courts, and Judge Galbreth also is assigned to a civil division.

PHONE PIONEERS GATHER

More Than 2000 From All Over America Will Be Here This Week for Annual Session

Comprising the most notable group of telephone people ever entertained at one time by Southern California, more than 2000 Telephone Pioneers of America, including guests and families, are entering the city this week for the annual general assembly of the national association.

Although Friday and Saturday are the two official days of the meeting, trains loaded with pioneers, all of whom have twenty-one years or more service in the telephone industry, are arriving earlier in the week, according to M. L. Stannard, division manager of the Southern California Telephone Company.

A New York train, bringing Canadian and New England delegations as well as those from the Empire State, will reach Los Angeles at 8:30 a.m. Thursday. A Chicago train is scheduled to arrive over Union Pacific at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday.

The two-day assembly includes business meetings, social gatherings, sight-seeing trips, including special excursions to the Fox Movietone studios in eighty busses, and to Catalina Island Sunday. Business meetings and social gatherings are to be held at the assembly headquarters, the Biltmore.

It is estimated that 1500 persons are journeying to Los Angeles from points outside of Southern California, and more than 500 local persons will attend during the convention.

Among the delegates are J. S. McCulloch, president of the National Association of Telephone Pioneers and president of the New York Telephone Company; Dr. Frank B. Jewett, native Californian, graduate of the California Institute of Technology and president of the world's largest research and development institution, Bell Telephone Laboratories, Inc.; William R. Abbott, chairman of the board, Illinois Bell Telephone Company; Herbert L. Badger, vice-president and general manager, Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania;

NEW AIR LINE'S SCHEDULE GIVEN

T.A.T.-Western Air Fusion Opens Service Tomorrow

Both Plane and Rail-Plane Routes Go to New York

Fresno and Bakersfield Cut Off San Francisco Link

Complete rearrangement of schedules of services heretofore operated by T.A.T.-Maddux and Western Air Express was announced yesterday by H. W. Beck, western traffic manager of Transcontinental and Western Air, Inc., which company has taken over control of the services involved. The new schedules, Mr. Beck announced, will become effective tomorrow.

The more important changes are: Establishing of two transcontinental services between Los Angeles and New York City, one to be made entirely by airplane in thirty-six hours, the other to be an air-rail combination requiring forty-six hours.

LINE TO BAY CITY

Airplane passenger service between Los Angeles and San Francisco heretofore maintained by T.A.T.-Maddux, with intermediate stops at Bakersfield and Fresno, will be eliminated and two round-trip schedules will be maintained daily by thirty-passenger, four-motor planes heretofore operated by Western Air Express.

Air-mail service over the all-air line between Los Angeles and New York will commence the 25th inst.

For the convenience of passengers in the Los Angeles area all passenger planes except those on the direct thirty-six-hour air route will make stops at both Grand Central Air Terminal at Glendale and the Alhambra airport of Western Air Express. The one exception is made because the through air route after the 25th inst. will carry mail and it is essential to save as much time as possible.

All ticket offices in the western region heretofore operated by T.A.T.-Maddux and Western Air Express will be equipped to sell tickets over the combined service.

DETAILS OF SCHEDULE

The all-air service provides for departure from the Alhambra airport at 5 a.m. every day and arrival at New York City at 6:18 p.m. the following day. There will be intermediate stops at Winslow, Albuquerque, Amarillo, Wichita, Kansas City, St. Louis, Indianapolis, Columbus, Pittsburgh, Harrisburg and Philadelphia. Westbound planes will leave New York each day at 8 a.m. and arrive at Los Angeles at 8 p.m. the following day, making the same intermediate stops. There will be a night layover for all passengers at Kansas City.

Planes engaged in the air-rail service are to leave Los Angeles at 10:10 a.m. every day and arrive at New York at 9:10 a.m. of the second day. They will fly direct from Los Angeles to Amarillo, where an overnight stop will be made, proceeding east from there the next morning by way of Oklahoma City and Tulsa to St. Louis, Indianapolis and Columbus, where connections will be made with a night Pennsylvania Railroad train to New York.

SERVICE TO WEST

Westbound, passengers will leave New York on the Pennsylvania train for Columbus daily at 6:05 p.m., connect with the plane at Columbus for the flight to Amarillo, where an overnight stop will be made, and the airplane will continue the trip the next morning arriving at Los Angeles at 3:50 p.m. This line will carry air mail only between Amarillo and St. Louis.

Over the Los Angeles-San Francisco route all planes will be operated under a flat three-hour schedule, with stops here at Glendale and Alhambra and the northern terminal at the San Francisco Bay Airdrome. Planes will leave here for San Francisco each day at 8:50 a.m. and 4:20 p.m. Return-

ORIENTALS HONEYMOON IN AIR

Japanese Couple Abreast of Times

Mr. and Mrs. T. Suyehiro

A BIG Western Air Express plane settled to earth at its Los Angeles terminal yesterday and Mr. and Mrs. T. Suyehiro were among the passengers to disembark.

Mr. Suyehiro, wealthy San Francisco merchant, and Mrs. Suyehiro were wed in the Bay City two days ago. There was a huge celebration in which 300 Japanese participated. Many of the rites suggested the far domain of the Rising Sun, but when the newly united couple decided on plans for their honeymoon they did so in keeping with the latest innovations of the Occident.

They started their tour by reserving places on the Western Air Express plane and will continue to travel in occidental style until their trip is ended and they settle down to married life.

Bishop Stevens Asserts Old Forms Do No Meet Modern Concepts

The difficulties of the younger generation in understanding the statements of the Bible, in the light of modern scientific knowledge, must be met with a rewording of the old phrases of religion, in the opinion of Bishop W. Bertrand Stevens, of the Episcopal diocese of Los Angeles, who spoke last night at a dinner given in his honor in the ballroom of the Elk's Temple.

"We are trying to be perfectly frank and free in dealing with young people, "Bishop Stevens said. "Some of the things we used to say about God do not fit in with the modern concept of the universe and it will be necessary to reclothe our language to show the true form of God."

Bishop Stevens quoted in part some of the discussions of the recent Lambeth conference which he attended. He also told of the growing tendency to admit women more freely into the government of the church, and on this point he said: "It is a question of the right of everyone to have a share in the affairs of the church."

The dinner, honoring the tenth anniversary of the consecration of Bishop Stevens in his Los Angeles post, was attended by 500 guests with representatives from most of the churches of the Los Angeles diocese.

William A. Monten, as toastmaster, introduced a list of speakers, who included Bishop Robert B. Gooden, Sir John Adams, Colin Monro Gair, Rev. William Cowans, Rev. Canon Leslie E. Learned and Dr. Remsen D. Bird.

GIRL WILLED ANNUITY BY ROTHSTEIN ARRIVES

Whine of gangster bullets and life as a close friend of Arnold Rothstein, murdered New York gambler, are a closed incident and memories to be forgotten, according to Inez Norton, actress and show girl, who arrived here yesterday.

"There is nothing more to be said or done about the slaying of Arnold," said Miss Norton in her bungalow at the Ambassador. "I have given my complete story of Mr. Rothstein as I knew him and I know of nothing that I might add. I knew him as a gentleman and cultured man, not as he has been pictured since his death two years ago at the hands of assassins," she said, in explaining that she is here for a brief rest and expects to start rehearsals shortly for a stage production.

"I never heard of Jack (Legs) Diamond," the actress said, in speaking of the recent shooting in New York of a former bodyguard of Rothstein. "I can see no connection as far as I know between the slaying of Rothstein and the shooting of Diamond. He might have been a bodyguard for Arnold, but I never heard his name mentioned in any way. Furthermore," she said, "I did not know that Arnold had bodyguards, but did know that he had chauffeurs. None of these was called Diamond, as far as I know."

Settlement of the Rothstein estate in which she has been left by a deathbed will a neat income from his fortune will take place in the next two weeks, according to Miss Norton. She also expects to receive some $20,000 shortly from a life insurance policy left her by Rothstein. "The entire matter is in the hands of the courts," she said, "and settlement, I understand, will be arranged within two weeks."

QUINN BACKS NEW SURVEY IN DAM PLAN

Chief Engineer Eaton to Seek Final Sanction Soon for San Gabriel Study

Chief Engineer Eaton of the county flood-control district has received a telegram from Supervisor Quinn, now in the East, approving his request for $40,000 for a geological survey of the first of three new dam sites in San Gabriel Canyon which are contemplated to take the place of the high dam project at the forks site, which has been abandoned. The money would come from savings made by Eaton's department on flood-control projects last year.

A majority of the Board of Supervisors, according to Engineer Eaton, has indicated approval of the request, subject to the sanction by Quinn and Supervisor Beaty, who is confined to his home recovering from injuries suffered in an airplane crash a week ago. An effort to obtain his approval by telephone or messenger will be made by Eaton early this week.

The new site to be explored by engineers and geologists is two miles south of the high-dam site. Surveys of the other two sites above the abandoned forks site will not be made until spring.

According to Engineer Eaton, three small dams will do the same work as the high dam and can be built with the money remaining from the $25,000,000 bond issue voted for the abandoned project.

SETBACK LINES PLANNED

The City Planning Commission has sent to the City Council its recommendation for the establishment of fifteen-foot setback lines in Wilcox avenue between Melrose avenue and Santa Monica Boulevard. The matter was transmitted to the City Planning Committee.

'ENEMY' PLANES REFUSE TO QUIT

Result of Air War Above City Undecided

Defenders Hold Foe Was Shot Out of Sky

But Latter Kept on Gaily Dropping Bombs

Deadly mimic warfare raged above Los Angeles yesterday, while the city calmly went about its business. Three huge bombers, their motors snarling, swept back and forth dropping theoretical explosives that, had they been real, undoubtedly would have taken a heavy toll of lives. Protecting pursuit planes, air-hornets of an attacking force of Red invaders, roared about them, flashing on their death-dealing mission at 150 miles an hour.

Gallantly engaging them in defense of Los Angeles and United Airport at Burbank was a fleet of Blue planes, guardians of home and hearth of the Southland's queen city. Their speed guns roaring, the defenders swooped from 17,000 feet altitude down on the Red attackers.

LIGHTS SPOT ENEMY

Last night a single Curtiss Condor bomber of the "enemy" forces slipped through the night from San Diego and supposedly loosed its explosive "eggs" on the airport.

But just before it dropped its three brilliant flares, sent down instead of bombs, four blue fingers from 8,000,000-candlepower aircraft searchlights of the Sixty-third Regiment, Coast Artillery, surrounding the United Airport, Burbank, picked the ship from the darkened skies and made it easy prey for the protecting antiaircraft guns.

One pencil of light shot up, flicked across the "attacker's" wing, and in an instant three more centered on the ship and followed it for five miles as it sailed along at 9000 feet.

Flyers of the Blue forces declared the ground artillery would have been able to shoot the bomber down before it could drop its missles, but the crew of the Red plane believed it could have destroyed the airport before it was detected. Word of its coming was flashed to the United field from the Oceanside communication and observation outpost—one station of two bands established to flash warnings of approaching "enemy" ships.

ENGAGEMENTS TODAY

Lieut.-Col. Willis G. Peace and Maj. Felix Gross, directing the maneuvers, were satisfied with the results of yesterday's "engagements," but expect greater efficiency today and tomorrow when similar "attacks" are scheduled for morning, afternoon and evening. Lieut. D. D. Graves again will lead the defending squadron of Blue pursuit ships while Lieut. E. C. Batten will direct the squadron's movements over radio from the ground.

Unfortunately the umpires are not able to agree whether the attack yesterday was successful, with Los Angeles and United Airport reduced to ruins, or the attackers driven off and the city and its air terminal saved.

HERE'S HOW IT WAS

The bombers got through and, in theory, dropped deadly explosives on the city and airport.

But the defending Blue squadron insists they could not have done so, had actual bullets been used in the fighting, for, tactically, the defending planes had shot down the bombers' protecting planes, and therefore were in a position to destroy the big explosive-carriers also.

The air-fighting was the mimic warfare arranged by the United States air forces to test the vulnerability of this city from the air, in case of an attack by a real enemy.

The three bombers in yesterday's engagement were from the Seventh Bombardment Group, Rockwell Field, San Diego. Starting on their deadly mission under command of Lieut. C. H. Howard, they were accompanied by six pursuit planes of the Ninety-fifth Squadron of the Seventh Bombardment Group, under command of Lieut. J. E. Mallory.

The idea was to determine whether they could elude the two outposts established in defense of Los Angeles and break through before the defending six Blue planes, waiting at United Airport, Burbank, could intercept them.

The situation was this:

Exactly at 9:15 a.m. the waiting Blue planes at United Airport re-

DARWIN'S THEORY BACKED

Noted Scientist Gathering Party Here to Seek Cradle of Human Race in Africa

Interrupted two months ago by a summons to aid in Santo Domingo hurricane relief work, Dr. Arthur Torrance, noted tropical disease research leader, is again gathering together an expedition to go to Central Africa to study evidences that that portion of the world was the cradle of the human race, he said on his arrival here yesterday.

Dr. Torrance, who secured his preliminary academic training at the University of Southern California and then studied medicine at Edinburgh University, recalled yesterday at the Alexandria how in 1924 he came across a strange tribe in Central Africa in the vicinity of Lake Chad, whose characteristics were regarded by him as evidence not only of the truth of the Darwinian theory, but also as indications that their region was the part of the world in which the human being developed. The chief peculiarity of this tribe is the large proportion of its members which have hermaphroditic characteristics.

At the time he came across the tribe, he was engaged in his usual work of tropical diseases research for the Royal Society of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene and the American Society of Tropical Medicine, but he brought his observations to the attention of leading anthropologists on his return. In 1927 he headed a party of anthropologists which sought to find and study the strange tribe, but savage tribes to the north prevented the party from reaching their destination.

He was about to set out at the head of a similar expedition when Santo Domingo was laid waste by hurricane and the Royal Society cabled him and asked him to go there and act as its representative in relief work. Arriving there, he placed himself at the disposal of the Red Cross and, in view of his experience in handling tropical diseases, was placed in charge of sani-

ALTHOUGH I never thought about it in that light before, I dare say that snakes have a natural predilection for Gardens of Eden and are not content with squirming around any lesser place.

And that's why the Congressional committee has found Communism flourishing more lustily in Southern California than elsewhere in America.

GIVE 'EM AIR

Between the two, the Red soviets, rampaging around like mad dogs trying to destroy the world, are entitled to more respect than are these "free-speech" cranks.

Just what is it that Parson Taft and Attorney Beardsley want to talk about that is so important? Both have been talking for some time without saying anything that convinces us the world would be an aching void without their oratory.

The truth is that the United States is facing a crisis much more dangerous than during the World War. The Reds are seeking to undermine the structure and life of this government; and Parson Taft wants to keep his foot in the door which we would close against them. Well, he best knows the amount of wind to be let out.

In my opinion it is no time for blather about "free speech." This is one of the times when you are either for Uncle Sam or against him.

SCARFACE

If "Scarface Al" Capone takes it into his head to run a gambling ship outside the twelve-mile limit it will be hard to head him off.

This twelve-mile law is an absurdity. It has about as much application to modern times as a flintlock gun has to modern war. It is a slight expansion of the diplomatic limit of sovereignty, and this limit was made in the time of sailing ships. To say the waters between San Pedro and Catalina are not morally the property of the United States is just funny. The limit should be at least 100 miles.

MILADY

It's odd how little words get your goat. The one that gets mine is "milady," used by young lady journalists to designate females who are intent on buying underclothes.

SELF-CONSOLATION

A gentleman named Gazzigusuppi—or some such name—writes to inform me that I have the mind of a child. Well, but maybe I'm a bright child. Have you ever thought of that?

TRAINED ANIMALS

At last, an automobile accident over which one can rejoice. Somebody upset the pound wagon and all the dog prisoners escaped. Although, on second thought, who knows what acting genius has been lost to the world?

It is a trade secret that all the dogs used by Zion Myers in his funny dog comedies come from the pound. They are rescued and trained by a man who owns a dog farm with 300 canines. He gets pound dogs by preference, finding them smarter than thoroughbreds.

Which brings to mind the experiences of an animal trainer friend of mine. He says that French poodles are the easiest to train of all animals. Cats and goats are the hardest. Monkeys learn easily and forget just as easily. Everything a monkey knows is likely to oooze right out of his head at critical moments. A horse has the best memory of all—next to an elephant.

ceived a flash that the invading bombers and their squadron of protecting planes were on the way. At 10:10 a.m. the defending fleet sighted the invaders above Whittier.

The six Blue defenders had climbed to an altitude of 17,000 feet, and detected the attackers flying at 10,000 feet.

The Blues dove with speed guns wide open. Presumably they were in a position to have destroyed the protecting Boeing pursuit planes, which was the task set them as their first tactical maneuver, and the defenders claim they actually did destroy them. But, as no actual missiles were used, the bombers calmly kept on their way, and sped back and forth over the city and the United Airport, raining down bombs of frightful deadliness. One of the enemy bombers even landed. Having done this they went back to San Diego for lunch, and the supposedly destroyed protecting Red planes did likewise.

The six Blue planes returned to United Airport for lunch.

At 2:30 p.m. the battle broke out afresh. This time word was flashed to United Airport the attackers, returning from their scheduled second foray from Rockwell Field, had slipped by the outposts and were above Newport.

Again the defending Blue squadron roared gallantly forth, engaging the enemy at 2:53 at about the same 10,000-foot level. Again, supposedly, the Blues inflicted heavy punishment on the protecting pursuit planes, and again the bombers kept calmly on their course, and went through the maneuver of dropping bombs on the city and the air field.

SKETCH OF ASSESSMENT AREAS WILL BE POSTED

Permission to include a rough sketch of the proposed assessment district in the "notice of improvement" erected by the City Engineer has been granted to City Engineer Jessup by the City Council.

The Council has increased this item of the City Engineer's expense by $2600, which, it is estimated, will be enough to permit him to have the additional sketches printed and posted.

The fact that these small, finely printed notices stuck on trees and poles about the district fail to give the property owner much enlightenment has always been a source of complaint at the City Hall. Citizens find it extremely difficult to follow the legal description of the district, and complain that they want a map with definite and well-known lines.

BOND ISSUE NEEDS TOLD BY MONETTE

Growth of City Demands Power Expansion to Take Dam Current, He Says

"The $13,300,000 power bond issue to be voted on at the November 4 election is vitally necessary for the proper expansion of our municipally owned electric system to enable it to meet the growing power needs of the city and to prepare for the Boulder Dam project," Orra E. Monette, chairman of the board of the Bank of Italy National Trust and Savings Association, said yesterday.

"I consider these bonds essential to the economic well-being of our community for the following reasons:

"First, provision at this time for the purchase of transmission rights-of-way from the Boulder Canyon is necessary so we may be prepared to take the Boulder Canyon power which has been allotted to us and which we must take and pay for when the Federal government has completed the plant.

"Second, the contemplated extensions and improvements to our electric system are essential steps toward the receiving and advantageous utilization of Boulder Canyon power, and furthermore through the approval of the bonds our people will be keeping faith with the Federal government and insure further appropriations by Congress for constructing the Boulder Dam project, on which we must depend for both water and power.

"Third, the proposed extensions are also necessary at this time so the increased demand for electric service by our people may be met."

ing, they leave San Francisco at 7 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

The early departure is made from San Francisco so that passengers from that city may connect with the 10:10 a.m. plane leaving for the East. By this arrangement San Francisco is given approximately a forty-eight-hour service with New York.

TEXAS CONNECTIONS

The new schedule provides a twenty-four-hour air-and-rail service between Southern California and Texas points, for arrangements have been made by which passengers leaving here at 10:10 a.m. will connect with a train at Amarillo for an overnight run to Fort Worth and Dallas, arriving at 8 a.m. the next morning. The schedule for the same trip from San Francisco calls for approximately twenty-seven hours.

The schedule shows that Transcontinental and Western Air, Inc., are entering a territory in Central United States heretofore covered by Southwest Air Fast Express, and from which this company is just withdrawing. Considering old schedules, the important eliminations are the absence of Bakersfield and Fresno from the Los Angeles-San Francisco route and the rail trip heretofore made on the T.A.T.-Maddux line between Clovis and Wyanoka.

Over all routes, the announcement of Mr. Beck says, trimotored cabin planes will be used, except on the Los Angeles-San Francisco route, where the four-motored thirty-passenger ships will be continued in service.

Passenger rates, Mr. Beck added, will average 7 cents per mile. For the air-rail trip the cost from Los Angeles to New York City is to be $181.43. For the all-air trip the cost will be $201. The fares to San Francisco and Agua Caliente remain unchanged.

Members of the police intelligence division testified they arrested Rabinbach on September 12 while he was distributing radical literature printed in Yiddish.

SHOOTING END OF MANY ROWS

Auto Mechanic Quits Job Following Separation

Spouse Working as Waitress Refuses to Return

Girl Coming From School Walks Into Death

An estrangement marked by frequent bickering over the problem of reconciliation came to a tragic finale yesterday when Herman Huchendorf, 36 years of age, an automobile mechanic and son of a wealthy widowed mother, murdered his wife and young daughter and then joined them in death by ending his own life. The triple tragedy occurred in a duplex flat the mother and daughter occupied at 1402 North Catalina street.

Fate played an unkind trick on the daughter, Maxine, 15, in including her among the victims, for only a spell of sickness that had seized her at school caused her to be at home when Huchendorf went on his murderous rampage. She was a pupil in the B-9 grade at Le Conte Junior High School.

HEARD QUARRELING

Unable to work at his trade because of despondency over the separation, which took place about six months ago, Huchendorf went to visit his wife, Alice, yesterday, shortly before noon. The next-door neighbor, Mrs. Paul Pollock, told Detective Lieutenant Paul Stevens she heard them quarreling. A few minutes later Maxine returned from school, excused for the day because of illness.

The argument continued, according to the way police reconstructed the tragedy, Huchendorf pleading for a reconciliation and his wife adamant in her refusal to heed his plea. Suddenly two shots rang out and Maxine screamed. Mrs. Pollock rushed to the porch and saw the girl appear a moment at the door—then stagger back into the house. Several more shots then were heard, followed by Mrs. Huchendorf's screams. Going to the rear Mrs. Pollock saw her neighbor reel from the house and collapse in the yard. Then followed two more shots—then silence.

EACH SHOT TWICE

Police found Mrs. Huchendorf dead on the rear lawn, Maxine in the living-room and Huchendorf in the kitchen. Each had been shot twice, the daughter and her mother through the chest and Huchendorf through both the right temple and chest. Four shells from the .32-caliber gun in Huchendorf's hand were found on the floor and two unexploded shells still in the weapon, establishing that the murderer-suicide missed his mark four times and thus had to reload the gun in order to end his own life.

From neighbors of Huchendorf it was learned he and his wife separated about six months ago. They said they understood he had objected to his wife's failure to keep a disciplinary eye on the daughter. At that time the family lived at 1220 North Bronson avenue. Mrs. Huchendorf and Maxine went to live at the Catalina-street address, which is owned by Mrs. V. Shea of 835 North Las Palmas avenue; and Huchendorf went to his mother, Mrs. H. S. Huchendorf, and his sister, Miss Olive Huchendorf, at 5253 Fountain avenue.

HE QUIT WORK

Since the estrangement, Mrs. Huchendorf had been working as a waitress in a restaurant at 5080 Hollywood Boulevard, and her husband as a machinist. The latter last week left his position at the White Garage on Cahuenga avenue. "He just laid down his tools," his mother's friends said, "because he couldn't work—he was so dejected!"

Friends and neighbors alike of Mrs. Huchendorf were unable to give any additional information to police concerning the estrangement, other than that it had centered about the daughter. All stated Mrs. Huchendorf never discussed her domestic affairs. Miss Annabelle Mervin, 22 years of age, who for six weeks had occupied a room at the Catalina-street flat, said the woman was extremely reticent. Miss Mervin was working at the time of the tragedy. She is employed in the diet kitchen at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital.

The Huchendorf family, together with the husband's mother and sister, came to Los Angeles about seven years ago from Minneapolis, where the elder Huchendorf, now dead, was a wealthy miller. Huchendorf's mother and sister last night were prostrated with grief over the triple tragedy.

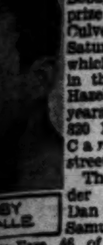
FOUR ARRESTED IN PARTY DEATH

Girl Expires While Drinking With Boxer La Salle

Asserted Bootleggers Held as Sequel to Tragedy

Fighter Tells of Rum Orgy in Friend's Apartment

Four asserted Venice bootleggers were arrested late yesterday on suspicion that they are the men who provided the synthetic gin drunk at a wild party given by Bobby La Salle, prize fighter, in Culver City Saturday night which resulted in the death of Hazel Cole, 20 years of age, of 820 1-4 South Carondelet street.



BOBBY LA SALLE

The men under arrest are Dan W. Hatt, 31, Samuel S. Stut[illegible], Joe Vara, 46, of 4231 South [illegible]ington avenue, and Joe Canfield, [illegible] of 422 Pico Boulevard, Santa [illegible]. Both were taken in custody at 1618 Washington Boulevard by Police Sergeant Crane of the Venice division, and were ordered held on charges of suspicion of manslaughter until a chemical analysis of the contents of the dead girl's stomach is made. A liquor charge also was placed against Hatt.

EVIDENCES OF PARTY

La Salle and the girl were found in an apartment at 4105 Duquesne [illegible], Culver City, early Sunday morning. The boxer was in an intoxicated stupor, apparently from the effects of liquor, and the girl was dead. Physicians called immediately after the two were discovered said she had been dead for some time.

About the apartment, Deputy Sheriff Gray and Officer Block, the latter of the Culver City Police Department, said, they found many evidences of a rough party. Rugs were rolled back and empty liquor and ginger-ale bottles were strewn about. The girl had been disrobed.

Despite these facts, however, the investigating officers declared that they found no evidence of physical violence on the girl's body, and when La Salle came out of his stupor he denied having assaulted the girl in any way. He said, however, that they had drunk a large quantity of gin which he and another man had purchased from Hatt and Stutsel. No charge was placed against the prize fighter pending further investigation.

DISEASE REVEALED

That the liquor, however, may have been only a contributing cause of death was indicated by Deputy Sheriff Gray last night, when, he said, he obtained information from the girl's mother, Mrs. F. M. Cole, that her daughter had been suffering from a constitutional disease for some time.

The party at which the Cole girl met her death was given in an apartment occupied by Neil Murphy, a friend of La Salle. Murphy told officers that early Saturday he and the boxer purchased eight bottles of gin. Later they went to a public dance at Ocean Park. There they met the Cole girl and May [illegible], 17, of 414 North Spaulding avenue, Los Angeles.

The two girls, Murphy said, accompanied the men to Murphy's apartment. One drink was served and then Murphy left to take the [illegible] girl home. Later he returned to his apartment and it was arranged that he go to 2766 West [illegible] street, Los Angeles, where a [illegible] known as Maravelle, who had originally accompanied the Cole girl to the beach dance, lives.

TRAGEDY DISCOVERED

Murphy said he found the girl [illegible] that she could not return with [illegible] at once and he returned alone. When he arrived at the apartment he discovered LaSalle unconscious and Miss Cole dead, he related.

LaSalle, when he was able to talk, [illegible] that he remembered little after taking a few drinks. He denied that he had beaten or struck the Cole girl. Murphy's story of events during the early part of the evening was corroborated by the Le[illegible] girl, who was taken to the Sheriff's office by her father and [illegible].

The victim of the liquor party had been a resident of Los Angeles about three years. She lived with her mother. Formerly she attended an academy at Santa Fe, N. M., and more recently graduated from a downtown beauty college. An inquest will be conducted tomorrow or Thursday.

[illegible] RITES CONDUCTED

The last rites for John M. Car[illegible], [illegible] years of age, 151 East Fifty-[illegible] street, who was found dead in his cabin on Mount Gleason, [illegible] miles southeast of Acton, in [illegible] Mountains, were conducted yesterday morning at 10:30 [illegible] Chapel, Inglewood Park [illegible].

Death was attributed directly to [illegible] disease, and indirectly to lack of medical attention at the time. [illegible] his widow, Mrs. Mathilde [illegible], a daughter, Miss Ethel [illegible], and four sisters and three [illegible].

Garbage Service Financing Plan Given Approval

By eliminating from the budget four truck owners, City Engineer Jessup, with the approval of the City Council, has made arrangements for the transfer of funds to the overtime account for garbage and refuse collection so that this necessary service will not suffer during the period of depletion of the city treasury. By this transfer there will be available an additional $3070 during October, $6780 during November and $4650 during December.

The Council also asked the Board of Public Works to report on the plan for paying garbage and rubbish workers on an hourly basis to eliminate the nuisance of special overtime payment.

Suit for Divorce Filed by Wife of Hospital Owner

Ralph C. Dunn neglected his hospital to run around after women, according to Mrs. Letha Call Dunn's divorce complaint on file yesterday, naming one Opal Trowbridge as corespondent.

In addition Dunn would remain away from home all night, his wife says, giving no explanation for his absence. On three occasions, she asserts, he registered at hotels with Miss Trowbridge.

Mrs. Dunn also asks a share of community property, which includes the Centinela Hospital.

Two Boys Rob Girl of Purse

Two 15-year-old boy bandits yesterday were being sought by Sheriff's office investigators following a report made by Betty Warner, 1214 West Ninety-eighth street, that they held her up and fled with her purse, which contained 60 cents and other effects of no monetary value.

The boys, according to a Sheriff's report, followed Miss Warner from Ninety-eighth street and Vermont and accosted her at Budlong avenue, one of them exhibiting a small gun. The purse, minus the 60 cents, was recovered a short distance down the street, officers reported.

Comparisons Called Odious

Angels versus curs was the line-up in Mrs. Edith M. Elliott's marital experience, according to her ideas, as told by Hugh V. Elliott during his divorce trial in Superior Judge Hanby's court.

Mrs. Elliott's former husbands were the angels. The plaintiff and his associates were described as the curs.

Mrs. Elliott left her husband after eight years, it was testified, and the divorce was granted on grounds of desertion.

SAMUEL T. LOVEJOY TO BE BURIED TODAY

Samuel Thomas Lovejoy, traveling auditor for the Santa Fe Railroad, who died Saturday at Bakersfield, will buried today in Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. at the D. C. Gulick chapel, 1249 South Flower street. Mr. Lovejoy was 43 years of age and had resided in Los Angeles since 1910. His home was at 768 North Virgil avenue. He was a member of the Masonic and Elks lodges. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Ruth B. Lovejoy; his father, W. H. Lovejoy; one sister and one brother.

TWO BOYS HELD FOR CAR THEFT

Arrests Climax Beach City Juvenile Crime Wave

Suspects Reported Fugitives From Kansas Institution

Two Other Lads Arraigned in Clubhouse Robbery

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

SANTA MONICA, Oct. 13.—The arrest at Colton and return here of two youthful prisoners on auto-theft charges today climaxed what local authorities regard as one of the most serious juvenile crime waves in Santa Monica police history.

A 15-year-old boy said to have been twice sentenced on auto-theft charges in Kansas and who is asserted to have escaped from the State Industrial School at Topeka, together with his companion, 14, said to have escaped from the same institution, were charged with stealing at the beach last Saturday an automobile belonging to J. J. Sloane of 1754 West Thirty-eighth street, Los Angeles.

The boys gave their names as Sam Harrell, 14, of Pratt, Kan., and James McGregory, 15, of Wichita. The Juvenile Court will handle the charges against the pair.

Two youths who entered a local beach club and assertedly took cigars, cigarettes and chewing gum were arraigned before Police Judge Spencer today. Both live in the bay district and one of them, 16 years of age, will go to Juvenile Hall. The other, 18, gave his name as Henry Keddy and he was held under $2500 bail to answer to burglary charges.

CUTTING CAT'S EARS CHARGED

Woman Faces Trial Today as Sequel of Asserted Act to Obviate "Hexing"

Accused of cutting the ears of her cat because she believed the animal had "hexed" her and that the curse could be removed by her act, Mrs. Martha Peterson is to appear before Municipal Judge Eagan today for trial on a charge of cruelty to animals.

Mrs. Peterson was arrested by Investigator Craig of the S.P.C.A., after neighbors reported her asserted act. She is at liberty on $100 bail.

Fewkes to Hear Sentence Today on Grand Theft

J. B. Fewkes, Los Angeles promoter convicted of grand theft, is scheduled to appear before Superior Judge Fricke at 10 a.m. today for sentence.

Fewkes was convicted of bilking Mrs. Thomas E. Merrill of 137 North Carson Road out of $6500 in a stock transaction. Mrs. Merrill accused the promoter of accepting the money from her to invest in stock of the Accounting Service Company, which she said he failed to deliver.

The defendant contended, however, that Mrs. Merrill invested the money in a partnership transaction.

Husband Denied Alimony Plea

There wasn't enough money to support two persons in the community estate of George H. Ehrhard, 63 years of age, and Mrs. Dora Ehrhard, 80, suing for divorce, Court Commissioner Doyle found yesterday.

So the commissioner denied Ehrhard's plea for alimony, expressing the opinion that Ehrhard is more able to work than his wife, who collects $110 a month income from the property.

DANIEL BRONSON MOURNED

Former General Inspector of Forest Service Who Died Sunday Had Many Friends in West

The death Sunday of Daniel D. Bronson at Covina was mourned yesterday by many as the passing of one who for years had most to do with the administration of the national forests of the West.

DANIEL D. BRONSON.

Mr. Bronson was born January 30, 1876, at Lowville, N. Y., the only son of Miles H. and Mary Bronson. In 1894 he was graduated from Wesleyan University at Middleton, Ct., and ten years later received the degree of forest engineer at Biltmore Forest School, Biltmore, N. C. He entered the United States Forest Service in 1905.

His first assignment was to the Southwest from which he was transferred to Portland, Or. in charge of the Cascade National Forest. With headquarters in distant Washington, it was imperative the supervising officer be a man of resource and ability.

After serving creditably as supervisor of this great public domain, Mr. Bronson was transferred again to the Southwest in 1907 as chief inspector of the district embracing the national forests of New Mexico, Arizona and part of Colorado. Those were the days of the range wars between the cattle and sheep men.

Mr. Bronson handled the situation so effectively he was transferred to Washington in 1908 and made general inspector for the whole forest service. In this work he visited every section of the West.

He resigned during the World War to enter the Navy. At the end of the war he re-entered the forest service. In March, 1920, he married Winifred Skinner of Rochester, N. Y. The same year he resigned as chief inspector and bought an orange grove near Covina. He leaves his widow and a sister, Mrs. Louise Bronson Cochran of Hartford, Ct.

CLUB TEA SATURDAY

A bridge-tea of the Raymunda Club will be given Saturday afternoon, the 22nd inst., in Alumni Social Hall. The committee to arrange for the tea is to be appointed at a special meeting at 8 p.m. Monday, the 20th inst.

"Meal Ticket" Role Asserted

Irma Mae Corcoran was looking for a meal ticket, not a husband, when she married George Louis Corcoran, the latter states in his petition for an annulment, on file yesterday.

The plaintiff's grounds for annulment are that the defendant perpetrated a fraud on him, by promising she would be a true wife to him, and then failing to live up to her promise.

The couple were married at Yuma September 29, last, and separated a week later.

Money Trouble Cited by Wife

Although her husband was making $1000 a month as an advertising salesman, Mrs. James Gladys Howard asserts in her divorce petition against Joseph M. Howard, he refused to give her money, and when she drew a $60 check on their account, he stopped payment on it.

The resulting argument with the persons who cashed the check greatly embarrassed Mrs. Howard, she says. On other occasions Howard stayed out all night, she added, and wouldn't tell what he was doing. The couple were married in July, 1925, and separated October 10, last.

Today's Bible Text

So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.—Heb. ix:28.

HOT WATER

Hot water has been found at the bottom of a Montana lake. This is not remarkable. We know folks who get into hot water every time they turn around and do not have to dive to find it.

HARD PROBLEM

If the Councilmen think that they can stay excess radio noises in the city they are overly optimistic. Everybody would wish them well—except the more flagrant offenders, and they never will let up.

RACKET

New York City has abolished policemen's whistles in the antinoise campaign. And yet this is not so original. Chicago's policemen do not seem to do much whistling, and there is more racket than ever.

HOLY

A holy man of India, a Sadhu of the Himalayas, has not spoken a word for twenty years. They call him a holy man and this would seem to fit. Possibly if others would follow suit, they might be regarded as holy also.

THE ROOSEVELT FAMILY

It is hard to keep the Roosevelts out of politics. Of course there is Franklin Roosevelt, the Democrat, who has been a picturesque Governor of New York and is trying for it again. There is the redoubtable Theodore, Jr., famous explorer, who has been a Republican candidate for Governor of New York and is now the highly efficient Governor-General of Porto Rico. Then there is Nicholas Roosevelt, who was named as Vice-Governor of the Philippines, but who declined the appointment when some of the politicians of the Independence party in the islands objected to some of his former acts and utterances when in the Philippines. He said that he did not want in any way to embarrass the administration. But President Hoover said he was the kind of man needed in the public service and promptly appointed him Minister to Hungary. There his capacities may properly shine. Then, of course, there is Alice Roosevelt Longworth, who is perhaps the best-trained politician of them all. The Roosevelts have writ their names high in the history of their country.

DEMISE OF THE HOT DOG

The hot dog has the death rattle in its throat. It may be the friend and playmate of youth and the first love of the aged; but it does not bring in enough kale to its vender to justify its continued existence. It will soon be classified along with the mastodon and other ancient and extinct animals.

Nobody has had the hardihood to claim that its kennels ever adorned the landscape. Nor has the eating joint filled the circumambient with the perfume of Araby. It has given the parking place in front of the snowy mountain and giant redwood the flavor of the kitchen.

And yet its smoke has been sweet incense to the hungry. The kiddies cry for it. Adults weep over its grave. It goes down in history as one of the most useful institutions of the times. All classes have found it able to meet their inmost demands. That it has been so popular speaks for its great adaptability. It has had the American genius in that it always landed on its feet in the hurly-burly of the hour. It was able to keep the pace with progress. It could be eaten as you ran. It possessed all the ingredients of a well-balanced Hollywood diet and yet there was never any cover charge for its accomplishments.

But it is too cheap!

The concessionaire cannot make a living on it. The consumer gets all the profits. Refined Hamburger, entirely surrounded by lettuce and olives, is to be substituted for it. Various forms of hot stuff are being tried out to bend over the nerves of taste to make us forget it. A desperate chance is being taken to supplant the hot dog with "something just as good." The mourners go about the streets.

But dry those tears! The good can never die!

DID IT FIND FACTS?

Since the report of the Governor's fact-finding committee on the Mexican situation in California undoubtedly will be used at the forthcoming Congressional session by the Mexican baiters of that body, it is somewhat important to determine in what particulars the committee failed to find facts.

To begin with, its basic finding is fallacious. The report estimates the number of Mexicans now in California from the percentage increase between 1910 and 1920, whereas everybody knows that this percentage has not only not been maintained, but that the current of flow of Mexican migration has actually been reversed in the last few years!

In other words, the report ignores completely the effect of the State Department passport regulations, the tightening up of the border patrol, and factors such as increased opportunity for employment in Mexico due to the stabilization of the government, all of which have come into being since 1920.

The committee cannot be blamed for not having the actual figures, since the 1930 census report on this point is not yet made public, but it need not have made the serious blunder of assuming that the rate of Mexican immigration has not changed when it is certain that it has. What the present Mexican population of California now is it is impossible to say or even to estimate with any accuracy and the committee should have admitted this fact. In speaking of Mexican population, of course, there is no inclusion of the native Americans racially allied to Mexicans, and of these there are large numbers all over the Southwest, a fact which complicates the difficulties of any survey.

In view of this fundamental error, the accuracy of the whole of the report is subject to challenge and renders rather naive its statement that "the committee feels that the data presented were prepared by its investigators . . . without reference to the possible use to which these data may be put."

The fact that the committee was appointed by Gov. Young, product of a northern political machine which not only has no knowledge or appreciation of Southern California's problems, but is actually prejudiced against them, was sufficient to create in the minds of Southern California employers of labor a fear that the committee would start with a preconceived though possibly unconscious bias in the matter. That fear seems to have been justified.

The report contains an immense amount of statistical matter of slight actual significance. Where the facts were significant not all of them have been made available nor in the proper perspective. For example:

"A tabulation of 904 replies from farm operators regarding their preferences for various groups of labor shows that 323, or 35.7 per cent, prefer Mexican labor; 185, or 20.5 per cent, prefer white labor, and 134, or 14.8 per cent, prefer Japanese labor. Other replies indicate preferences for other groups of labor or for more than one racial group of laborers."

"Farm operators" in California is an inclusive term. There should have been an analysis and distribution of the replies to show what proportions of what racial groups are employed in the citrus industry, in the walnut industry, in lettuce, tomato and melon growing in Imperial Valley, in cattle ranching, in the grape industry and so on. Without such an analysis and distribution no conclusions worth drawing can be drawn.

The use of the word "preference" is also misleading. It implies that "farm operators" can pick and choose. The fact is they take what they can get, and what they can get varies in different forms of agriculture and horticulture and in different parts of the State. There are whole industries in California in which the work is either done by Mexicans, or will not be done at all, and of this highly significant state of affairs the committee apparently takes no cognizance whatever.

It does admit, however, that "Mexican labor is used most generally in Imperial county and Coachella Valley in Riverside county; also in Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino and San Diego counties"—in other words, all over Southern California, a region of scant interest to Gov. Young and the northern machine except as a source of taxation.

Some of the other industrial statistics which the committee puts out are also misleading. For example, the committee says: "Six large interestate and interurban railroads had 10,706 Mexican laborers on their pay rolls in May, 1928." Doing what sort of work? And could substitutes have been found for them? The committee does not say.

It finds that in California industry as a whole there is about 11 per cent of Mexican labor, and gives statistics for various sorts of industry, winding up with this conclusion: "Mexican immigrants have gained a strong foothold in California industries, UNDOUBTEDLY SUPPLANTING OTHER IMMIGRANT RACES AND NATIVE AMERICANS."

The statement is open to challenge. The kinds of work which Mexicans perform in industry are, in general, the rough and heavy sorts which others refuse to do or are not adapted to perform in this climate, but which are necessary to be done. Instead of "supplanting" other immigrants and native Americans, Mexican labor is a basis which furnishes employment for thousands of whites. If it were not for Mexican common labor many industries with huge pay rolls for "other immigrants and native Americans" simply would not exist.

The "fact-finding committee" has not actually found the facts, or even the most significant facts.

WHO'S WHO AND HOW

The latest edition of "Who's Who" is out with 29,704 short biographies. Some of them are there because they are too widely known to be passed over. Others are there for no seeming reason to the average intellect.

All are chosen according to the editors because of "special prominence in creditable lines of effort." They are subjects of extensive interest, inquiry and discussion. Curiosity on the part of the world seems to be the chief explanation.

If excellence had been the determining factor, some not there might have been included and some found there would have been omitted.

However, it is a game like picking the sixty-four prominent men of the country, or the fifty women who have done the most for their generation.

It just cannot be done successfully by any human. The picker is sadly handicapped by his own slant and bias. His perspective makes the near big and important and the distant small and insignificant. Then he is surrounded by his friends who stand so closely that he has difficulty seeing over their heads. The foothills in some cases hide the mountain peaks.

Yet the volume is a useful reference compendium of those in public print. It is a dictionary of people with enough definition and biography to satisfy most inquirers.

The LEE SIDE o' L.A.
BY Lee Shippey

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA has numerous gardens which are more than gardens. There is Memory Garden at San Fernando and the Forest of Fame in Botanic Gardens and the deodar grove overlooking Hollywood Bowl, each tree in which is a gift from some one who wishes to preserve the beautiful in Los Angeles. And now there is to be a Virgilian garden at Holmby College, in which the trees the great Mantuan loved are to be planted. A Virgilian garden recently has been established in his birthplace, and this one within sight of the Pacific probably is the only other one. It is to be dedicated October 16.

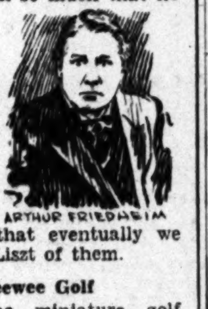
It has created a very lovely and artistic campus, this Holmby College and Westlake School for Girls, but it wishes every beauty spot to have meaning and significance and this tribute of a far-western school to a poet who lived in Mantua many centuries ago is an indication of its reverence for the classic ideal. Perhaps we cannot all be crude westerners if Virgil still lives in the hearts of some of us and we provide a place in which his shade might love to rest. Anyway, we'll have the shade of his favorite trees, planted in such a spirit of love as well might tempt that other shade.

No Such Dubs

When you see a film show depicting the hardships the pioneers endured in covered-wagon days you are filled with wonder—as to why the pioneers so often chose the hardest and most destructive descent or ascent instead of using a little common sense.

Another Pupil of Liszt

Our recent article about George Liebling, "last and youngest pupil of Franz Liszt," brings a letter from Constance Henry Beauer of Long Beach, who writes: "I would like something said of another California resident who was for nine or ten years a pupil of Liszt, who lived with Liszt for eight years as secretary-professor and assisted all the young last pupils who came to Liszt. The pupils both at Weimer and at Rome considered this man, Arthur Friedheim, the one best fitted to interpret the ideas and ideals of the master. Friedheim was born in Russia and educated there, and after graduation studied music under Anton Rubinstein. Then he went to Weimer and Liszt liked him so much that he made him his private secretary. Friedheim has been living in Long Beach for some time."

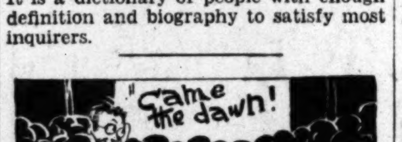


As we have remarked before, they all come here. We have so many notable musicians here that eventually we ought to make a Liszt of them.

The Decline of Peewee Golf

For a time the miniature golf courses had the theaters on the run, but now the latter have come back with what must seem to the golf-course men a vengeance. Last night we drove out Hollywood Boulevard at the theater-going hour and got into such a procession of shiny new cars as we'd never seen before. But nearly all of them ran right past the golf courses, while the theater to which we went was jammed. Several courses which must have cost a good deal have been abandoned and though some continue to be pretty well patronized, many of them have cut their prices. If you really enjoy miniature golf, "now is the time to buy." And if you should express a desire to purchase a course you probably would be killed in the rush.

This doesn't mean that the fad is over, but merely that the building of courses was overdone. Neighborhood and suburban courses still are doing pretty well and thousands of children are getting the habit. A child birthday party was given on one of the suburban courses the other day, the little guests being invited there instead of to the home of the party-giver. The children enjoyed it immensely and the parents of the birthday boy say the saving in wear and tear on the home was considerable. The game is good, with many healthful advantages over some other forms of entertainment, and the courses which survive should enjoy a healthy patronage. But they won't all survive. For that matter, most of the theaters wouldn't either, if they didn't continually work to keep the public interested.



THE GOOD OLD DAYS

By James J. Montague

I am not very fond of "the speakies."
They lack the fine chances for rest
And to snatch a few naps in the darkness, perhaps,
Which the old-fashioned "movies" possessed.
But mostly I miss the grand titles
Which now and then flashed on the screen,
Such as: "Night tide has gone but comes grandly the dawn
To illuminate the glorious scene!"

The speech of the rancher's sweet daughter
When her heart by hot passion is stirred
And she shrinks at a look from some city-bred crook
Seem far better printed than heard.
I like to see typed in large letters
Which no one can choose but behold:
"Though but humble and poor I can see no allure
In your millions of ill-gotten gold!"

I am always moved deeply by love scenes,
But when language is tense and profound
And aimed to impart a swift tug at the heart
I prefer it in type, not in sound.
And when lovers were dark and romantic
The silence proved still more a boon,
They could throw their whole souls into love-making roles
But one never need fear they would croon!

One "speakie" I witnessed that pleased me;
It featured an opera star
Who was cast in a part that would exploit his art,
But before it had gone very far
The machine seemed to get out of order,
There followed a whirl and a hum,
And the play went along, but with no words or song,
For the hero thereafter was dumb!

WHAT OTHERS THINK ABOUT IT

CALLIOPES IN THE HEARST SHOW

[San Francisco Chronicle.]

We know of no retired circus man living in San Francisco. But if there were one and we interviewed him he would undoubtedly speak as follows:

I am an old-time and successful circus man. I don't want to be accused of busting in on another man's game. Yet I want to contribute my bit to helping our Supervisors out with their part of the big show now under way.

I'm surprised that the Supervisors haven't come along with the idea of a calliope for the big parade they are getting up. Some of them, of course, may be jealous of the calliope, but I want to tell them right now that even the best of them can't compete with the steam pipes.

Besides, each Supervisor might shine all the more in the show by taking a whack at the calliope keyboard. Let each select a tune now and practice a little every once in a while until show day and they all can get away with it.

So that there won't be any doubling up on the same pieces, I make a few suggestions..

Mr. Roncovieri, as a trained musician, should have two pieces, "Fifty Million Frenchmen Can't Be Wrong" and "After the Bawl."

For Mr. Andrino, "Never Again."

For Mr. Havenner, "He's My Man."

For Dr. Toner "I'm Confessin' That I Love You."

For Mr. Stanton, "Many Brave Hearts Are Asleep in the Deep"—or at the switch.

For Mr. Rossi, "Hearts and Flowers."

For Mr. Gallagher, "Waltz Me Round Again, Willie, 'Round and 'Round and 'Round."

If Mr. Gallagher puts in a few extra rounds it will be all right with the calliope. They are tough old machines and will take a lot of punishment. If Mr. Hearst himself feels that the Supervisors are stealing the show he can take a shot at the calliope. I would suggest as appropriate pieces, "Home Again, Home Again, From a Foreign Shore," and "The Last of the Mohicans."

FRUITS OF THE PRIMARY

[Detroit Free Press]

By reason of the practical working out of the primary system, Detroit, in common with the rest of the country, has suffered from a progressive deterioration in public service. Dollars never before were as important a factor in determining who are to be nominated for offices and elected to offices as they are at this moment. Solid merit, without funds to advertise it, never counted for as little as it does now. The big boss has disappeared for the most part, but he has been succeeded by the cunning slicker type of operator, who gets control of things for himself or for others by manipulation of factions and small prejudices and enmities, so that minority rule occurs far more often than majority rule does. Frequently the man who goes into office in Detroit, or who puts somebody else into office, is little better than a political racketeer. The exceptions to this order of things serve to emphasize its existence.

THE NEXT MAYOR

[Chicago Tribune]

As soon as the fall elections are out of the way the chief political question in Chicago will concern the next Mayor. For a year and a half of Mr. Thompson's present four-year term it has been the best fortune the city could expect to have its affairs administered in absentia, and the less the Mayor in law was the Mayor in fact the more it contrived a semblance of administrative dignity and metropolitan sanity.

DEFINITION INDEED

[Detroit Free Press]

Somebody has been asking again for a definition of a Republican. A Republican is an officeholder that a Democrat screams at.

DAYLIGHT SAVING?

BY WILLIAM HAMILTON CLINE

I

If by any chance California should adopt daylight saving, so-called, as a part of its organic law at the coming November election, and thus make it unchangeable save by another vote of the people at large, it will work a great and unnecessary hardship on California agriculture.

And as agriculture is the biggest business of this State the prime basis of its growth and prosperity; and as the rancher seems to be having hard enough sledding at best just now, it would be wise to realize, before almost irrevocably damaging his whole existence, just what this vote will mean to the soil-tillers, dirt farmers, truck growers, citrus-fruit men, dairy men and chicken raisers, whom it will so adversely affect.

Ranchers—and this term includes all the above-named branches of rural activity—are dealing almost wholly with forces of nature, far more so than those engaged in other vocations. These forces are fixed in their operations and are not arbitrarily variable at the behest of man. You may set a clock an hour ahead in summer all you like, but you cannot make the sun rise or the dew disappear any earlier; you cannot eliminate high fog any sooner by any means than it will fade away naturally; your live stock or your poultry will not wake of their own accord ahead of nature's schedule; your crops are not workable any quicker because some timepiece tries to fool you into thinking so; your actual day on the ranch cannot be advanced or lengthened by any edict of human enactment. Nature attends to her duties regardless of mortal interference, no matter how specious the argument that one hour is another, forward or back, or that by law an hour may be "saved."

Ranchers cannot cut grain or alfalfa or pick berries, small fruits or field crops to advantage while the dew is upon them; the sun must dry them out first—and sun-up is sun-up, regardless of man-made "time." Get a rancher and his hands up an hour earlier on the plea that he "saves" that much time of an evening, and they just loaf that morning hour, and where is the gain? It is, in fact, a two-hour loss because they quit an hour early in the afternoon—an hour when they really could work.

Citrus fruit comes under the same rule. Your pickers, if aroused betimes, merely twiddle their thumbs until the orb of day has done its duty first—and you may legislate till the crack o' doom to the contrary notwithstanding. Imagine the daily loss with a picking crew sitting about waiting for the sunshine—or drawing overtime for working that "saved" hour in the afternoon.

Live stock handling is even worse. Milch cows are creatures of habit, and only contented cows respond with a full flow of lacteal fluid of high quality. Getting bossy up before her repose is naturally over—the period within which she makes her milk—and she operates at a loss in quantity and quality. You cannot even this up by making her bed down an hour earlier; again, nature tells her when to seek rest, not man-made law. Her feeding hours are regulated in the same fashion; disturb them and you upset the bovine routine, with ill results in production ensuing.

Milk must be properly handled before it is sent cityward; it must reach the metropolis at a set time for distribution by wagon; the family breakfast table must have its cream for its coffee—or trouble follows, with shrinkage of sales. Railroads operate only on standard, not daylight-saving time, regardless of local laws or wishes. You may get a whole State up an hour ahead of the clock, but your trains will run and your milk be shipped on the old schedule. So also as to fresh vegetables, melons, fruits and all such, by the way. All these are now timed to a perfect synchronism; upset part of it by legal action, and what follows? Disruption, and all the ills that inhere to confusion.

Chickens go to roost at sundown and are up with the dawn. You may move the hour forward for yourself, but you cannot for them; nature again points out to poultry the routine best for them, and your roosts will be empty till that time comes, no matter what your ukase may be. You'll find a difference in the price of your matutinal egg, you city folk, however, if the hen-to-shipper-to-transport-to-dealer-to-table chain is broken by an enforced change of hours en route.

The safety margin between gain and loss in dairying and poultry keeping is narrow at best; it has been kept out of the red largely by the introduction of well-bred milch cows and chickens. These are highly strung creatures and are at their best only when cared for on a strict time schedule of regularly fixed hours. Trying to change such hours twice a year is fatal to profits through shrinkage in quantity and quality of output. Ergo, men engaged in these vocations must be governed by nature's time. Change that in the cities, their markets, and the confusion is the least of their evils; actual loss is almost certain, not only to the rancher, but to all who depend upon his products—loss in real dollars and cents, which, after all, the city dwellers will mostly have to bear.

The housewife on the ranch is always earliest up; then she'll almost "meet herself going to bed;" she'll have to cook breakfast in the gray hours before dawn and her heavy evening meal must be prepared in the fierce heat of mid-afternoon, instead of, as at present, when the cool of evening comes on. The children must be off to school before the sun has warmed the earth and they'll return at the day's height. They and all the family will be sent to bed at early dusk or before, ere the night-coolth permits of hearty slumber; and be aroused out of the most beneficial hours of their repose—those just before daybreak. The whole routine of ranch life will be upset in May, only to be reupset in October. The readjustments will be difficult and costly.

Only two States in the Union—Massachusetts and Rhode Island—have adopted the daylight savings scheme, and both are highly industrialized urban units. Maine, the potato State, forbids it by law, as does Connecticut. Only 263 communities have it in use, wholly or in part—not one west of the Mississippi, or south of the Potomac. The great agricultural regions of the nation have refused to have anything to do with it. They tried it out in 1918 as a forced war measure and they haven't forgotten what it did to them then, even with arbitrarily fixed prices and war markets. Once was enough for them—never again!

California, whose bulwark is agriculture, is asked to vote on daylight savings in November, after the Legislature has turned it down five times. It is on the ballot by initiative. If passed, it is unchangeable save by another majority vote of the electors. Do we want to fasten upon our State a scheme that 97 per cent of the United States has repudiated after a thorough trial and that not one rural community has seen fit to adopt since? Can we afford to do so?

Not Too Late Yet

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 13.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Last week was "Clean-Up Week," but from the condition of the sidewalks and fronts of many premises it looks as if some merchants and householders had not heard about it.

If merchants would sweep off the sidewalks and gutters in front of their stores and owners would clean up vacant lots and buildings of all kinds, the resulting increase in business might surprise them.

People shun unkempt places of all kinds whether buying merchandise or renting dwelling places. OWNER.

Tell It to the Commission

ALHAMBRA, Oct. 9.—[To the Editor of The Times:] The opportunity has now arrived for the substantial element of society in California to lodge protests with the Federal Radio Commission at Washington, D. C., against further issuance of license to the broadcasting station of Robert P. Shuler.

Shuler, the self-styled muckraker of Los Angeles, is temperamentally spectacular and defiant. He refuses to recognize the difference between free speech and slander, and utterly lacks that intelligence and poise, devoid of sensationalism, so essential to any speaker in fulfillment of his solemn obligation to the public.

When backed to the wall, Shuler's acrobatic attempts to justify his wild utterances become an insult to the intelligence, they are so far-fetched, so utterly ridiculous. The Washington commission is now about to consider the protest against Shuler's broadcasting station; add to the complaints already upon their files your letter of denunciation.

Mutual Insurance

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) Oct. 7. [To the Editor of The Times:] Your editorial dealing with mutual insurance, in the issue of The Times of August 20, 1930, was most pleasing to the delegates attending the annual convention of this association in your city. Many of them bought a number of copies of the paper to take home with them and to send to some of their friends. The editorial has been copied in many newspapers, so I am advised. I am inclosing herewith a little leaflet carrying the editorial which will go to the officers and directors of approximately 2500 companies throughout the United States.

The following resolution adopted by a unanimous and enthusiastic vote may be of interest to you. It cannot carry the warm feeling which our people have for your paper because of the fine way it handled convention news.

Resolved: We desire to thank the Los Angeles Times for the excellent editorial on Mutual Insurance in its issue of August 20, 1930, and express the appreciation of this convention of this notable public contribution to the merits of the business in which we are mutually engaged. We recommend that the abovementioned editorial be incorporated in the printed proceedings of this convention for the information of all of our members, and that the secretary send a copy of this resolution to the editor of the Los Angeles Times.

tation and disease prevention measures.

That work was so well done, he said yesterday, that no real epidemic followed the hurricane, despite the destruction of the city's reservoir and the consequent danger of typhoid. In all, there were about 100 cases of gangrene and fifty of typhoid right after the hurricane, he said, but as soon as the relief machinery was put in motion, the progress of both these minor epidemics was halted.

Dr. Torrance remained in Santo Domingo a month, leaving there ten days ago and traveling here by seaplane and train. He is here for a rest and to visit old friends, he said, and will assemble his African expedition in time to leave about January 1.

BEACH CITY FETES HELD ON HOLIDAY

Knights of Columbus, Native Sons and Chamber Participate in Programs

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

SANTA MONICA, Oct. 13.—Knights of Columbus of this city attended 7 o'clock mass today in St. Monica's Church and then assembled for a Columbus Day breakfast in their hall on Santa Monica Boulevard and Second street, with W. A. Dobrott, Grand Knight of the Santa Monica council, in charge. Visiting knights were invited guests.

Santa Monica Native Sons feted visiting grand officers and officers of the Santa Monica Bay parlor at the Elks' Club, Ocean Park. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock, and following this a large class of candidates was initiated. Dr. Frank L. Gonzales, Grand Vice-president of the order, paid the local parlor an official visit. Cups won at the Clover Field air meet, July 4, last, were awarded at an "aviation luncheon" given by the Santa Monica-Ocean Park Chamber of Commerce at noon at the Miramar Hotel. Bert L. Wilson, president of the junior chamber, handed the awards to Miss Bobby Trout, Miss Margaret Perry, W. A. Clarke III, Hoot Gibson, Jack Lynch, James E. Granger, Douglas Shearer, Russell Simpson and John Scholfield.

Improvement of Boulevard on Schedule

At least $100,000, and possibly a greater amount, will be appropriated by Los Angeles county for the opening and widening of Sunset Boulevard between the limits of the city of Los Angeles and Beverly Hills, Sidney T. Graves, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, announced yesterday.

The project, which has met with many vicissitures since first proposed, will undoubtedly be started in 1931, Graves declared. It will take about two years to complete the job.

OCCIDENTAL ALUMNI COUNCIL TO MEET

The Occidental College Alumni Association Council will meet tonight at 6:30 o'clock in the College Union Building on the campus. Officers scheduled to give reports are Robert J. Hadden, president; Francis W. Lawson, vice-president; Lucille Jackson Harlan, secretary; Dana H. Jones, editor of the Alumnus; Olive Hutchison, contact chairman, and Burt Richardson, employment committee chairman.

RESIDENTS RELIEVED OF REVIVAL'S NOISE

The loud noises emanating from a revival meeting at Arlington and Santa Barbara avenues have ceased, and residents will no longer be bothered, according to a report filed with the City Council by the City Prosecutor. Citizens complained to the Council weeks ago, and the matter was referred to the City Prosecutor, and no more was heard of it until the revival ended.

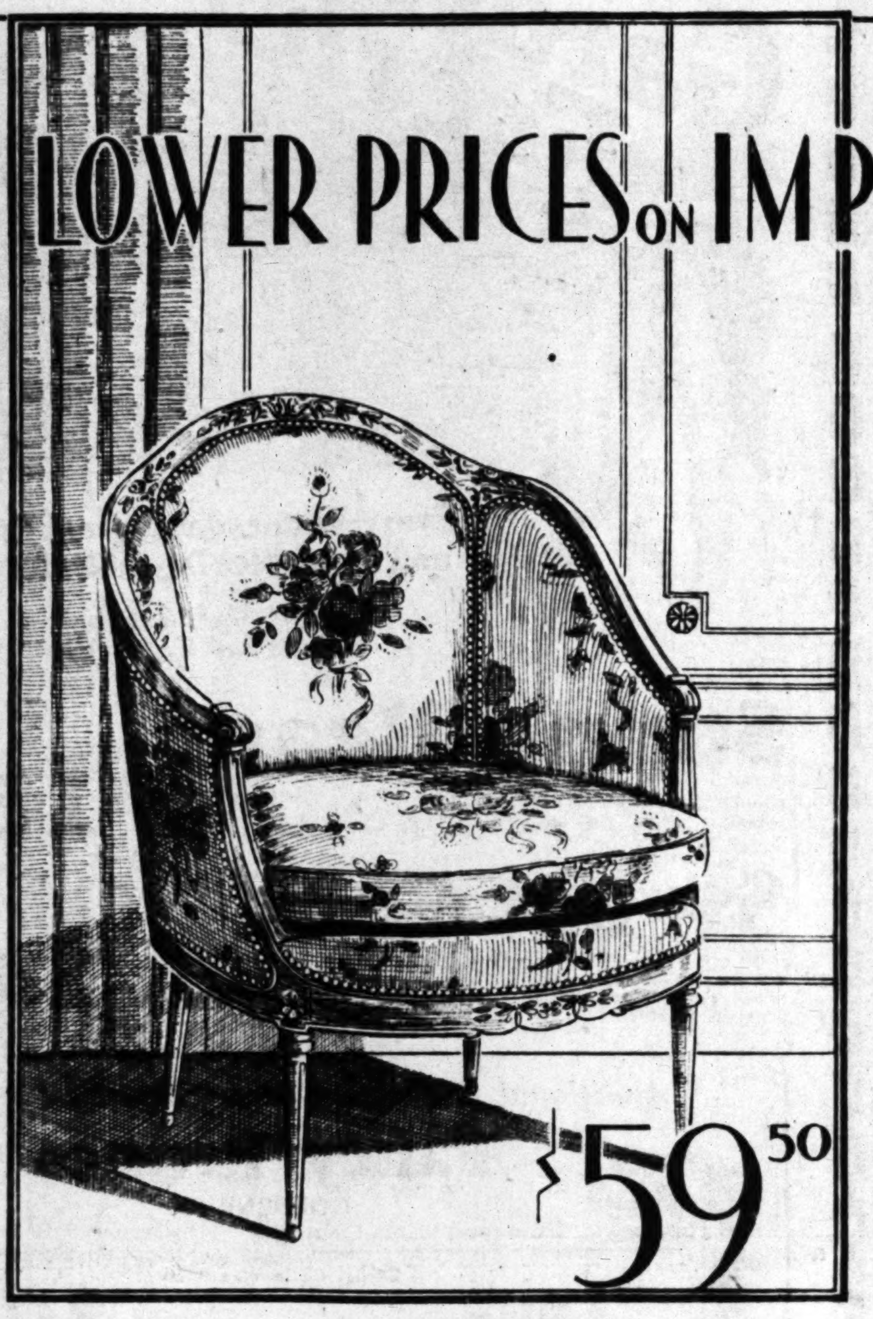
FURNITURE
RUGS DRAPERIES



LOWER PRICES ON IMPORTED FURNITURE
$59.50

Among the delightful imported pieces in Bullock's new collection is this convincing reproduction of a Louis Seize Bergere. In beech, carved in the manner of the period with characteristic upholstery and detail. The price is indeed unusual due to the fact that Bullock's purchases occasional furniture of this character direct from its European sources.

Ordering Direct From European Sources Bullock's Reduces Price On Old World Craftsmanship »

Furniture of this type usually secured through Importers now comes direct from its European sources to you through Bullock's at prices that indicate clearly the elimination of intervening or middleman's profit.

With courage that accompanies a policy of VALUE AND LOW PRICES and a desire to widen channels of service Bullock's recently placed large orders for occasional pieces with French and Belgian manufacturers. Much of this furniture has arrived and makes up a collection of charming period pieces which include the more or less formal types of Louis Quinze and Louis Seize Chairs (note the Bergere sketched), Provincial End Tables and Needlepoint Benches and Stools. Pieces that always introduce a note of elegance and charm wherever they are used.

In every instance price is amazingly low, affording new proof of the success of Bullock's more direct methods of purchase and the greater advantages of quantity buying.

BROADLOOM

Bullock's Distributors of This Super Quality in Los Angeles

Rnyone wishing to carpet with a finer quality of Broadloom should know of Bullock's Super Quality at $7.95 a square yard. How favorably it compares with Broadloom elsewhere at much higher prices!

It is deeply luxurious! Bullock's search for the finest quality of domestic Broadloom led directly to this carpet, for it most nearly met Bullock's ideal. Bullock's offered to place a great quantity order if the manufacturer would limit this quality to Bullock's in Los Angeles and Southern California. Concluding this agreement Bullock's added to the value of this Carpet by reducing mark-up to a minimum!

The factors identifying quality in Broadloom Carpet are closeness of weave, depth of pile, grade of wool and coloring! Consider these factors in relation to Bullock's $7.95 Broadloom and Broadloon at higher prices elsewhere!

Society

by JUANA NEAL LEVY

Closing one of the most brilliant seasons in the history of Los Angeles Civic Grand Opera, Shrine Auditorium presented a lovely pageant last evening when society of the Southland again turned out to hear Lucia, that opera of lilting airs familiar to all music lovers.

Every loge and, in fact, every seat in the vast auditorium was filled with enthusiastic devotees, beautifully gowned women and admiring escorts. Many of them had been hosts or guests at early dinner parties, while others were to be entertained at supper afterward.

Among those noticed in some of the loges were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jewett Schweppe, who had with them Miss Alice Stewart, Dr. and Mrs. Granville MacGowan and Verick Prissel. On Saturday evening they had with them Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ford Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Harwood of Pasadena.

With Col. Ira Clifton Copley in his loge were Mrs. George B. Macaulay, Mrs. Roys Nelson Strohn and Mr. and Mrs. John Wreford Chapple. Mrs. Dean Mason had Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kilbourne Tuller, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Archer and Mrs. Paul Noyle Kelly.

In Mr. and Mrs. Allan C. Balch's loge were Dr. and Mrs. Ransome of Pasadena and several of their friends. With Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Burke Holladay were Mr. and Mrs. Collis Huntington Holladay, Mrs. Egbert Judson Benedict and her son, George Gilson.

In the William Irving Hollingsworth loge were Mr. and Mrs. Hollingsworth, their attractive daughter, Miss Flora Hollingsworth, Mrs. Frank Hall Moon of Coronado, their house guest, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Culver. Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Van Court and Mr. and Mrs. James Mackel were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Irwin Rogers. In the loge of William Andrews Clark, Jr., were Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Sweeney, Dr. and Mrs. Galen Goodson and Mrs. James C. Petrie.

Many lovely affairs have been given honoring the visiting stars of the opera, among the last of these being the informal affair Sunday afternoon when Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Ross McFie were hosts at tennis and luncheon. About twenty friends gathered to bid adieux to Baron and Baroness Popper, the latter being better known here as Maria Jeritza, and for whom any number of lovely, though informal affairs, have been given during the opera season.

Gone East

Mrs. James Rathwell Page of Windsor Boulevard left last Friday for the East, planning a month's sojourn in New York City, where she will join Miss Margery Welch, who is domiciled at Hotel Madison.

Home Again

Mrs. Sloan-Orcutt, who has passed a most delightful summer in the East, returned home several days ago and has taken an apartment for the winter at the Gaylord in Wilshire Boulevard.

During her trip Mrs. Orcutt and her friend, Mrs. Clark Leonard Ingham of Buffalo, motored extensively, taking trips through the Berkshires to Lennox and Shelter Island as well as into Canada as far as Toronto. Mrs. Orcutt's old home was in Buffalo and her many friends who have lovely homes on the lake shores entertained extensively for her. The warm summer made possible dinner and tea parties on their broad lawns and terraces. Bridge and dancing were also features.

Mrs. Orcutt and Mrs. Ingham also visited the latter's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Davis, Jr., at their home in Fifth avenue, New York City. Mrs. Davis has a host of friends in the Southland, which she made during her visit here several winters ago with her parents, when she was Mrs. Ingham-Van Clief. Mrs. Orcutt attended the opera last evening with Mrs. Mark Baldwin Lewis.

Mrs. Orcutt and Mrs. Ben Givens, with whom she went east, visited in Kansas City at the home of the latter's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Swinney, and they came home together. Mrs. Givens is visiting for several weeks with Mrs. P. H. Hovey in Pasadena before going to the Vista del Arroyo for the winter as usual.

Celebrate Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Zublin will celebrate their fifth wedding anniversary with a beautifully appointed dinner party this evening at their home, 6224 Warner Drive.

Betrothal Announced

Formal announcement was made Saturday at a midnight supper party given by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hupfer at their home, 6470 Colgate avenue, of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Lou Hupfer, to Luis J. Roberts of Washington, D. C. The wedding will be an event of early February.

Miss Hupfer was graduated from Belmont School while her fiance claims University of Southern California as his alma mater. He also took graduate work at George Washington University in Washington, D. C. He is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon, Alpha Kappa Psi and Delta Phi Epsilon fraternities.

Miss Hupfer and Mr. Roberts were honor guests at the supper-dance at the Biltmore last Thursday evening given by the latter's brother, I. E. Roberts of Hollywood.

Dinner Guests

Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Von KleinSmid were guests of honor at a formal dinner given Thursday evening by co-eds living in the Women's Residence Hall of the University of Southern California, 666 West Thirty-sixth street. Other guests were Dr. and Mrs. Emory S. Bogardus, Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Baxter, Dean Francis Bacon and Mrs. Pearl Aiken Smith, assistant dean of women.

Following dinner the guests assembled in the spacious lounge, which was resplendent in vivid autumn flowers and foliage. President Von KleinSmid spoke informally to the assembled students and Mrs. Smith, who is a professor in the school of speech, gave dramatic readings. College songs were also part of the evening's entertainment.

Luncheon Party

A luncheon was given at the California Club yesterday by the directors of the Bowl Theater Association to the women who will act in an advisory capacity and as hostesses during the campaign for the expansion of the artistic and cultural uses of the Hollywood Bowl property.

The hosts included Allan C. Balch, David T. Babcock, R. J. Schweppe, Ben R. Meyer, E. N. Martin, Mrs. Josephine P. Everett, Gretchen Hensel Copper and Lawrence G. McNeil.

The guests were members of the advisory board, Mrs. David T. Babcock, Mrs. Allan C. Balch, Mrs. Cecil B. De Mille, Mrs. Edward A. Dickson, Mrs. Helena Furman, Mrs. Cecil Frankel, Mrs. Robert Ladd Gifford, Mrs. Louise E. Kerckhoff, Mrs. Ben R. Meyer, Mrs. Lawrence G. McNeil, Mrs. E. N. Martin, Mrs. Harvey S. Mudd, Dr. Dorothea Moore, Mrs. Granville MacGowan, Mrs. James Rathwell Page, Mrs. Lee A. Phillips, Mrs. Robert I. Rogers, Mrs. R. J. Schweppe, Mrs. George Leslie Smith, Mrs. R. D. Shepherd, Mrs. Joseph Francis Sartori, Mrs. Howard Verbeck, Mrs. Gurdon W. Wattles and Mrs. Charles Modini Wood; members of the hostess committee, Mrs. Alexander B. Barrett, Mrs. Arthur S. Bent, Mrs. John G. Bullock, Mrs. F. W. Davey, Mrs. Grove Chester Fiske, Mrs. Milton E. Getz, Miss Jean Hill, Mrs. Hansen Moore, Mrs. Force Parker, Mrs. Judson C. Rives, Mrs. James Langford Stack, Mrs. Walter Robey Simons, Mrs. Oscar A. Trippett, Mrs. Gerald Walon and Mrs. Arthur Wright.

Other guests at the luncheon were the members of the board of governors of the Bowl Theater Association, which in addition to the hosts and hostesses include Mrs. Burdette H. Chapman, Mrs. Chauncey D. Clark, C. A. Copper, Melville Dozier, Jr., Dr. T. Percival Gerson, George Willer Heintz, Samuel Kress, A. N. Lathrop, Rev. Willsie Martin, E. C. Mitchell, M. F. Palmer, H. Ellis Reed, C. E. Toberman and John Shirley Ward.

GUEST OF HONOR AT LUNCHEON

She Will Talk on Music and Books

[Witzel studios]

Miss Aline Barrett Greenwood

ONE of the delightful affairs of the week will be the luncheon with which Mrs. Douglas E. Cook of South Arden Boulevard is entertaining Thursday afternoon at the Ambassador; honoring Aline Barrett Greenwood. She has bidden a few friends to hear Miss Greenwood in the first of her winter series of talks on current events, music and books in the theater of the hotel, and then to meet her at luncheon afterward. Those included will be Mrs. West Hughes, Mrs. H. K. Williamson, Mrs. Belle Hedges, Mrs. Ben Givens, Mrs. A. Pretorius, the hostess and guest of honor. Several other hostesses are gathering together groups of friends informally for luncheon after the talk.

WHEN THE SANDMAN COMES

by THORNTON W. BURGESS

FARMER BROWN'S BOY HAS TO INVESTIGATE

For everything we hear or see
A plain or hidden cause must be.
—Farmer Brown's Boy.

"That's Ol' Mistah Buzzard," said Farmer Brown's Boy

Farmer Brown's Boy was picking apples in the Old Orchard. It was a beautiful day. The apples were splendid fruit and he was picking them with care. He whistled as he worked. He had been working for some time when he became aware that over in the Green Forest there was considerable noise. He stopped to listen.

"Sammy Jay and Blacky the Crow are having a great time over something," said he. "It sounds as if they had all their relatives with them. I wonder what those scamps have found now. Probably it is Hooty the Owl and they are just making life miserable for him. If I had the time I would go over and see what it is all about. However, Hooty is able to take care of himself, so I'll stay right here and finish my job."

For a time he paid no more attention to the screaming of the Jays and the cawing of the Crows. After a while, however, a Merry Little Breeze, hurrying from that direction, brought the sound of those voices very clear and strong. Once more Farmer Brown's Boy paused in his work and looked over toward the Green Forest. There was a note of unusual excitement in those voices. He wasn't so sure now that those Jays and those Crows were teasing Hooty the Owl. Then he noticed something that he had failed to notice before. Right above the place where those Crows and Jays appeared to be was a speck high in the blue, blue sky. It was sailing round and round, round and round, right over one spot.

"That's Ol' Mistah Buzzard!" said Farmer Brown's Boy. "He's watching something down below. He's sailing round and round just as he does when he sees something on the ground that may give him a meal after a while. I wonder if what he sees has anything to do with what those Crows and Jays are screaming about."

Farmer Brown's Boy went on with his apple-picking. At the same time he kept looking and looking over toward the Green Forest. He was growing more and more curious. Finally he stopped picking apples. "It seems to me I never knew those Crows and Jays to keep up such a screaming for so long a time," said he. "I wish I could understand their language. If I could understand what they are saying, I would know what it's all about. Ol' Mistah Buzzard hasn't lost his interest either. He hangs right over that spot as if he were pinned up there in the sky. I don't believe it is Hooty the Owl at all. Ol' Mistah Buzzard wouldn't be interested in Hooty the Owl. Perhaps it is Buster Bear. I've just got to find out what it is. It won't take me long to run over there and when I get back I can pick all the faster."

Now, by this time Sammy Jay was getting discouraged. He left the other Jays and the Crows and headed for the Old Orchard to see what Farmer Brown's Boy was doing. He reached the edge of the Old Orchard just as Farmer Brown's Boy started for the Green Forest. Instantly Sammy turned and flew back as fast as he could, screaming louder than ever. He told the other Jays and the Crows that Farmer Brown's Boy was coming, and they all screamed louder than before. Of course, that made Farmer Brown's Boy hurry. He was just brimming over with curiosity. But, with all his curiosity, he didn't forget to be cautious. When he reached a point where he could catch glimpses of the Crows and the Jays, he began to move slowly and carefully. He knew there might be other Green Forest folk around and he didn't want to frighten them. And all the time he was filled with a great wonder. What could it be that was causing such excitement?

Presidently he noticed that the ground was all trampled. Then, in an opening among the trees, he saw Lightfoot the Deer and another Deer the size of Lightfoot. They were lying down, head to head, and when they saw Farmer Brown's Boy, they made no effort to get to their feet. Then Farmer Brown's Boy understood the cause of all that excitement.

CLUB NOTES

by MYRA NYE

A citizenship rally is to be sponsored by the Highland Council, Parents' and Teachers Associations, Friday morning when, it is anticipated, many women of all organizations who are interested in good citizenship and legislation will attend. The rally is to create sentiment in favor of raising the voting percentage at the coming election, to combat radicalism in Los Angeles and to withstand the attacks upon prohibition, according to the chairman of legislation, Mrs. Grace C. Hamrick.

The meeting will be conducted at the Monte Vista school, corner of Avenue 54 and Monte Vista street, beginning at 9:30 a.m. Chief speakers will be Judge Lahey, whose address will have to do with the inadequacy of the law in regard to vagrancy cases, and C. C. Kelso, director of citizenship for the Los Angeles public schools, who will conduct a question box and speak on "Our Democracy."

Mrs. Hamrick, who is arranging the affair, states that policies of the national P.-T.A. will be presented and the P.-T.A. legislation program for California will be discussed. "'Revolution and radicalism tear down, and our organization is for patriotic construction for the welfare of little children ultimately," she says. "The informed voter who visits the courts knows the judges and their work, and the judge who stands pat for law enforcement is the type we wish to encourage. At present only 40 to 60 per cent of the electroate vote at county and State elections. It is our purpose to raise this standard," Mrs. Hamrick states.

Matinee Musical Club

Commemorating the founding of the organization twenty-two years ago, the Matinee Musical Club will give a brilliant affair in the Fiesta Room of the Ambassador Thursday at 12:30 p.m. Mrs. Pearl Cole McMullen will preside for the first time since elected, at the luncheon, and she will introduce the following honor guests, who will speak briefly: Mrs. Lillian Ballagh-Farmer, founder of the club; Frank Farmer, Mrs. Cecil Frankel, Mrs. Gertrude Ross, Mrs. Elmer Mansfield, Mrs. Dana Bird Cox, L. E. Behymer, Merle Armitage, Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Hiner, Miss Alma Priester and others.

Mrs. Paul C. Heydenreich, chairman of the program, will present the Copeland sisters in piano duets: Dr. E. H. Hiner, band director and composer; Anna Hiner, dramatic soprano, and the Hawaiian Strolling Singers.

Tomorrow

Resuming its season of study, the music department of the Woman's Club of Hollywood will discuss the subject "Intimate Biographical Sketches of Five Great Composers" in the clubhouse tomorrow, beginning at 10:30 a.m. Mrs. Delmar Davis, chairman of the department, is at present on a concert tour but she has arranged the program.

The California Badger Club meeting at 1419 South Wilton Place will begin the activities of their regular meeting day with a luncheon at 12:30 p.m. Mrs. S. S. Bertrand, chairman of hospitality, will preside and auction bridge will be played in the afternoon.

Friday Morning Club

That the love of the classics still persists through the chaos of modern life is shown by the re-engagement by the Friday Morning Club of Richard Kean for its meeting on Friday.

Today

The League of American Pen Women will conduct their regular business meeting at the Gaylord at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Julia Boynton Green is in charge of the program, which will include a discussion of members' work including her own. Tea will be served.

Cosmos Club will begin the season under the direction of a new leader, Mrs. J. Earlton Moore, with a luncheon at district headquarters. Judge Ben B. Lindsey of Denver will speak on "An Institution of Human Relations." Musical numbers will be given by Jessie MacDonald Patterson and Mrs. Clarence H. Pease.

Highland Park Ebell's program in the forenoon will be given by the Meistersingers with Frederick Vance Evans directing and Richard Tetley accompanying. At noon the Bible section will be conducted by Miss Henrietta Mears.

Lincoln Study Club

Under the supervision of the music chairman of the Lincoln Study Club, Mrs. Harry A. Lowe and the drama chairman, Mrs. Charles McCorey, a prologue entitled "A Day on an Old Rancho" will be presented tomorrow at the regular session in the Ruskin Art clubhouse, corner of Eighth and Plymouth streets. Miss Laura C. Cooley, first assistant in the history department of the Los Angeles Public Library, will speak on "Early Days of California." The Round Table, a feature of all programs of this study group, will be under the supervision of Mrs. Charles H. Gilbert.

There will be the Spanish dancing by pupils of Germaine Ballou. Mrs. Watson McAllister will preside.

Mercolized Wax Keeps Your Skin Attractive

There's an easy way to keep your skin clear, soft and young. Just smooth a little pure Mercolized Wax on your face, neck and arms at night as if it were a cold cream—also use as a powder-base during the day. It purges the pores of grime and dirt. The skin is quickly freed of such ugly blemishes as freckles, tan, pimples or dry, flaky particles. Your skin becomes smooth, soft, clear and youthful-looking. Mercolized Wax brings out the hidden beauty. To quickly reduce wrinkles and other age-signs, bathe the face daily in this astringent lotion: 1 ounce Powdered Saxolite and 1 half pint witch hazel. At all drug and dept. stores.—[Advertisement.

Health and Diet ADVICE

by DR. FRANK McCOY

Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

DEFICIENCY DISEASES

Rickets

The name "rickets" is taken from the old English word "wrickken," meaning to twist, because this disease twists the bones of the growing child out of shape. The legs become curved, the head too large, the chest is narrowed and the bones do not harden properly.

Rickets is marked by the malnutrition of the whole body as well as deformity of the bone, and a pot belly is usually present.

Rickets is a disease most noticed in the very young, and attacks children who are shut away from the sunlight and who are fed food deficient in Vitamin A. More babies develop it during winter than in summer. There may be a soreness of the entire body, with a loose skin, weak muscles and an enlarged liver.

A child suffering from this disorder should be given sunbaths daily and the food must be guarded carefully. Starchy foods are not needed but raw milk with the cream alternating with periods of raw egg yolk mixed with orange juice is very good, also about a level tablespoonful of the juice of grated raw carrots daily.

Short frequent sunbaths are the best way to keep your baby from developing this trouble.

Scurvy

Sailors on long voyages, prospectors in the far north, and armies on the march may suffer from scurvy, a disease in which there may be great weakness. The gums become spongy and soften, and the teeth fall out.

While this disease has been known from the earliest times, a knowledge of the cure of it is fairly recent. The use of plenty of foods containing Vitamin C is the most efficient remedy and preventive.

This disease has fortunately almost disappeared from adults who live in civilized communities where food is abundant, but it is unfortunately too often found in babies.

A form of infantile scurvy may be found in infants who are taking condensed or malted milk, or boiled milk without the addition of other substances containing Vitamin C.

This disease causes severe pains in the baby's limbs, which appear semiparalyzed, and the child does not wish to be touched or moved.

It is a good plan to change the diet to raw certified milk with alternating feedings of orange, lime or tomato juice.

Such disorders will never develop when the proper diet is used and it is the doctor's duty to see that the baby is properly fed so that these diseases do not recur.

"Deficiency Diseases" continued in tomorrow's article.

Funeral Rites Conducted for Army Captain

Final rites for Capt. Overton Walsh, U.S.A., retired, who died suddenly at his home, 629 Fontera Drive, Santa Monica, were conducted yesterday afternoon at the Walsh residence by Dr. George Davidson, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church.

Although the cause of Capt. Walsh's death was recorded as heart disease, members of his family believe his last illness was induced by injuries he received while on duty with the Army at Fort Meyer, Virginia. For a time after his injuries received at the army post he was under treatment at the Walter Reed Hospital at Washington, D. C.

The body will be sent to Washington for burial in Arlington Cemetery.

AVOCADO SANDWICH

Remove the flesh of an avocado, and press it through a fine sieve, season it with lemon juice and a little mayonnaise, spread this on lettuce leaves and press between slices of bread. Garnish with hard-boiled eggs, and a dusting of paprika.

YOUR BABY and MINE

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

This department offers leaflets on weaning and feeding the child from 6 weeks to 6 years, prenatal care and diet for the nursing mother, constipation, eczema, outfits for the new baby, sleeping, walking, teething, thumb sucking, ammoniacal urine, bed wetting, training in cleanly habits, periods of nursing, cod liver oil, orange juice, hives, worms, vomiting, refractory children, prune juice, lime water, rupture, styes and boils and cradle cap. Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need. If your particular problem is not covered in the above list, Mrs. Eldred will be glad to give you a personal reply.

ABSENCE MAKES CHILD'S HEART FONDER OF HIS LITTLE TIN SOLDIERS

The conscientious parent who anticipates the child's every wish and need, often finds herself in a state of despair. Grouped about her dissatisfied offspring are the treasures of the toy department. Surfeited by his many possessions, he is unable to enjoy any of them.

Mrs. F. H. T. writes in this vein: "I cannot imagine what is wrong with my little boy. He has everything anyone can think of to make him happy and yet he can't be amused for ten minutes at a time. He is 3 years of age, slightly above normal weight, sleeps and eats well. There is absolutely nothing wrong with him physically, but a more dissatisfied child it would be hard to find. What can I do?"

SUITABLE TOYS?

The toy into which the child puts the most of himself is the toy which engages his interest the longest. There are some questions in relation to toys which any mother had better ask herself. Are these toys suitable to the child's age? They may be excellent toys for the 4-year-old or for the 2-year-old, but they may be a past interest or even a future interest of the 3-year-old. We have a leaflet on toys, designed for children of various ages, which suggests playthings suitable to each. Perhaps, it would help you. If you wish it send only a self-addressed, stamped envelope and ask for it.

When the child cannot play with his toys for any length of time, even though he has a variety to choose from, there is something wrong.

TOO MANY TOYS

I suggest that for the time being you take away all but a few of these toys. Put them on a shelf out of reach, or at least, out of easy reach. Let the boy have his wagon, some blocks to build or pull, some play apparatus to climb on and a ball to throw. Put paper, crayons and a scissors, perhaps some modeling clay, where he can get them. Put everything else where he will have to ask for it, or where he can find it only if he is interested enough to look.

If toys are scattered all over the floor, demanding to be used and played with, the child mentally refuses their appeal a dozen times a day. They cease to inspire him to any play visions, which he can carry out. A toy lying on the floor does not stimulate the child to pick it up and play with it, but only to kick it somewhere else.

Let him have some raw materials with which to manufacture his own amusements—rags to cut up—paper to make boats and crayons to color them — kindergarten supplies and tools to use in hammering and sawing. But keep in mind that while these are being enjoyed the other toys are to be kept on the shelf or in a box. Then each retains its appeal.

ORANGE MARMALADE

The orange marmalade of which you speak is made in England, of what is called a Seville orange, and by using this combination of fruits that I am giving you, you will get the same effect, or taste. I have used it many times, and like it better than any other. It is best to make it of the navel oranges, as they are very thin-skinned. Slice twelve thin-skinned oranges, very thin; three medium-sized thin-skinned lemons and two medium-sized thin-skinned grapefruit. Place the fruit in an enameled pan and cover it with cold water and let it stand for forty-eight hours, keeping the dish covered. Place the fruit in a saucepan and let it come to a slow boil, boiling it for ten minutes, then allow it to stand again over night. The next morning measure fruit and juice and add an equal amount of sugar, bring to a boil, skim well and cook slowly until a little will jell when dropped on a cold plate. If the thin-skinned fruit is used, it is not necessary to remove the white pits.

Chef Wyman's RECIPES

Every Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cookery in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

SPANISH STEAK

Take a two-pound cut of round steak, about two inches thick, place in a hot saute pan, and brown well on both sides, place the meat in a baking dish, add three-fourths of a cupful of boiling water, spread over the meat a thin layer of sliced onions, sprinkle them with salt and paprika. Place in the oven, and let cook for about an hour, then remove and cover with a layer of sliced tomatoes, that have been seasoned with salt and paprika, sprinkle over the tomatoes two tablespoonfuls of grated cheese, return to the oven, and allow to cook slowly for another fifteen minutes. The cooking must be done in a moderate oven.

BAKED EGGS

Six hard-boiled eggs, two tablespoonfuls of finely chopped chicken, veal or pork, four mushrooms chopped, one tablespoonful of finely chopped parsley, one raw onion, one-eighth teaspoonful of ground mace, a seasoning of salt, and pepper, one large slice of ham. When the eggs are cold, cut them in half crosswise, remove a small slice from the bottom to make them stand, take out the yolks, rub to a paste, add the chicken, chopped mushrooms, parsley, and seasonings, fill the whites with this, rounding up the tops, brush with the yolk of a raw egg, place in a baking dish, and allow them to brown in the oven. Cut a thin slice of boiled ham, heat it in a saute pan, and divide it into twelve small squares, when the tops of the eggs are brown, place the squares of ham on a hot dish, set a half of an egg on each one of them, pour a cream sauce around them and serve hot.

SPICED APPLE PUDDING

Three cupfuls of bread crumbs, one cupful of sugar, one cupful of seedless raisins, two tablespoonfuls of sherry flavoring, three cupfuls of chopped apples, two cupfuls of milk, one-fourth cupful of finely chopped citron, two teaspoonfuls of cinnamon, one teaspoonful of mace, three eggs. Scald the milk, stir in the bread crumbs, and allow to cook for two minutes, remove from the fire, add the apples, raisins, sherry, citron and cinnamon. Beat the yolks of the eggs, and add them to the other ingredients, with the mace, beat the white of the eggs until stiff, fold them into the mixture, oil a baking dish, and place the batter in it, bake about forty minutes, in a moderately quick oven, serve with a custard sauce.

MUSHROOMS IN RAMIKIN

One cupful of mushrooms, two tablespoonfuls of butter, two tablespoonfuls of flour, one-half a cupful of mushrooms liquor, one-half cupful of milk, one teaspoonful of onion juice, a seasoning of salt, and white pepper, two teaspoonfuls of chopped parsley, one cupful of bread crumbs. Heat the butter add the flour, and gradually add the mushroom liquor and milk, add the mushrooms cut in small pieces, the parsley and seasoning. Butter individual ramikin, and line with bread crumbs, place the mixture in it, cover the top with buttered bread crumbs, place the ramikins in a pan of hot water and bake in the oven until brown.

Mrs. Wyman does not reply to letters, but requests for recipes are answered in the department, PRACTICAL RECIPES, published every Friday.—(All rights to reproduce reserved by A. L. Wyman.)

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Badly Scratched

If your table silver is badly scratched remove the marks with a paste made of olive oil and putty powder. Rub the paste gently on the marks with a soft cloth. Then wash silver in clear, hot water.

Soiled Yarn

Soiled yarn may be washed and used again if it is wound into a skein and tied in several places so the skein is held loosely. After washing hang in the sun and when dried, it will be soft, clean and like new yarn.

More Care Needed

Children whose teeth are well scrubbed regularly twice a day and are sent to the dentist every six months will never have that nasty green stain around the tops of their teeth. The stain is a sign of neglect and a reflection against the mothers, not the children.

Invisible Darning

Save all the threads pulled in straightening the edge of the new table cloth and put them away in your embroidery cotton book. Then when the linen gets to the mending stage these threads can be used for darning with a far better result than when darning linen with a cotton thread.

Fewer Steps

Keep your box of matches close to the stove. Don't cross the kitchen twenty minutes a day just for a match.

OF THE COMMUNITY CHEST

F. W. BRAUN SAYS:

"Business leaders generally recognize the obligation of business to the community, one among these obligations being the intelligent direction of welfare relief. Individual businesses recognize themselves as being completely unequipped to assume the direction of this problem, and therefore look to the Community Chest as the one all-inclusive agency in a position to properly assume administration of relief.

"Responsibility and co-ordination are the two essentials required in the administration of any public welfare relief program, and both are embodied in the Community Chest. And not only does the Community Chest offer responsibility and coordination in its program, but it offers an organization of specialists which insures the most intelligent direction of its activities and administration of funds entrusted to it."

STORIES DIFFER IN AUTO CRASH

Police Sift Collision on Lytle Creek Bridge

Six Persons Hurt, One Man Loses His Arm

S. E. Beck Says Girl Driver of Car; She Denies It

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 14.—Police late today continued their investigation of the head-on automobile crash on the Lytle Creek bridge of the Foothill Boulevard west of the city late last night in which six persons were injured, two seriously.

S. E. Beck of Alta Loma, an occupant of one of the cars, who was reported missing last night, surrendered to the police today for questioning. Dazed by injuries he wandered away last night, he said, and later called a taxi in which he returned to his home.

The injured are P. C. Armitage, 69 years of age, widely known Pomona photographer, whose left arm was amputated just below the shoulder. His condition is critical. Mrs. Anna White, Pomona; her skull is fractured. M. H. Sharkey, Fox West Coast Theater employee of Pomona. He suffered a broken leg and internal injuries. W. M. Lemaster of Upland, lacerations and bruises. Miss Mildred Thorpe of Alta Loma, cuts and bruises.

Armitage and Sharkey were riding in one machine traveling east on the boulevard. On the bridge, a car driven by either Beck or Miss Thorpe, crashed head-on into Sharkey's car, overturning it. Armitage's arm was mangled. Lemaster, who was riding in the back seat of the second car, told officers he didn't know who was driving the machine. Beck today declared that Miss Thorpe, the daughter of a prominent Alta Loma rancher, was driving. She denied this, however, declaring that Beck was at the wheel. The injured are in the Ramona Hospital.

Palm Springs Announces Desert Play

PALM SPRINGS, Oct. 13.—With "Tahquitz," famed Indian drama, as the presentation, the 1930 Desert Play will be staged here about the middle of November, according to the first announcement made yesterday by the sponsors of the annual outdoor production. The opening performance will officially inaugurate the winter season at the famed desert resort.

The drama will be directed by Phil Whiting, who staged the last two presentations of the Ramona Pageant, the recent Fiesta de Los Angeles, and is widely known for his association with the Pilgrimage Play and other leading open-air performances, with Arthur Belasco, prominent actor and director, as his production manager.

"Tahquitz," which was originally produced by the late Garnet Holme, wizard of California pageantry, and which has been staged for several seasons as the Desert Play, has been extensively rewritten and enlarged by Director Whiting and his associates and will be presented on an elaborate scale this year.

Whiting plans to cast prominent figures of the theatrical and motion-picture worlds in principal roles of the play which will probably be staged on two successive week-ends. The sponsors feel that many visitors will want the option of two week-ends for the pilgrimage to Palm Springs to view the play and enjoy the perpetual sunshine on the desert.

Officers Seek Hit-and-Run Auto Driver

POMONA, Oct. 13.—Edward McKay, 33 years of age, proprietor of the Green Auto Camp at Spadra, is in a dying condition at the Pomona Valley Hospital, today, the victim of a hit-and-run driver, who struck him while he was walking across the intersection of Second and Parcells street, early last night.

Rushed to the hospital, McKay was found to be suffering from a fractured knee, scalp lacerations and skull fracture, from which his recovery is doubtful, according to Dr. G. W. Keller, who attended him.

A description of the hit-and-run driver was broadcast to all sheriffs' substations and Southland police departments in an effort to apprehend the felon described as driving a new convertable coupe, with a tan top, and dark maroon body. The driver was alone in the machine, according to witnesses. An attempt to overtake the driver was made but he outspeeded his pursuers.

STRANGE COINCIDENCE IN DEATH MESSAGE

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Oct. 13. A strange coincidence occurred here yesterday in the office of the Pacific Electric depot when a message was picked off the wires of the Western Union Telegraph Company telling of the death of a father in the East.

W. R. Osborn, manager of both companies here, took the message from the wire, stood pondering over the name with no given address, and turned to attend to a customer at the express window. Osborn saw the name on the parcel and asked the sender his name, and when he said "Arthur Potts," the agent responded, "I have a sad message for you. A death message has just come from the person to whom you are sending the parcel."

APPLE SHOW FRUIT BEST

H. R. Sheppard Reports 1930 Yucaipa Exhibition to Be Marked by Exceptional Quality

YUCAIPA, Oct. 13.—H. R. Sheppard, manager of the 1930 Yucaipa Apple Show, which is to be held Thursday to Sunday, the 23rd to the 26th insts., announces that there will be a larger display of apples than ever before shown in the valley and that the fruit will be of better quality. Those who have seen the apparently perfect apples heretofore exhibited might doubt this statement, he says, but growers are unanimous in pronouncing the 1930 crop the best quality grown here in the last decade, due to the unusually favorable weather this fall.

This is the eleventh apple show to be held in Yucaipa. The valley is the largest red-apple producing district in Southern California, and each year since 1920, has staged a celebration at the end of the harvest season, a show in which the apple is not only king, but in fact, the whole royal family.

Entertainment is offered each afternoon and evening of the four days. There are games, fancy riding, and other amusement features, and each noon and evening a turkey dinner is served by members of the Yucaipa Woman's Club.

A three-act play, "The Ghost Parade," will begin Thursday and Friday evenings, with dancing in the clubhouse after the performance. Saturday night the grand ball will be open to all.

Sheppard, who, with his wife, will manage the show this year, is also president of the Yucaipa Chamber of Commerce, an organization which, under his direction and leadership, has had the most active year in its history. Outstanding achievements in this period have been the installation of a street-lighting system and the campaign for an automatic telephone exchange. In addition to being a successful apple grower on a large scale, Sheppard is president and manager of the Lings Laboratories plant, a local enterprise that uses large quantities of apples in the manufacture of its products.

GRAY WILL SPEAK AT VENTURA

Washington Representative of American Farm Bureau Federation There Today

VENTURA, Oct. 13.—Chester H. Gray, Washington representative of the American Farm Bureau Federation, will speak to ranchers of three counties here Tuesday at a luncheon meeting of the region of the California Farm Bureau Federation, to be held in the banquet room of the First Methodist Church.

Ventura, Santa Barbara and Los Angeles farm experts will attend the session. R. W. Blackburn, president of the California Farm Bureau Federation, also will be a guest.

Gray, considered one of the country's leading authorities on agricultural problems, and a Missouri farmer himself, will discuss some of the legislative problems of agriculture and the manner in which these are handled by his office at Washington.

The Ventura County Farm Bureau will hold its annual meeting and election of officers in the bureau headquartrs in the Courthouse at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow. Annual reports and a general outline of the program for the coming year will come before the bureau.

Driver Held in Auto Fatality

PASADENA, Oct. 13.—Following the death of Felix Navarro, 86 years of age, of 2676 Nina street, who was fatally injured when struck by an automobile Saturday night, H. W. Kellogg of 30 Eastern avenue, driver of the car, was arrested today and charged with reckless driving and ordered to appear at the inquest scheduled to be held on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. in the Cabot mortuary.

The accident, which resulted in the third local traffic death within a week, occurred at the intersection of East Colorado street and Virginia avenue.

Miss Doris Booker of 28 South Sunnyslope avenue, Kellogg's companion, asserted Navarro darted directly into the path of the automobile and that his dark clothes made him invisible.

MONTROSE SOON TO GET MAIL DELIVERY

MONTROSE, Oct. 13.—The application of the Montrose postoffice for a house-to-house carrier delivery has been referred to the postal inspector of this district for final say, according to a letter received by Postmaster Frances W. Brown, from Washington, D. C. Mrs. Brown today stated that all requirements asked by the postal authorities have been fulfilled here and that it is probable the new service may be installed at an early date. Postal receipts have shown a large increase within the past year as numerous new residents have moved into this section.

Hunter Killed by Accidental Firing of Gun

VENTURA, Oct. 13. — Shot through the abdomen when his gun discharged accidentally, Everett Coon, 29 years of age, of Los Angeles, died intantly Sunday morning at Point Magu.

Coon and his business associate, C. L. Marshall, 30, had returned to their automobile near the fish camp at Magu at 6:45 a.m. after several hours of duck hunting. Coon entered the car first and the twelve-gauge pump gun went off as he was stowing it in the machine.

The body was taken to the Dikfenderffer mortuary in Oxnard, where an inquest into the death was held tonight by Coroner Oliver Reardon.

Coon was proprietor of the Blue Moon cleaning and dying works in Los Angeles.

More than 100 duck hunters were near the scene when the tragedy occurred. The car had been parked on Arnold Road near the slough at the fish camp.

The victim of the accident leaves a widow. She and the wife of Marshall had spent Saturday night together at the Coon home in North Hollywood, while the two men went hunting.

BUS LINE TO BUILD SAN FERNANDO DEPOT

SAN FERNANDO, Oct. 13.—The local Chamber of Commerce today indorsed the proposal of the Bay Cities Transit Company to locate the northern terminal of its bus line, which runs from here, via Van Nuys to Santa Monica and Venice, at Third and North Mclay streets. Since beginning its operation here the bus-line company has been using temporary quarters. Officials of the company today stated they are making tentative plans to buy a terminal site and to erect a suitable passenger depot.

JACK FROST TO BE BURNED UP

Hot Reception Prepared for Invader of Groves

Plans Made for Protection of $10,000,000 Crop

Oil-Storage Stations Begin to Fill at Redlands

REDLANDS, Oct. 13.—The battle to save Redlands's $10,000,000 crop of oranges now on the trees and one of the largest in history, from old Jack Frost, got under way today, when activities began at the big oil-storage stations of the various protective associations. Tank cars filled with oil for use in the heaters that will be placed in use the minute Jack Frost makes an appearance began to roll in today.

There is a difference of opinion as to whether it is going to be a dangerous winter or not. Some of the leading growers and fruit men are fearful of a cold winter, while others say that it will be a wet one, and the danger from frost will not be so great.

FIRST PLANT OPENS

The first oil-storage plant in the Redlands district to open for the season was the Crafton-Mentone Association's plant No. 2, which is located at Colton avenue and Wabash street, which opened today. The association's other two plants will be opened a week later and all three will remain open until December 1, Don Anderson, the manager, announced.

Church Street Protective Association will not start operations until November 1, said Clarence E. Perry, secretary-manager. It will start the season with a storage capacity of 410,000 gallons, which is 105,000 gallons greater than last year's capacity. Addition of more storage space gives the association its maximum capacity, inasmuch as the city will permit no greater accumulation of orchard fuel oil inside the city limits.

Perry yesterday announced reorganization of the Chuch Street Association with F. S. Gunter, president; George P. Cortner, vice-president; Rolla L. Whitman, H. F. Horton and Al Newell, directors.

Serving approximately 600 acres of citrus groves, the Church Street Association last winter handled 525 loads of oil, each load representing 350 to 400 gallons.

OIL TO COST MORE

Both protective association executives stated that oil will cost growers considerably more this year, probably because improved methods of gasoline extraction leave less distillate in the crude by-products of gasoline manufacture.

"We are confronted by the fact that smudge oil has advanced in price from 70 cents a barrel to $1.10 and $1.15," said Anderson. "This will increase the cost of a season's heating about $5 an acre, although that is just another guess."

The prices quoted by Anderson are f.o.b. refinery. It will cost approximately two thirds of a cent per gallon to deliver it to Redlands, said Perry. The United States Department of Agriculture will establish its frost-advisory service here about November 1.

Walther League National Meet May Come Here

GLENDALE, Oct. 13.—The Walther League of the Southern California district of the Lutheran Church, that closed its annual conference here last night, adopted a resolution at its closing session authorizing the adoption of a course of action to bring the league's international convention to Los Angeles next year.

Two delegates will be sent from Southern California to Sutherland, Pa., next year to extend the invitation.

Officers elected were: Hertha Ehler, Rose Diehl, Harry Wendland and Rev. C. W. Berner, all members of the executive board. Victor S. Wagner was re-elected treasurer.

MEAT CUTTER FINED ON GIRL'S CHARGE

POMONA, Oct. 13.—C. B. Metcalf, 26-year-old meat cutter of 762 East Ninth street, was arrested yesterday on charges of attempting to induce a 12-year-old girl to go riding with him in his automobile while on her way to Sunday-chool on South Main street. Arraigned before Police Judge E. H. Bowen, Metcalf was fined $100 and was was given a suspended jail sentence of 180 days on peace-disturbance charges this morning.

FINAL TRIBUTE TO M'RAE

Impressive Service in Memory of Publisher Held at His Home in San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 13.—Impressive funeral services for Col. Milton A. McRae, noted journalist and prominent in philanthropic enterprise, who died early Saturday following an operation the 7th inst., were conducted today at 11 a.m. in the family residence, 230 West Laurel street. Rev. Roy Campbell, pastor of the first Congregational Church, officiated.

Relatives will leave Tuesday for Detroit, Col. McRae's other home city, where funeral services will be held Saturday. Interment will be in the family lot at Elmwood Cemetery, Detroit.

A simple musical service was sung by the Aeolian Quartet at this morning's rites. Scores of friends were present to pay a last tribute to the dead journalist.

Honorary pallbearers were Paul Edward, James MacMullen, L. J. Tavener, G. Aubrey, Davidson, William R. Wheeler, M. F. Heller, Eugene Daney, Sr.; John H. McCorkle, J. C. Harper, Julius Wangenheim, Reginald Poland, Frank J. Belcher, George W. Marston, Gen. Joseph E. Kuhn, Mayor Harry C. Clark, Raphael Herman, Thomas O. Scripps, Wheeler J. Bailey, Frederick F. Ingram, Myron T. Gilmore and former Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan, who for several days has been a visitor at the McRae home.

Ontario Happy in Admittance to Water Group

ONTARIO, Oct. 13. — Action of the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California in admitting the city of Ontario into membership was hailed with pleasure here by city officials.

Ontario's application for membership in the league was officially made by City Manager Austin Burt, and Councilmen R. F. Price and G. E. Mead.

City Manager Burt reported to the Council that Ontario's application was accepted without restriction, and it is now up to the voters of the community to say if Ontario shall become a permanent paying member in the association which is to provide water from Boulder Dam and the Colorado River aqueduct.

Although the route for the aqueduct has not been announced, it is felt certain it will pass close to Ontario, as preliminary surveys are all within a short distance of here. This will make the cost of transferring water from the aqueduct to Ontario less expensive, according to City Manager Burt.

A citizens' committee has been named to present the matter to the voters before the measure comes up for action at the polls. On this committee are H. M. Shattuck, C. K. Close, F. H. Wallihan, N. E. Trautman. Trautman is president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Ontario now lays claim to being the first Southern California city to be admitted to the water district since it was organized by the original eleven cities two years ago.

Peeping Tom Pays Penalty

POMONA, Oct. 13.—J. W. Milliken, 26 years of age, Los Angeles musician, today paid a fine of $100 in Police Court, following his trial before Judge E. H. Bowne on charges of being a peeping Tom.

Milliken was apprehended at the home of Police Officer H. E. Sauness, 124 Nemaha street, by Sauness when he responded to a call at the police station from his wife, who reported the presence of the marauder. Mrs. Sauness hurriedly called the station and then continued her preparations for bed while police hurried to the scene. Milliken was caught unawares and immediately surrendered.

GAS STATION MAN IN BEACH CITY ROBBED

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Oct. 13. As Audry (Moon) Mullens locked the door of Bullett's Service Station at 9 o'clock last night, he heard a step on the gravel behind him and almost at the same instant he felt the muzzle of a gun pressed into his back. "Stick 'em up," was the command. Mullens obeyed and was relieved of Sunday receipts. The bandit then ordered him to disappear around the wash rack and remain there for five minutes. The robber vanished in the darkness. The station, located at the lonely corner of First street and Ocean Boulevard, is owned by R. M. Marshall, who is on vacation in Tennessee. "Moon" gave the man's description as being six feet one inch tall, wearing a hat and an overcoat. He said there was something familiar about the man or his voice.

SCION OF GRANDEES DIES

Mrs. Mary Refugio Garcia de Libbey, One of Few Remaining Descendants of Old Families, Passes

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 13.—Bringing to a peaceful close a colorful chapter in the story of Santa Barbara that witnessed during her eighty-five years the rise of a beautiful American city from a rambling Spanish pueblo, Mrs. Mary Refugio Garcia de Libbey, one of the few remaining direct descendants of early California's proud grandees, died in her home early last evening.

Born the daughter of Eugene and Polina Pico Garcia, Mrs. Libbey was baptized in the old mission in 1845 as Mary Refugio Garcia.

In 1860, a senorita of but fifteen years of age, she married Capt. Charles Douglass Libbey of Boston, a sea captain, who settled in Santa Barbara.

Ten children were born to the pair and the six now living reside in this city. They are Mrs. Isabell Flint, Mrs. Mary Pfleiging, Mrs. Della Mullary, Mrs. Eugenia Nebbia, Mrs. Josephine Walden and a son, Charles F. Libbey.

The wedding of Capt. Libbey and Mary Refugio at the Catholic Church in 1860 is still recalled by pioneer residents here. For days prior to the ceremony, the Garcia mansion, long since wrecked, but then near the Presidio in De la Guerra Plaza, was the scene of a fiesta. The wedding itself was a colorful affair with the proud Spanish and the merry Yankees joining into the spirit of the event.

Following the marriage, Capt. Libbey and his bride took the home at 200 Gray avenue, where last night Mrs. Libbey died. The captain continued his sailing until his death in 1883 at the age of 45 years.

Funeral arrangements are in charge of the Charles T. Holland Funeral Chapel.

PHONE RATE IN YUCAIPA CONSIDERED

Petitioners for Exchange Hear Plan That Would Do Away With Redlands Toll

YUCAIPA, Oct. 13.—A new proposal whereby Yucaipa would be given the benefit of a local telephone exchange and yet would not establish toll charge for calls to Redlands was being considered by the petitioners for the exchange today.

A conference between officials of the Southwestern Home Telephone Company and the committee of the Yucaipa Chamber of Commerce has resulted in further development of the free-phone idea between Yucaipa and Redlands rather than the toll of 10 cents for each call, which was contemplated in the first petition.

A slightly higher rate than at first proposed would be necessary, according to the telephone company officials.

The new base rate, according to Manager Starkweather, would be $2.25 a month for four-party residence phones, instead of $2 per month, as contained in the petition. For main-line business phones the base rate would be $4.50 per month, instead of the base rate of $3.50 per month contained in the petition. The term base rate as used applies to wall phones within the first zone and paid for before the 10th of the month.

One of the most troublesome obstacles which the solicitors met when obtaining signatures to the petition recently circulated was the toll charge to Redlands which the company said would be necessary. The business men of Redlands have also been disturbed at the idea of a toll charge to Yucaipa, and the new proposition has consequently met with disfavor in many quarters, although it has not yet been considered by the telephone committee in formal meeting.

Under this new line-up the telephone users in Yucaipa Valley are promised better service than is had in Redlands for the same money. In other words, the Yucaipa subscriber will have the free use of the Redlands exchange and in addition Yucaipa will be equipped with the up-to-date full automatic telephones while Redlands will still be using the manual type.

Harwood Will Have Hundredth Birthday Soon

UPLAND, Oct. 13.—From all parts of the world are coming messages of congratulation and gifts to Charles E. Harwood, "the grand old man of Upland," who on the 19th inst. will celebrate his one hundredth birthday anniversary.

The first message of prominence came from President Hoover. Today Harwood has a large cake that came from Scotland, sent by Dr. and Mrs. John B. Toomay. Toomay was formerly pastor of Bethel Congregational Church of Ontario, in which the Harwood family has been prominent since the church was established.

Relatives of the Harwood family are arranging a gala family reunion as part of the celebration of Harwood's birthday. Mrs. Paul Harwood has arrived from New York for the event.

Harwood is credited with being the father of the lemon industry of Upland district, having founded the first lemon association here many years ago.

The congregation of the Bethel Congregational Church is planning a service of love for Harwood on the 19th inst. His favorite hymns and choir numbers will be sung, and a special recital will be played on Harwood memorial organ.

Train Hits Car; Driver Bruised

GLENDALE, Oct. 13. — Frank Reid, 824 South Los Angeles street, Los Angeles, last night escaped with a few minor bruises and a bad scare when the Southern Pacific train, the Sunset Limited, demolished his sedan at the crossing over the tracks in the 1000 block on North San Fernando Road. The car was overturned and hurled to the side of the tracks by the impact.

Reid told Officers Daum and Gary that the crossing signals were not working at the time he approached the crossing, but the railroad crew, that made a test an hour later, reported that the mechanism was functioning perfectly.

STEEL DUST TAKEN FROM WORKER'S EYES

ONTARIO, Oct. 13.—While two workmen were engaged in cutting pipes for a new city water main, steel dust was blown into their eyes and for a while it was feared their eyesight might be seriously impaired or lost. The men are Walter Neahi, 25 years of age, of 2225 Harding street, Long Beach, and C. W. Wright, 24, of 967 North Eleanor street, Pomona. Both men were taken to San Antonio Community Hospital, and under local anaesthetic the steel particles were removed. The victims are employees of the Western Pipe and Steel Company of San Francisco.

BRETHREN IN CHURCH SEPARATE

Despite Efforts Made to Reconcile Differences, Glendora Body Divides

GLENDORA, Oct. 13.—Failure to adjust differences arising among members of the congregation of the Glendora Church of the Brethren, has resulted in a public explanation released by officials of the Southern District of that church.

Attempts on the part of a special commission appointed to settle the dispute, which is said to be other than "doctrinal differences," failed completely, and as the situation grew more complicated approximately eighty members of the congregation separated from the church and are holding temporary services at the home of one of the members.

The differences arose several months ago, when Rev. Galen Walker, pastor of the La Verne Church of the Brethren, was appointed chairman of the special commission to "iron out the difficulties." His explanation is as follows:

"A special commission composed of five prominent leaders of the Church of the Brethren in Southern California was officially sent to Glendora to help the local church adjust some differences that had arisen. This commission labored diligently with the church over a period of some months after which findings were reported to the official body sponsoring the commission.

"This body, which is composed of the highest officials of the denomination in this church district, expressed a decided disapproval of two organizations of the Church of the Brethren of Glendora under existing circumstances and appealed to the whole membership of the church to remain in one body and to work toward unity.

"In concurrence with this decision the church has been reorganized under the direction of the commission and is continuing regular services."

New Methods to Fight Husk Fly to Be Tried

CHINO, Oct. 13. — Having met with small success in a campaign last spring and summer to exterminate the walnut husk fly, new methods of combat are to be sought as soon as the present walnut crop is harvested in Chino Valley.

Considerable spraying and dusting was aimed at the pest early in the summer, in hopes of catching the fly before it could emerge from the ground and invade the trees.

The campaign was carried out by C. C. Delphey, horticultural inspector for Chino district, and a corps of assistants. Complete extermination results did not follow, and experiments are now being carried on at the citrus experiment station, Riverside, under direction of A. M. Boyce.

Since the walnut harvest started this fall the walnut husk fly has been discovered in areas outside the regular quarantine area of last year, which leads to the general belief that the quarantine area is to be widened considerably after the present harvest.

Several growers felt their groves to be secure against invasion of the pest, and did not take the precaution to spray or dust last summer. To their dismay they have discovered that the fly has invaded their trees.

Pearl-String Loss Reported

PASADENA, Oct. 13.—Loss of a $5000 string of pearls was reported to the police today by Mrs. Charles F. Paxton of 1160 South Orange Grove.

Mrs. Paxton, a local society leader, stated that she missed the pearls after attending the Pasadena Community Playhouse Friday night. She did not notify the police immediately because she hoped to find them herself by retracing her movements.

The necklace, consisting of genuine seed pearls, graduated from small to large pearls, is described as thirty inches in length.

DIRECTORS ELECTED BY WATER COMPANY

LA CRESCENTA, Oct. 13.—New directors were elected today at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Crescenta Mutual Water Company, at La Crescenta school. Miss A. H. Curry, secretary, had charge of the meeting. A report of the physical status of the company was given by Supt. H. E. Carter and Andrew Brown, treasurer. The total assets of the concern are $151,558. The company, which is an independent organization supplying domestic water locally, is reported to be in excellent financial condition.

PACOIMA CHAMBER SEATS NEW HEAD

PACOIMA, Oct. 13.—W. A. Sumner was installed president of the local Chamber of Commerce at the annual meeting held in the chamber's building on Van Nuys Boulevard. C. C. Fouik and A. J. Canby were seated as vice-presidents; J. M. Tucker, secretary, and Fred Rogers, treasurer. Glenn C. Raddatz, retiring president of the organization, had charge of the meeting and the dinner which was served by members of the Pacoima Woman's Club. A music and dance program followed the business session.

CHORINES' RACE TIES TRAFFIC

Broadway Crowds Given Thrill

Leaders in Skating Competition

TRAFFIC at Third street and Broadway was tied up yesterday afternoon when fourteen chorus girls, dressed in their regular stage costumes, raced on roller skates from Third to Fourth street, attempting to win a prize of $50 for first place. Norma Ames, 19 years of age, held the race from the start and won by a distance of ten yards from her nearest competitor, June Turney. Third and fourth places were taken by Lucille Williams and Roselyn Ford.

The race marks the beginning of regular roller-skating exercise for Jack Laughlin's chorus girls. Skating is the best means of reducing excess weight, according to Laughlin.

SINGERS IN NEW UNION MOVE HERE

Organizers Busy With Film, Radio and Concert Artists in Hollywood

A move to unionize the several hundred musical artists here who are members of neither Actors' Equity Association nor the musicians' union has been launched in Hollywood. In the new union would be particularly those singers who work in motion-picture studios, sing in radio stations or appear at luncheon club gatherings and public or semi-public meetings conducted by various organizations.

As a forerunner to the unionization move a meeting was called last month by Glenn Ellison, a radio and concert singer at the Knickerbocker Hotel, Hollywood. At this gathering it was set forth that, whereas instrumental musicians in radio, film or concert work are "protected" by union rules and regulations and receive good pay, the unorganized singers are "bitterly imposed upon" by motion-picture producers and others as to pay and working conditions. So it was proposed that the singers form a musical artists' guild, the principal purpose of which was asserted to be the stopping of singing without remuneration, or singing for only meals or for whatever publicity can be obtained by organizations before which these musicians appear.

At a subsequent meeting representatives of the musicians' union appeared before the attendants and urged affiliation with the American Federation of Labor. The proposal was taken under consideration. Mr. Ellison was made president of the guild; Dr. T. Percival Gerson of the Hollywood Bowl board of directors, vice-president; Mrs. Najan Cortright, an attorney, secretary. On the board of directors also are Richard Drake Saunders, Homer Grunn, Alphonse Correlli and Mary Fabian.

Now, it is learned, application has been made for a union charter.

TROY MEN RANK ABOVE CO-EDS

Semester Report on Grades Shows Boys Hold More of High Places

Men students at the University of Southern California led co-eds in obtaining the highest possible scholastic average during the past semester.

Six men were found to have attained no grade less than A, while five women also maintained a perfect academic record.

Among the students having no grade less than B, the men again outnumbered the co-eds, the figures being ninety-four to eighty-four.

Upper classmen were better students than the freshmen and sophomores, a check of the report revealed. The percentages of the four classes having straight A and B records were: Seniors, 10.42; juniors, 6.09; sophomores, 5.90, and freshmen, 4.80.

SUIT LEADS TO CONVICTION

Former California Eastern Shipping Executive Comes to Grief After Stockholders' Action

A stockholders' civil suit led to the prosecution and conviction of Frank C. Hill, former president of the California Eastern Steamship Company, on charges of grand theft, records of Superior Judge Yankwich's court revealed yesterday. Charles S. Pierce, S. N. Benjamin and other stockholders asked for a writ of mandate to compel Hill to allow them to inspect the company's books.

Evidence was presented at the civil trial to show the company was a Delaware corporation but that its main office was at Los Angeles. It sold its ships in January, 1929, and thereafter engaged in no business. Stockholders favored dissolving the company, the plaintiffs asserted, but Hill wished to use the money to engage in other ventures and refused to let the complaining stockholders inspect the books to learn what funds were on hand.

Hill contended the court had not power to compel an examination of the books because the corporation was a foreign one and its charter and by-laws provided that stockholders should have no power to inspect books except at the will of the directors. Judge Yankwich overruled this contention and laid down these principles:

That directors of a foreign corporation cannot deny California stockholders the right to examine and inspect books of the company.

That by-laws of a foreign corporation which deny the right of stockholders to inspect books of a corporation are contrary to public policy, for the stockholders have the right to know how the corporation's affairs are being conducted.

That California regulatory measures giving stockholders certain rights with respect to the books of corporations inure to the benefit of California stockholders of foreign corporations which do business in California. Upon their coming into this State for the purpose of doing business here they subject themselves to the right of inspection which exists as to California corporations.

Judge Yankwich issued a writ of mandate. Hill applied to the District Court of Appeal for a writ of supersedeas to stay the judgment until appeal was heard. The District Court of Appeal denied the writ, the Supreme Court refused to hear the matter and the investigation began which resulted in the filing of charges.

Hill is to appear tomorrow before Superior Judge Tryon for sentence.

Poesy Course for Students

Featuring three new instructors and one new course never before offered, the extension division of the University of California announces the opening of sixty classes in Los Angeles early in November. The new course is on readings from the plays and poetry of today and will be offered by Miss Robert E. Phillips, recently the executive secretary of the Poet's Guild of New York. The class will meet on Wednesday mornings beginning November 5.

The other new instructors will be in charge of real-estate courses and include Peter Hanson, chairman of the appraisal division of the California Real Estate Association, and Fred A. Aldean, publisher of the Property Owner Magazine.

COMMITTEE OUT TO GET LARGE VOTE

Drive Pends in Effort to Bring State Election to Million Ballots

An intensive drive to roll up a record-breaking Republican vote in Los Angeles and other Southern California counties will be made by the Republican State Committee under the direction of Louis B. Mayer, vice-chairman, and Mendel B. Silberberg, southern counties campaign director, it was stated yesterday by Mr. Silberberg.

Various divisions of the State committee, especially the speakers' bureau under the management of Maj. Carlos W. Huntington, and the veterans' department, headed by Alfred N. Sutro, will be used in the drive to get out a heavy vote at the November 4 general election, Mr. Silberberg said.

More than 469,000 Republicans voted in the nine Southern California counties in the primary contest for the gubernatorial nomination, and it will be the goal of the Republican leaders to exceed the 500,000 mark at the general election.

Under the direction of Mr. Sutro, aid will be extended to the "get-out-the-vote" committees of the more than 200 American Legion posts in this section of the State, while all speakers for the Republican State Congressional and legislative ticket will urge all citizens to visit the polls on election day irrespective of political affiliation.

The Republican registration in California was 1,390,413, for the primary election, and the State committee will devote its efforts to polling more than 1,000,000 votes for the Rolph-Merriam Republican ticket at the general election three weeks from today.

STRENGTH OF GRAVES INCREASES

Ex-Councilman Allan and Others Support Candidate for Supervisor

Robert M. Allen, former City Councilman, believes that he received 4600 votes for the position of Supervisor in the Third District, although he was not a candidate for office at the primary election.

A similarity in names of Allan and one of the candidates who entered the race, although he has resided in the district for but a short time, accounts for Allan's predicament.

Allan, feeling that it is but proper to acknowledge the good will of a constituency that voted because they thought they were voting for him, has addressed a letter to residents of the district.

"Not a day passes but that I am stopped by friends who supposed I was a candidate and who advise me that they voted for me in the recent election," Allan wrote.

"I was not a candidate, but supported the candidacy of Sidney T. Graves. Therefore, I would appreciate it if the friends who voted for me would support Mr. Graves in the final election in November."

At the Graves headquarters in the Hayward, James P. Britt, campaign manager, yesterday announced that the candidacy of Graves has been indorsed by the Engineers' Safety League of Southern California and the Pacific Coast Showmans' Association. Organized labor has already indorsed Graves's candidacy.

'TIMES' FILM TO FEATURE OCEAN HOP

Latest Newsreel Release Shows Columbia Take-off From Harbor Grace

When the veteran plane Columbia lifted into the fog as Harbor Grace and started through the mist on the trans-Atlantic voyage to London, a Times-Universal cameraman snapped the take-off. This picture is shown in leading Southern California theaters.

Other features of the newsreel, include: 70,000 marchers in the American Legion parade at Boston; a girl hypnotist of Glen Ellyn, Ill., who, at 6 years of age, is said to have mastered mesmerism; the setting off of a five-ton charge of dynamite which released 100,000 tons of radium and gold at Chain-O-Mines, Colorado, and other subjects. All are described by Graham McNamee.

Further information concerning this schedule can be obtained by calling REpublic 3171, and asking about Newsreel No. 82.

BUILDING OPERATIONS CAUSE OF PROTEST

The Westlake Masonic Association has protested to the City Council that the construction work upon Eighth street in front of the temple at Eighth and Burlington avenue is being carried on in such a manner as to threaten the safety of the building. The complaint was referred to City Engineer Jessup and to the Public Works Committee.

SERVICE CLUB TO INSTALL

New officers of the Army-Navy-Marine Corps Association will be elected and installed at a meeting at 6:15 p.m. next Friday at the Masonic Club, 623 South Grand avenue. Three important addresses will be part of the evening's entertainment. Col. Charles Haskell will speak on "With the Military Intelligence in War Time;" Capt. Joseph M. Cormack on "A Survey of the Draft Acts" and Capt. W. Calvin Silliman on "Service With the Military Police."

PROJECTS' COST MAPS APPROVED

Assessments for Number of Improvements Receive Sanction of Council

The City Council, on recommendation of the Public Works Committee, has approved the assessment district maps for the improvement of Ewing street between Alvarado street and Glendale Boulevard for the improvement of the Vineland-avenue and Cantara-street district, for the improvement of Glen Oak west of Beachwood Drive, for the improvement of O'Neill street at Beagle street, for the improvement of Belle Porte avenue between Weston and Anaheim streets, for the improvement of Ascot avenue between Fifty-third street and Fifty-fifth street and for the improvement of Echo Park avenue between Altivo Way and Fairbanks Place.

City Engineer Jessup has transmitted to the Council the assessment-district maps for the improvement of Loma Vista Place at Alessandro street, for the improvement of Carroll avenue from Douglas street to West Edgeware Road, for the improvement of streets in the Gracia-street and Hollydale Drive District and for the improvement of Ashmore Place between Paul Terrace and Lucretia avenue.

The maps were referred to the Public Works Committee.

L. A.b Stites heads a petition signed by property owners who want One Hundred and Sixth street between Main street and Broadway improved with concrete roadway and curbs.

Preachers Hear Appeal to Keep Truth's Basis

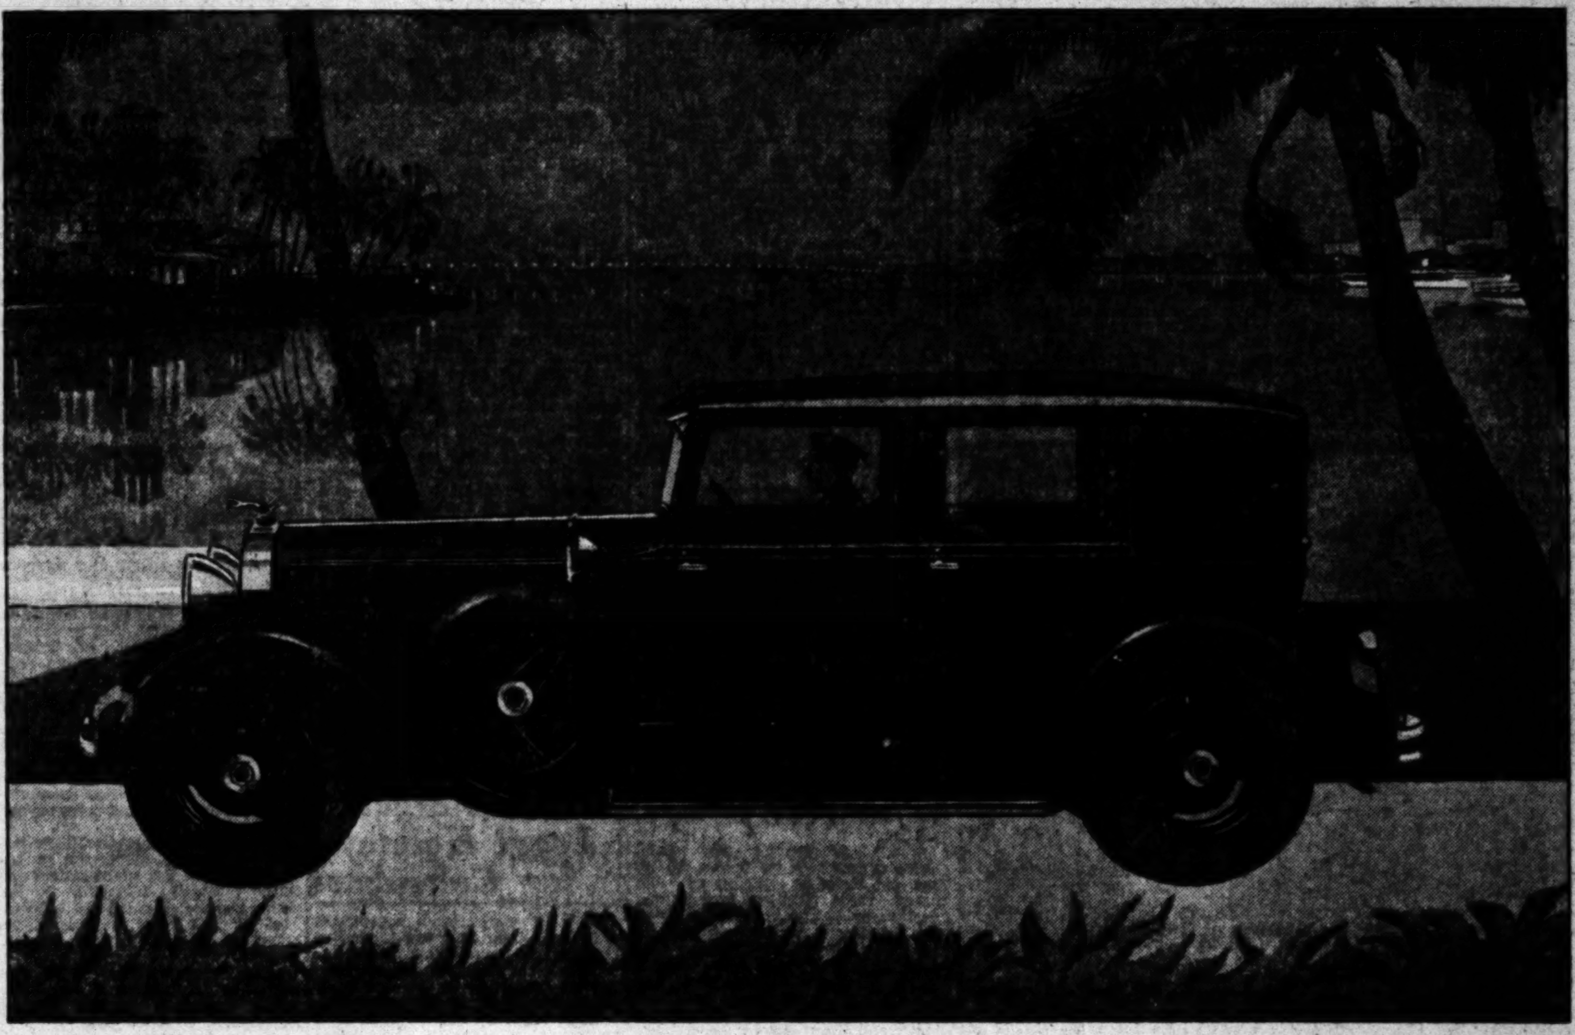
Criticising those religionists who advocate abandonment by the church of everything suggesting faith in the miraculous and the transcendental, Dr. E. B. Bennett, editor of the California Christian Advocate, told Methodist ministers at First Methodist Church yesterday that if the mystic element should be taken from Christianity "the church would be merely a humanistic organization."

"If the church does not Christianize the social order the social system will paganize Christianity," said Dr. Bennett. "It is good for the church to change its forms at times, and to keep abreast of all new knowledge, but the spirit of truth, upon which the church was founded, must never be abandoned."

The annual meeting of the Retired Ministers' Association will be conducted at First Methodist Church today, beginning at 10 a.m. Speakers will be Bishop William B. Stevens, Dr. John Snape and Dr. John Matthews.

PAINTINGS SHOWN BY ART DIRECTOR

Original paintings by Danny Hall, who has designed and created the sets for many of Universal's pictures, will be on display in the Hollywood Knickerbocker Hotel for three days, beginning this afternoon. This exhibition is open to the public afternoons and evenings. Hall, in addition to his activities at Universal City, is art director for Charles Chaplin.



*THE JUDKINS TWO-WINDOW BERLINE

Its economy is evident . . . throughout all the years you drive a Lincoln

FEW Lincoln owners would be willing to name one quality of their motor car's performance which appeals to them more especially than another. Swift, safe, powerful, with a sure beauty of its own, the Lincoln is a notable example of well-balanced excellence. Yet it is not too much to say that the economy of buying a Lincoln, coupled with the continued economy of driving it, contributes greatly to the loyalty of those who know it best.

A Lincoln may be bought for as little as $4200, f.o.b. Detroit. That price, possible only because the entire resources of the Ford organization are behind each Lincoln, brings you as nearly perfect a motor car as can be produced. Built in one of the famous precision plants of the world, tested with unique thoroughness on more than 29,000 separate occasions, the Lincoln is so accurately made it needs no breaking in. You can drive it at normal speed the very first day you own it!

And as varying conditions of travel, through many years, test the full measure of its excellence, the Lincoln will reveal itself as an economical car to drive. Simply because it has been made with such painstaking care, of the finest materials, this motor car is maintained at a genuinely negligible cost. All parts respond unfailingly, continually, with their own particular functions . . . through each of as many years as you care to drive your Lincoln. And perhaps quite as important, the Lincoln retains its style, its comfort and steadfast character indefinitely.

A beauty of design that stands symbol for strength within . . . an exhilarating responsiveness to every command . . . a mechanical perfection that results in true economy of ownership . . . these belong especially to the Lincoln.

The Judkins Two-window Berline. The low roof line, high belt and wide windows accentuate the length and smartness of this motor car. On the interior, the upholstery is deep and luxurious. A desirable feature of the Judkins Berline is its adaptability to both owner and chauffeur driving. Among other formal types are the Willoughby Limousine, the Brunn Cabriolet, the Brunn Brougham, and the LeBaron Cabriolet. Several open types also are available, including the Sport Phaeton, the Locke Sport Roadster and the Dietrich Convertible Coupe.*

HITLER'S IDEAS CALLED FUTILE

Dr. Martin Simons Visions No German Mussolini

He Declares Reichwar Would Back Von Hindenburg

Former Acting President of Republic Visits Here

Adolph Hitler never will dominate Germany. The people are happy with their present government, and the Reichwar, while a small army, will be able to sustain Hindenburg and what he represents.

DR. MARTIN SIMONS

So said Dr. Martin Simons, former acting President of Germany, who passed through port on the Hamburg-American motor liner San Francisco yesterday en route home to Berlin. Dr. and Mrs. Simons were traveling so unpretentiously not even the passengers aboard knew generally who he is.

HITLER VISIONARY

"Hitler is a visionary; he has not a statesmanlike intellect. If it weren't bad for Germany I'd like to see his party in power a little while for the purpose of giving him a drilling in executive experience.

"He will cause trouble as long as he is not in power. He can sway certain people; he is dynamic, like your late Mr. Bryan, but Bryan had more original and more worthy ideas than Hitler. Hitler Fascists are extreme Socialists and have nothing in common with Mussolini."

REPUBLIC LIKED IT

Dr. Simons added that "nobody wishes to return to the monarchial form of government," and expressed conviction that his people will comply with the Young plan.

"Unemployment is making it hard for us to pay, true, but that is as nothing compared with the chaos if Hitler gained control and carried out his threats on Russia. It would mean another general war and that would debauch all Europe."

HELD MANY POSTS

In his sixty-nine years he has held perhaps more public posts than any German living. They include Minister of Justice, Minister of Foreign Affairs, general counsel to the German peace delegation at Versailles, and the conferences at Spa and London; president of the Supreme Court, and from that to become President of the republic for the two months' interim between President Ebert's death and the succession by Hindenberg.

Dr. Simons came to America August 2, lecturing first at Williamstown, Mass., on international law, of which he still is professor at Leipzig. He was a guest of President Hoover in September, and for the last two weeks has been touring out of San Francisco. The Grand Canyon, he declared the greatest sight he ever had seen.

He expects to return in two years to accept numerous invitations accorded by friends in Los Angeles.

MONEY PLATES' USE DEFINED

Counterfeiting Suspect Given Probation After Telling of His "Experiments"

Charles Sarles was just experimenting, he told United States District Judge Hazel yesterday when he appeared for hearing on an application for probation on a charge of possession of plates meant for counterfeiting. Sarles had previously pleaded guilty. After the probation officer reported that Sarles had a previous good record the court granted a year's probation.

Harry Corbett Obsequies Set for Tomorrow

Funeral services for Harry D. Corbett, postmaster at Hila, Hawaii, during President Harding's administration, will be conducted at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the capel at Hollywood Cemetery, under auspices of the Odd Fellows. The P. A. Parks mortuary, 850 Venice Boulevard, is in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Corbett, who was 76 years of age, died Sunday at his home, 1318 South Hoover street. He had been a semi-invalid since last January, when he suffered injuries in an automobile accident.

Born at Sumter, S. C., Mr. Corbett spent most of his life in Tucson, where he was one of the founders of the Tucson lodge of Odd Fellows. He was a member of that organization for fifty-three years. He leaves his widow, one son, Harry J. Corbett of Chicago, and one daughter, Mrs. F. O. Peers of Los Angeles, mother of Joan Peers, screen actress.

WRITER TRIPS ON "GARGOYLE"

Authors Battle Words in Spelling Bee

Best Ones Among Group of Letter Jugglers

CAN you spell rhizmorphous or sumbooruk or perruthenate? They were easy enough for George L. Banks, but when it came to gargoyle he was stumped and had to take his seat.

It happened yesterday during the spelling match conducted by Miss Louise Temple's adult class for authors and writers at the Los Angeles Junior College. Banks was the first one to be spelled down.

Miss Temple, conducting the match according to old prescribed rules, divided the class equally and lined each side against the blackboard. Words chosen for the contest were taken from newspapers, magazines and publications in which the class members have had their stories accepted.

Stumblers like reveille, pneuma and phagocytosis were spelled correctly the first time. It was the so-called easy words such as survey, cosmopolitan, delineator, kaleidoscope, miraculous, heterogeneous and opportunity that were missed.

By spelling correctly the word congregationalist Miss Stella Bennett defeated her last opponent, Mrs. Alline Chapin, and was awarded the title of spelling champion. She was given a prize of postage stamps.

Plans Ordered for Addition to Two Schools

Preparation of building plans and specifications for a twelve-unit elementary school building on the Euna Drive school site and for an eight and one-half unit addition to the Woodrow Wilson school was ordered by the Board of Education last night, the board specifying that the new school building's maximum cost shall be $84,000 and the maximum cost of the addition shall be $56,000.

The plans for the new Euna Drive school will be drawn up by the architectural division of the board, while William Barber was designated as the architect to draw up the plans for the addition to the Woodrow Wilson school. The architectural division will prepare plans and specifications for the electric wiring of both buildings, but the heating and ventilating plans and specifications will be prepared by Elliott Lee Ellingwood for the Wilson addition, and by Martin T. Hooper for the new school.

Mrs. Chamberlin, Singer, Will Be Buried in East

Funeral services for Mrs. Belle Chamberlin, former noted light-opera star, who died Sunday morning at the Hollywood Hospital following an operation, will be conducted in Grand Rapids, Mich., her birthplace. The body will be sent there tomorrow.

As a member of the original Bostonians and of several New York light-opera companies Mrs. Chamberlin was widely known on the stage. Recently she had been a dancing teacher in Denver and came here from that city in search of health. Until her last illness Mrs. Chamberlin had been living at 3206 West Forty-first street.

Actor Becomes Father of Girl

Robert Montgomery, motion-picture actor, wanted to keep it a secret, but his friends found out that yesterday he became a proud father, a girl having been born to Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery at St. Vincent's Hospital. The mother and child are reported doing nicely. Mrs. Mongomery is a nonprofessional. Her husband is now at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

BULLOCK'S TO OPEN BACKGAMMON CLASS

Interest in backgammon as a social diversion is to be met by a backgammon studio at Bullock's from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day except Saturday in the modern art section on the sixth floor. Mrs. Frances Young Flintom, New York, a graduate pupil of Lelia Hattersley, will be in charge. Mrs. Flintom will give a series of lectures at 10:30 a.m. The first talk will be today and Mrs. Flintom after the lecture will supervise the play of those wishing to remain. Backgammon is probably the oldest of games, coming from the Pharaohs in Egypt.

JUVENILES' CRIMES LAID TO PARENTS

Ex-Judge Lindsey Speaks to Hollywood City Club at First Session

Juvenile delinquency was attributed to negligence of parents and to ignorance by ex-Judge Ben Lindsey and Dr. William H. Snyder, director of the Los Angeles Junior College, who were the speakers yesterday at the inaugural luncheon of the Hollywood City Club at the Montmartre. The speakers both asserted that this is proving the greatest age in history for the youth of the land in spite of the fact there are more temptations.

Dr. Snyder said that much delinquency is traced to children whose homes have been broken by divorce, while Judge Lindsey cited one instance where a child who had been taught by his parents to dislike policemen went out and shot one.

As a result of the discussion the club membership adopted a resolution calling for an investigation into juvenile crime and advocating the establishment of a junior police reserve for boys between 15 and 19 years of age, to study police methods and give them a better understanding of the police and their powers. Interesting statistics concerning juvenile delinquency were given by Mrs. Edythe Williams.

The club, founded recently with Alvin W. Wendt as president, started yesterday with 200 members present.

Crowd Forgets Legal Holiday for Columbus

That crowd of intense, eager-eyed taxpayers that congregated before the Hall of Records yesterday—

They were not Lief Ericson supporters protesting at the closing of public buildings on Columbus Day.

They were not excited spectators expecting a sensational divorce trial.

They were just people who did not read the newspapers and spent interurban fare or gasoline to drive to Los Angeles to attend a meeting of the Board of Supervisors, which, because yesterday was a legal holiday, was postponed.

Most of them were to speak for or against the proposed leasing of a walnut grove near El Monte as a public airport.

Twin Sons Born to Mrs. Cole II

Twin sons arrived at the Good Samaritan Hospital Sunday night to take up their abode at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Cole II, of 895 Crenshaw Boulevard, it was announced yesterday.

The boys and their mother, the former Marie Williams, are in the best of health and the youngsters were christened yesterday as Cornelius Cole III and Peter Van Zandt Cole. The new arrivals are the great grandsons of former Senator Cornelius Cole, deceased, and are the newest members of one of the oldest Southern California families.

Trolley Service Protest Filed

G. R. Young has complained to the City Council that since construction work started on the Fourth-street bridge people east of the river in this vicinity have received no street- car service as far as Cummings street.

His complaint was referred by the City Council to the Board of Public Utilities and Transportation.

MRS. PALAMANTES'S RITES TO BE TODAY

Funeral services will be conducted at 9 o'clock this morning in St. Augustine's Catholic Church, Culver City, for Mrs. Marie Palamantes, 64 years of age, who died at the home of her daughter, Mary Lugo, Culver City, last Saturday. Mrs. Palamantes's mother, the late Mrs. Elizabeth Silvers, and members of her family once owned the land now occupied by Pasadena and San Marino. They also owned 2700 acres around San Gabriel, under an old Spanish grant. Mrs. Palamantes leaves two sons, Albert and Enoch, and two daughters, Mrs. Mary Lugo of Culver City and Rita Machado.

LAST OF JULIAN CASES UP TODAY

Ten Slated to Answer in Conspiracy Charge

Dismissal of Defendants Freely Predicted

Dist.-Atty. Fitts Refuses to Disclose Intentions

Marking the end of a trail strewn with stumbling blocks that brought disaster to thousands and prison sentences to a few persons, the last of the Julian Petroleum Corporation cases which charges ten men with conspiracy to overissue Julian stock, is scheduled to come up before Superior Judge Crawford today for trial.

Although Dist.-Atty. Fitts positively declines to discuss the nature of the next move in the case, circumstances surrounding the approaching trial have caused close observers to believe the District Attorney will ask that the case be dismissed.

One of these circumstances is the fact that no effort has been made to return Jacob Berman and S. C. Lewis, former central figures in the Julian corporation, from McNeil's Island to Los Angeles for trial. They are serving a seven-year term each for using the mails to defraud.

Another reason for the predictions of dismissal is the death of Motley Flint, Los Angeles banker, who originally was a defendant in the case but who was shot down and killed by Frank D. Keaton when he appeared in Superior Judge Collier's court as a witness July 15, last.

Both Dist.-Atty. Fitts and R. P. Stewart, his chief deputy, are expected to appear in court for the prosecution when the case is called today.

PAIR FEARED TRAPPED BY RISING TIDE

Fail to Return Home From Sunday Trip to Beach; Automobile Found

Finding last night of an automobile on Hueneme Beach near Ventura gave rise to fear that a swimming expedition undertaken by Miss Julia S. Bestmann, 24 years of age, of 1522 West Fifty-fifth street, and Walter Bashon, 30, of 1129 West Fifty-ninth street, both of Los Angeles, had terminated fatally.

J. H. Bestmann, cement contractor, told police yesterday before the automobile was found, his daughter and Bashon had been missing since Sunday. He said the young couple had motored away with the declaration that they intended to find a remote beach and enjoy a plunge away from crowds.

Last night following the finding by Motorcycle Policeman Hearn of the automobile, identified as the one the young couple had used, persons living near Hueneme Beach declared they had seen a young man and woman sitting on some rocks in the water, and that they had worried a little because the tide was coming in. The tide continued to come in, and soon the young couple were not seen at all, though none who had first seen them noticed whether they had come ashore, or how.

Motorcycle Policeman Hearn examined the car, his report to Los Angeles police last night stated, and found clothing belonging to the young couple. The car itself, Hearn said he had been told, had been standing on the beach thirteen hours.

Miss Bestmann had been employed as an operator at the Baker Linen Company in the Grayco Building.

ACTRESS KILLS SELF FOR GRIEF

Mrs. Ethel Gordon Crain's Suicide Laid to Deaths of Husband and Children

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 13.—Self-poisoned, Mrs. Ethel Gordon Crain, 54 years of age, formerly a character actress in motion pictures and for whom search has been under way since Saturday noon, was found dying in her room at a hotel here late this afternoon. She was taken to the Ramona Hospital but died a few hours later.

Mrs. Crain arrived here late Saturday afternoon, just a short time after her absence was noticed from her home at 529 Valmont avenue, Tujunga. When she registered at the hotel, she asked for a quiet room and that she be not disturbed. Hotel employees complied with her wishes until late this afternoon, when the door was forced. She had taken a fatal drug.

Two notes were found in her hotel room, one inclosing payment for her account and the other directing the police to her automobile.

Grief over the tragic deaths of her husband, a son and a daughter within the past three years is believed to have been the cause of her act. Neighbors told police she declared shortly before she left home that she was "going to end it all." The husband died in an automobile accident in Chicago and the daughter took her own life with poison only a week ago, police learned.

Neighbors and friends were bequeathed her real estate and personal property in a will she prepared and left among her effects at her home.

GOODRICH TRANSFERS ADVERTISING OFFICIAL

E. T. Morris, advertising manager for the Pacific Goodrich Rubber Company, has been transferred to Akron, O., where he will be assistant to P. J. Kelley, director of advertising for the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company. Mr. Morris has been in charge of Goodrich advertising in the eleven western States about two years, coming here from Akron. Mr. and Mrs. Morris made their home at San Marino.

KIRKS GO TO COURT TODAY

Mother Who Vanished Last Year Seeks $25,000 From Son as He Asks Guardian for Her

Recovering from an injury, Mrs. Laura Jane Kirk, whose mysterious disappearance from her son's home was a five-day news sensation last year, is scheduled to appear today in Superior Judge Hazlett's court in a legal contest with her son, Norman T. Kirk. The mother seeks to recover $25,000 she asserts she loaned her son. Kirk has pending a petition to have a guardian appointed for his mother.

When the joined actions were scheduled for trial early last summer, Mrs. Kirk was unable to appear because she had fallen, breaking her hip. Mrs. Kirk, who is 78 years of age, has recovered sufficiently to attend court in a wheel chair.

Her name was brought to public notice August 1, 1929, when her son advertised that his mother had disappeared from his home, where she lived, and had been missing two months. A widespread search followed. Five days after the advertisement was published, Mrs. Kirk was located living in a rented apartment on the edge of Temple City.

Kirk later filed the petition asking a guardianship, asserting his mother might be imposed upon by designing persons seeking her money. In her examination, Mrs. Kirk denied she has $36,000 worth of property, asserting the total is approximately $18,000.

Attorneys W. C. Snyder and John C. Stick represent Mrs. Kirk, and Attorney Earl C. Wakeman represents the son.

DRUGGIST SEIZED FOR LIQUOR SALE

Ira A. Miller, 38 years of age, owner of the Miller Drug Company at 952 West Seventh street, was arrested last night by Sergt. Sears and a detail of men from the vice-squad on a charge of selling bonded liquor without prescription.

HELEN HICKS SCORES 80 OVER LOS ANGELES LINKS

Southern California Women Among Leaders; Glenna Collett Turns in Brilliant Card of 81

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE

Missouri's well-known mule might advantageously take a few profitable pointers in the art of unwaivering determination from Mrs. O. S. Hill, golfing mother of Kansas City, who drove, chipped and putted par groggy over the north course of the Los Angeles Country Club yesterday to win medal honors in the thirty-fourth national women's championship with 40-39—79. two strokes under perfect figures.

Smiling, debonair Helen Hicks of Inwood, N. Y., looked like the medalist when she holed out her par on the eighteenth green with a score of 40-40—80, and Miss Maureen Orcutt of New York, Miss Virginia Van Wie of Chicago, and Miss Glenna Collett of New York, the defending champion, had already finished with cards of 81, but the doughty Missouri matron was not to be denied as she clicked off two birdies and three pars to end a great competitive round of golf.

VIRGINIA VAN WIE

Mrs. Hill's popular victory proves that there is some justice in this world after all, for she was denied the medal a year ago at Oakland Hills, Mich., with the honor in her grasp. Two holes to go, and pars for a 78, the Kansas City star found herself buried deep in a trap on the short seventeenth and took six strokes to get down, while Miss Hicks and Miss Van Wie

ANGELS, STARS COLLIDE

Final Series of Pacific Coast League Scheduled to Start Today at Wrigley Field

BY BOB RAY

The series for no reason at all between Jack Lelivelt's Angels and Oscar Vitt's Stars begins at Wrigley Field this afternoon. Nobody cares and nobody seems interested because this week's series will find the rival athletes only marking time until they begin the championship play-off one week from tomorrow.

Hollywood, for the second straight season, has cinched the second half of the race, and even though the Angels were to win seven straight games the Stars would still finish on top. The Angels, who have cinched second this half, captured the first half race with the Sheiks three games behind.

JESSE HILL.

The fans do not figure to come out for this week's games, but it's my opinion that there will be plenty of interest in the pennant play-off. Of course, there is the possibility that the local baseball customers have got tired of baseball, inasmuch as the season has dragged out so long. The Coast League magnates ought to know now that the season is too long, inasmuch as it's costing the league about $100,000 to play out these last few weeks, so, maybe, there'll be a shorter season next year.

However, be that as it may, the Stars and Seraphs will go through the motions this afternoon and for six following games, but you can bet that they won't be extending themselves and taking a chance on getting injuries that will keep them out of the play-off.

Both sides expect to put their strongest teams in the field for

WHAT! WHAT! EASTERN GRID OFFICIALS ERR?

NEW YORK, Oct. 13. (AP)—Not that it makes any particular difference now, but in the cold gray dawn of the morning after, it has been discovered that one of the Yale touchdowns against Georgia Saturday was not in accord with the football statutes, made and provided in such cases.

The miscarriage of justice came at the beginning of the second half when Yale was leading Georgia by a score of 7 to 6 and then increased the count to 14 to 6.

Yale kicked off. The ball struck in the arms of Kelly, Georgia back, who ran a few steps to his own 20-yard line, where he was hit hard by Capt. Vincent of Yale. With the im-

BERKELEY, Oct. 13. (Exclusive) Although aching in the knees, hips and ankles, the University of California football varsity went through the customary Blue Monday drill this afternoon in an unusually peppy frame of mind following the thrilling encounter with St. Mary's College Saturday.

Hank Schaldach, hero of the California victory, was up and around again today after being laid low by a fierce tackle on the part of Brovelli, husky fullback. Fearing that a slight concussion of the brain might have resulted from the fall, Trainer Charlie Volz ordered Schaldach's confinement to the infirmary yesterday. Today Hank was on the football field, but in no mood for hard labor.

Capt. Carl Handy's bruised hip, for which he had himself removed from the game Saturday, was today reported in much better condition. He will take it easy for the most of the week. With the Olympic game scheduled for next Saturday, Coach Price intimated today that Handy will not have to work hard. The Bear captain's next heavy exertion will be in the Washington game at Seattle on the 25th inst.

Ed Kirwan, who was one of the leading spirits of the California attack against the Saints, will not see much more service this season. He went out of the St. Mary's contest with a fractured rib. Kirwan

WHAT REALLY HAPPENED AT PULLMAN AND MINNEAPOLIS

If you want to get the inside of last Saturday's Stanford-Minnesota game tune in over KHJ Thursday evening at 9:30 o'clock and learn from Clif Herd, Trojan scout, how the Cards were stopped cold by a team which had been upset, 33 to 7, the week before. Herd will let you in on Pop Warner's famous C formation and other tricks which failed to get Stanford a single touchdown. Clif will be interviewed by Braven Dyer of The Times sports staff, who, during the half hour, will also answer questions concerning Troy's 7-to-6 defeat at the hands of Washington State. Here's a chance to get plenty of inside dope on two of the season's biggest surprises. Stanford Fans Recall Coach Warner's Minnesota Game Predictions With Wry Fa

POP'S WARNING IS VINDICATED

Forecast Minnesota Would Be Hard to Score On

Stanford Eleven Due Home This Afternoon

Warner Says Coast Victor Must Get "Breaks"

BY HEC DYER

PALO ALTO, Oct. 13.—With the Stanford squad returning Tuesday afternoon from their disappointing scoreless game with Minnesota, Cardinal supporters are recalling "Pop" Warner's word of warning to the students at the rally held for the team as they left last Wednesday.

"Pop" referred to the supposedly weak Minnesota team which took such a severe beating from the powerful and well-trained Vanderbilt team a week ago Saturday.

PSYCHOLOGICAL EDGE

He remarked that the Minnesota team had only been working a very short period of time, and with a week's work and the fact that they had had a beating from Vanderbilt, it would take a strong team playing good ball to run up a score against such a combination.

Disregarding the rating of the team phychologically, Stanford was at a disadvantage with nothing at stake as to its conference position, but with the consensus of opinion that it was superior to Minnesota.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

"Pop" also made another remark which has since been brought home to Stanford students.

He said, "There is plenty of tough competition in our league. Do not expect the boys to win all of their games this year. All in all, it still appears that the majority of the conference teams are still very much in the race—Washington, Washington State, Oregon, California, Southern California and Stanford will make it a six-way struggle from now on.

"It looks as if the winner will be the one that gets the breaks, psychologically and otherwise, and can put up the best fight at the crucial moment, rather than the one with a big margin of superior ability."

was understudy to Lee Eisan as varsity quarterback last season. He will be missed.

Ted (Tiger) Beckett, who is going wild this season, with a busy game at guard, lost a gold tooth in the Saint skirmish. Beckett, a real iron man with a stevedore's physique, seemed to be in every play.

Other cripples about whom Price has some concern are Dolph Timmerman, Seldon Del Georgia and Malcolm Coombs. It seems as if the last named will be kept out of service for the second season in a row by injuries. Last year it was a fractured ankle, and this year it is a broken arm. Del Georgia will be back in action this week, it is predicted. He plays tackle. Timmerman, also a giant tackle, should be ready for the Washington game, which will be a decided help.

Today several hundred students gathered on the practice field for the weekly bleacher rally. Price put the third string and "goofs" in action against each other for the entertainment of the rally throng. The regulars rested.

BELMONT CEES BOW TO FRANKLIN BABES

Coach Mike Frankovich's Class C aggregation went down to a 7-to-2 defeat at the hands of the Panther babes in a league tilt at Belmont. The lone Franklin tally came early in the first period when Shinoda, versatile Printer back, intercepted a Hilltop pass on his own 40-yard line and ran for a touchdown. A center rush accounted for the extra point. The Belmont Cees scored a safety when Sidell blocked a kick in the third quarter and a Franklin back caught it over the goal line.

FOOTBALL BLASTS

MUCH ado in the football world.

Howard Jones relegates four varsity men to the side lines after the Washington State disaster.

Stanford again exhibits weakness in the scoring zone, and Bob Zuppke, Illinois coach, lays it to Pop Warner's double wing-back system.

California closes with a rush to beat St. Mary's, 7 to 6, and this, coupled with Washington State's victory over the Trojans, salves California alumni, who were sure they needed a new coach.

THE WORST GUESSER

IF NOTHING else, George Varnell, veteran football official of the Coast, can lay claim to being the worst guesser of the season.

Before the 1930 gridiron year got under way he picked the way the teams would finish, and named Washington State seventh on the list.

Wow! What a cropper Varnell has come already, and the Cougars have only played two conference games at that.

But those two games were against teams picked to finish within the first three—California and Southern California—and the Cougars won both battles.

VARNELL DREAMING?

AS A matter of fact, it is difficult to realize just how Varnell got so far off his base.

In local circles it was quite generally conceded that Washington State on paper had the strongest team in the Northwest.

In addition, this year's eleven is a team composed almost wholly of seniors.

Last fall Washington State lost only two games—to California, 14 to 0, and Southern California, 27 to 7.

Therefore, it is inconceivable that both California and Southern California, losing half of their 1929 teams by graduation, should be considered so far superior to Washington State with a veteran line and veteran backfield.

THE SCHEDULE?

IF TROJAN supporters really want to blame anybody besides Washington State for that Northwest defeat they can pick on the schedule.

And California can join in the refrain.

A seasoned team with veteran performers will almost invariably look better in early season play than teams with which coaches are still experimenting for best combinations.

Reports from both the California-W.S.C. and Southern California-W.S.C. games indicate that the loser's offense in each instance was impotent and the defense not at all comparable with Washington State's.

Both of these faults will be overcome by California and S.C. later in the season although this in no sense means either could reverse the decision against Washington State.

STANFORD'S WING BACKS

ZUPPKE'S blast over Stanford's failure to beat Minnesota, which on the previous Saturday had been licked by Vanderbilt, is left to Pop Warner for an answer.

Zuppke says Warner's double wing back system is fine when you have expert ball handlers and in certain situations.

But he stresses the fact that near the goal line the system does not permit a concentration of power.

And he adds that Knute Rockne's shift permits the very thing that the double wing-back formation denies.

FOUR NEW PLAYERS ON TROJAN VARSITY TEAM

It's nothing more than a violation of confidence to listen in on such chatter between boys obviously under the stress of defeat and then cut loose with the whole works and thereby endeavor to inject an element of unrest into a situation already doleful enough.

Secret practice will be the order at Bovard Field from now until the Stanford game. The players have the right spirit—they are grimly determined to show their coach that they can play sixty minutes of top-notch football and intend to do just that against Stanford, California and Notre Dame.

FATHER TO BOYS

Howard Jones treated his players just as if he had been their father. "I'll take my share of the blame," was his declaration yesterday morning to the boys. "All I ask is that you all buckle down in an effort to do what I know you can do." There was no biting, sarcastic criticism, no vindictive fault finding, merely a fatherly effort to get his boys back in stride again. Those of you who don't know Howard Jones would get quite an education traveling for several days with this man. And the same goes for Bill Hunter and Sam Barry.

One of the peculiar twists of fate regarding Saturday's game is that last summer Jones taught football in a coaching school at Washington State. Among the attendants was Babe Hollingbery. Saturday Babe came out with a cutback play, which, if not the same as Jones's, was so close to it that the obvious conclusion is that it was patterned after the Head Man's. And how that Porter Lainhart went through Troy's line while using it.

Would Mohler have scored had he not slipped on the 12-yard line just before the gun barked? That, friends, is like asking whether Mr. So and So would have made a good President had he been elected. Mohler did not get over the line and no amount of guessing will get him across now. Personally, I thought he was too close to at least two Cougar backs to have made the grade. But Orv was traveling at a fast clip and he is a very elusive runner.

DUFFIELD CAN COME BACK

Marshall Duffield will come back and play some great football this season. You can bank on that. Whatever you may say about these boys—and a lot of words are being used here and there—they are no quitters. Marsh cannot possibly have another day as bad as last week. It just isn't in the cards. We all bog down now and then no matter what our occupation, and it just happened to be Duffield's misfortune to have his relapse when it hurt terribly.

Not once on the return trip did I hear a Trojan official or rooter endeavoring to take away one iota of credit from the terrible Cougars. Hollingbery has a team to be proud of—an eleven without a weakness and if those hardy Northwestern boys play at the Rose Bowl New Year's Day they should get plenty of whole-hearted support from local fans. And they'll do very nicely at upholding the honor of western football.

There is no doubt but what a lot of us take our football too seriously. After all it's only a game, even if it has developed into something to talk about morning, noon and night for most of the year. And in our enthusiasm we often expect too much of the boys we have come to know and like. That they don't always finish on top may be somewhat the fault of us writers who laud them to the skies when they win. After all it's difficult for even a grown man to remain level-headed in the face of continuous praise. Not that the Trojans were self-confident Saturday for they knew they were entering a tough game, but such attention may cause the boys to take their eye off the ball momentarily and that seems to be just when the Trojans get socked the hardest.

There'll be many an S.C. rooter consoling a Stanford fan this week, and vice versa.

Stubblefield Now Favored

In spite of the fact that Francis Quinn pushed his car to first money last week in a "movie-thriller" finish to the forty-lap sweepstakes, local followers of the sport are installing "Stubby" Stubblefield as the favorite in tomorrow night's auto races at the Legion Ascot Speedway.

Most railbirds at the local oval believe that "Stubby" would have outmaneuvered the veteran for the balance of last week's race if his car had not thrown a wheel coming down that home stretch in the fatal thirty-third lap.

One of the fastest cars of its kind in the country is to be reintroduced at Ascot tomorrow night when "Speed" Hinkley of Pasadena makes his appearance at the wheel of No. 3.

MARSHALL BOWS TO MUIR TECH ELEVEN

Two touchdowns by Berge, substitute quarterback, gave the Muir Tech lightweights a 13-to-6 victory over the Marshall High School gridders yesterday, in a game played on the victors field. Berge subbed for Salsman and led his team to victory by recovering a fumble of the visitors over the goal line, and later skirting left end for another touchdown. The Muir Tech C team lost to the Alhambra midgets, 7 to 6.

The line-ups:

Muir Tech		Marshall
Peters	L.E.R.	Castle
Malby	L.T.R.	Wilkes
Hale	L.G.R.	Olson
Laybrow	C.	Heckman

MRS. HILL WINS MEDAL

Shoots Brilliant Round of 79 Over Difficult North Course to Lead Great Field

DOWN THE MIDDLE

There was no deviating from the straight and narrow path for Mrs. Hill yesterday as she played through green and fairway with a steadiness that was truly phenomenal. On five holes, Mrs. Hill's flashing putter dropped putts for birdies, ten holes were played in par, and only on three was she over. Possibly the most astounding feature of Mrs. Hill's card is the fact that not a single figure over 5 mars her card. It is extremely doubtful whether this will be accomplished again during the tournament.

For the second time this year, and the third time in two years, medal honors have gone to Mrs. Hill. She had a record smashing 75 at the Hillcrest Country Club, Kansas City, in the western women's championship in August, and was champion and medalist in 1929. The Kansas City star was also semifinalist at Oakland Hills in the national last year, losing to Miss Collett.

Mrs. Hill took up golf six years ago on the advice of her physician, and with characteristic stick-to-itiveness practiced three hours a day and played once a week until she considered her game good enough to stand the acid test. Two years later she was runner-up in the western women's championship, and is today one of America's greatest women golfers.

TWENTY-ONE BETTER 90

She has a 15-year-old son, a junior in a Kansas City high school, who gets a great kick out of his mother's golf.

Of the 100 women from all sections of the United States who teed off yesterday morning over the difficult 6500-yard championship course created by George C. Thomas, Jr., but one, Mrs. Hill, broke the 80 mark as the betting waged fiercely that the feat would not be accomplished. Twenty managed to better 90, ten had scores of 90 and 91, and four 92's played off for the thirty-second place.

Mrs. Leona Pressler of San Gabriel, runner-up to Miss Collett a year ago, turned in a brilliant round of 41-41—82. Mrs. Gregg Lifur of Riviera, former Southern California and California State champion, California's second ranking woman golfer, was the only one to duplicate Mrs. Hill's 39 on the incoming nine and finished with 44-39—83 to tie Mrs. Harley Higbie of Detroit with 43-40—83.

The 84's included Miss Edith Quier of Reading, Pa., and Mrs. Richard S. Edwards of the California Country Club. In the 85 bracket were Miss Marion Hollins of Santa Cruz, 1921 champion; Miss Helen Lawson of the Wilshire Country Club, and Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd, brilliant internationalist, three-times American women's champion, and the only player in the country who has held both the British women's and national titles in the same year, an honor which she won back in 1909.

Others who broke the 90 mark were Mrs. Roy Green of the California Country Club, and Miss Hermine Wocker of Burlingame, Cal., 86; Miss Bernice Wall of Oshkosh, Wis., Miss Peggy Wattles of Buffalo, N. Y., and Miss Lucille De Long of San Diego, 87; Mrs. Mark Steele of San Gabriel, 88, and Mrs. Harry Grossman of Hillcrest and Mrs. George M. Lewis of Los Angeles, 89.

MRS. RAYNOR IN

The remaining qualifiers for the first round of match play tomorrow are Miss Beatrice Gottlieb of Los Angeles, Mrs. Brent Potter of San Francisco, Miss Barbara Lee of Oakland, Miss Mary Saulsberry of Santa Ana, and Mrs. Milton Bernard of Berkeley, 90, and Mrs. J. C. Woerner of Los Angeles, Mrs. Russell Fowles of Long Beach, Miss Angie Parkhurst of Crystal Springs, Cal., Mrs. J. W. Taylor of Evanston, Ill., and Mrs. John Hollywood of Potrero, 91.

Mrs. Ralph T. Raynor of the Whitemarsh Country Club, Pennsylvania, won the play-off to sneak into the match play with a 5 on the first hole. Unsuccessful contestants were Mrs. W. W. Campbell of Los Angeles, who had a 6, and Mrs. Stewart Hanley of Detroit and Mrs. Wally Lohman of Hollywood with 7's.

Mrs. Raynor made a magnificent effort to get in. Her second shot found a trap to the right of the green, but she had a fine out to the green, and was down in two putts with the winning score.

There were few major casualties, the 1926 champion, Mrs. Helen B. Stetson of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Hanley being the only players of note to be left out.

And now let's get back to Mrs. Hill, whose great round featured some of the finest golf ever seen in the national championship.

Mrs. Hill is not a particularly long hitter off the tee, but neither is she short. Yesterday she was smashing 200-yard drives straight down the middle and seldom was off line. Her second shots were right on the pin all the way, and her chips and putts were clicking superbly—in other words, she was on her game.

A poor drive, a good second shot and a great mashie that stopped one foot from the pin, gave Mrs. Hill a birdie 4 to start with on the 500-yard first hole. She was over the 450-yard second hole with a spade after two long woods, chipped within four feet of the pin coming back and was down in 5. A spoon to the green and two putts netted her another par on the 350-yard third hole.

The 175-yard fourth hole, a tricky one shoter, furnished Mrs. Hill with the only serious trouble she was in all day. Her tee shot was buried in a trap, but she had a fair out. A fine chip shot landed in deep grass just short of the green, her fourth was dead and she was down in one putt for a 5.

The former western champion was nicely on the 450-yard fifth hole in 3, and down in two putts for a par. She underclubbed herself on the 320-yard sixth hole after a fine drive, poking a spade into a trap. On the green in three and down in two putts gave her a bogie 5.

ONE OVER PAR

From the seventh on in, Mrs. Hill was never over par. She was on the 350-yard seventh in two and down in two for a 4. Three fine wood shots and then a chip and run approach that stopped short of the cup netted a birdie 5 on the 525-yard eighth, and she got her 3 on the 175-yard ninth for a 40 going out, one over par.

The card:

Par (out) ......554 354 463—39
Mrs. Hill ....454 555 453—40

Mrs. Hill started the fireworks sputtering on the 400-yard tenth hole with a twenty-foot putt for a birdie 4. She sliced her tee shot on the 225-yard eleventh hole, was on in two and down in two.

On the 350-yard twelfth the medalist was slightly off with her tee shot. A weak approach left her short and she was fifteen feet past the pin with a chip-and-run shot, but calmly holed the putt, coming back for a par. Another fifteen-footer netted a par on the 430-yard thirteenth. On the 530-yard fourteenth hole she was on the edge in three and chipped to within a foot of the pin for a birdie 5.

A magnificent tee shot on the 140-yard fifteenth was four feet from the pin and she was down for a second consecutive birdie. She played the next two holes, 440 and 380 yards, respectively, in perfect figures, and a long putt on the 445-yard eighteenth green rimmed the cup to give her a 5.

The card:

Par (in) ....544 563 555—42—81
Mrs. Hill ....444 552 555—39—79

Miss Collett, Miss Van Wie, Miss Hicks, and Miss Orcutt all flirted with medal honors at one stage of the game or another.

MAUREEN GETS EAGLE

Miss Orcutt lost her chance on the ninth when she took a 6. Had she gotten her par here she would have had a 78. Maureen thrilled the gallery on the eighteenth by holing a forty-foot putt for a great eagle 3. She is playing beautiful golf.

"Billie" Hicks also had her big chance when she bagged an eagle 3 on sixteen and needed two 5's for a 79. She was over the seventeenth with a beautiful spoon shot and took 6 to get down.

Miss Van Wie had everything her own way going out in 38, but took an 8 on fourteen and three putted the short fifteenth to blow her chances.

Don't let anyone fool you about Glenna. She played poorly in practice and her downfall was predicted, but yesterday she was again the Glenna of old. She had eight pairs on the first nine, but took a 7 on the long eight when she missed a brassie.

Glenna is hitting her woods a mile, and is putting well. Her chip shots, however, have not yet begun to click for her. The first hole yesterday did much to give her confidence. She hit two booming woods down the heart of the fairway, but slopped a niblic shot short of the green. Her approach was weak, eight feet short, but the crisis was over when she holed the putt.

Cards for the leaders follow.

Miss Hicks (out) .645 355 453—40
Miss Collett ....554 354 474—40
Miss Orcutt ....554 254 466—41
Miss Van Wie...544 355 363—38
Mrs. Pressler....555 466 353—41
Miss Hicks (in) .434 573 365—40—80
Miss Collett ....544 653 455—41—81
Miss Orcutt ....634 573 543—40—81
Miss Van Wie...544 484 455—43—81
Mrs. Pressler....635 463 554—41—82

Ralph M. Huston, sorrel-topped Times expert, had his eagle eye out for features yesterday and reports the following interesting sidelights:

Mrs. Ralph Reynolds, who won the thirty-second place with a par 5 on the play-off, had a beautiful iron out of the trap some distance in front, and to the right of the green. It was her third shot, and she needed only 2 points to take the par 5 and the right to play in the championship.

Miss Jane Lohman looked die, but her third found a trap ular hole when her first two woods were right down the middle, but he rthird found a trap to the left of the green, and she took two to get out.

Virginia Van Wie scored the first birdie of the day when she took a 4 on No. 2. She was on in two, and took two putts.

Mrs. Gregg Lifur had three putts on the same hole, taking a 6.

Miss Peggy Wattles qualified with an 87 despite a 10 on the par-6 eighth. She had twelve pars and an eagle to make up for the blunder, however. The eagle came on the par 6 fourteenth, a 530-yard affair, that Miss Wattles carried in two.

Mrs. Hill started out her par-smashing round with a snappy birdie on the first hole, and kept up the good work thereafter.

Helen Hicks laid a four-iron dead to the pin for an eagle 3 on the sixteenth. She just missed getting a 2, the ball stopping about three inches from the cup.

Mrs. Lifur got a short drive on No. 6, but took a spoon and laid the ball dead to the pin, getting a 3 on the par-four hole.

Lucille DeLong, who weighs about ninety pounds, had plenty of power in her drives. She started out with four pars and had twelve pars and a birdie on the round.

Helen Lawson had an eagle on the par-six eighth. She shot two woods straight down the fairway, had a short pitch to the pin and sank her putt.

Only five birdies were recorded during the day, despite the fact that there were approximately 300 opportunities. Mrs. Hill, Bea Gottlieb and Mrs. V orhies got theirs on the fifteenth, while Maureen Orcutt and Mrs. Lifur got theirs on the fourth.

Mrs. C. K. Bellew could have gotten into the play-off with a pair of fives but took two sixes.

Mrs. C. A. Webster blew a chance to get into the match play with three sixes on the last three holes. She needed three fives for a 91, which would have qualified her without the necessity of a play-off.

Horton Smith and Johnny Dawson, noted male golfers, were on hand for the tournament. Smith reported he would start his winter campaign in San Francisco.

Rosenbloom Defends Title Against Bain

NEW YORK, Oct. 13. (AP)—Maxie Rosenbloom, light-heavyweight champion, will defend his title in Madison Square Garden, Oct. 22, in a fifteen-round match with Abie Bain, of Newark, N. J., it was announced today. The bout takes the place of a ten-round match between Justo Suarez and Kid Kaplan, lightweights, shifted to Oct. 17, at the Garden.

Mrs. Pressler Fashion-Plate of Tournament

BY LOIS V. BARRY

No brass bands nor pink lemonade, but—

With flags fluttering and gorgeously striped tents flapping—with vast areas of grass and green impressively roped off with yards and yards and yards of rope—

With uniformed policemen trying to appear occupied in the face of what they can hardly regard as anything but a holiday—

And with an unbelievable number of men and women looking official with gaily colored ribbons secured to lapel or sweater, running hither and yon in the performance of their mysterious duties, the long-desired and eagerly awaited women's national golf tournament has become an actuality and is in its second day of unfoldment.

If you want to faint or swoon or whatever it is one does, the most fashionable place to do it this week is at the Los Angeles Country Club. Not only fashionable but safe as well, for the thoughtful committee in charge of the tournament has rigged up a tent. Over it they have raised the crimson and white flag of the Red Cross and inside they have placed some cots and a medicine case and a pitcher of water and a real nurse in a nice starchy white uniform.

We'll wager if anyone is brought in there it will be due to sunstroke. Maybe you think these October days are balmy. Just try standing in the sun for an hour or two. Of course, it's all very unusual, the most unusual part being that anyone would stand in the sun for that length of time. But when the golf bug has bitten you there's no telling what you'll do.

The girls from the East like it out here, although they are still unanimous that the north course of the Los Angeles Country Club is the toughest course on which any woman's national has ever been held. They have compromised on the tees. They are not using the men's championship tees nor are they using those fixed up for the "weaker" sex. They are betwixt and between.

We promised ourselves when we stated out that no mention would be made of clothes and we thought up a dire penalty to be imposed should we break our promise. But we simply have to bestow honors for the most versatile dresser on Leona Pressler. She carries her wardrobe with her, although where she carries it we don't know. Vainly we looked all over for a hat box. But the fact remains she started out in a white-brimmed hat and came back in a white beret.

And now that we have broken the ice it won't do a bit of harm to mention that of all the women golfers we have ever seen, Edith Quier looks the least likely to be interested in athletics of any sort. She looks like the sort who would prefer trailing satin evening gowns or organdy garden frocks, but man alive! she can surely crack out a mean drive or settle down to a tricky putt as well as the best of 'em.

FIREMEN GET SET FOR LEGION CONTEST

Los Angeles Firemen football players plunged into practice yesterday at Harvard Playground for their next appearance before local fans which takes place Monday night at Wrigley Field when they tangle with the Santa Barbara American Legion team. The Smokeeaters returned early Sunday morning following a victorious visit to San Francisco where they defeated the strong West Coast Army team.

Tigers, Aztecs Mix Friday in Title Contest

Occidental College and San Diego State College gridders tangle next Friday night in the Rose Bowl in a game which will practically decide the Southern Conference football title. The Aztecs will come north holding an upset victory of 7-0 over Pomona, who was preseason favorite to cop the banner. Coach Eddie Kienholz's Tigers are sporting a 25-0 victory over Whittier, who was doped to finish right behind the Sagehen eleven. The game appears to be a toss-up with Oxy having the edge in offensive play and speed, while San Diego has the best defense and a heavier squad by almost ten pounds to the man.

Coach Kienholz shoved his aggregation through a hard practice session yesterday afternoon, and plans another similar workout this afternoon, with a little scrimmage mixed in also. Johnny Reed and Warren Eppinette appeared to be the only ailing Tigers yesterday, and both are expected to be in shape for the Aztec clash. There is a chance that Reed's ankle may keep him on the shelf, however.

The Oxy mentor is confident that his crew can outfight and outsmart the southerners next Friday night, since they hit their stride in the last half of the Poet tussle. Kienholz is determined to make it three conference titles in this, his third year as varsity coach.

ANGELS, STARS TO OPEN SERIES

the play-off. Jess Hill is expected to obtain a leave of absence from his Riverside J.C. coaching job to play for the Stars, while Dave Barbee figures to have his injured ankle back in shape. For the Stars Carl Dittmar ought to have his broken nose under control, Win Ballou's pitching arm should be in working order again and Frank Sigafoos's trick knee ought to be functioning as of yore.

Ed Baecht and Jim Turner, who are expected to be the starting pitchers in the play-off series, probably will be held out of action and pitched in only one game this week.

Other closing series on the Coast League schedule this week bring together the Seals and Missions at San Francisco, Indians and Oaks at Oakland and Ducks and Solons at Sacramento.

CLARENCE DE MAR IS WINNER OF MARATHON

PORT CHESTER (N. Y.) Oct. 13. (AP)—Clarence H. Demar, veteran of Keene, N. H., today ran sixty-five entries into the ground to win the sixth annual national marathon from New York City to Port Chester, a distance of twenty-six miles. His time was 2h. 46m. 15s. He ran unattached.

Percy Wyer, running under the colors of the Monarch A.C., Toronto, Can., finished second in 2:51:30, while Arthur J. Garvin, Millrose A.C., New York, came in third in 2:54:14. Albert (Whitey) Michelson of Port Chester, winner of last year's race, crossed the finish line fourth in 2:58:18.

Schulmerich Proud Papa

Good news comes in bunches for Wes Schulmerich, heavy-hitting Angel right fielder, whose wife yesterday presented him with a six and one-half-pound baby daughter at the Queen of the Angels Hospital. Sunday Schulmerich was informed by Angel officials that he had been sold to the Boston Braves and would report to the major-league club next spring. Both mother and daughter are doing well and looking forward to accompanying the head of the family to the big leagues next spring.

Beavers and Bells Divide

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13. (AP)—Portland split a double-header with the Missions here today. The Missions won the first game, 5 to 4, and the Beavers took the second encounter, 9 to 3. The Missions took the first game with a four-run rally in the ninth inning, but the visitors came back and led throughout the nightcap. The Reds broke out with a three-run rally in the sixth stanza when Rodda knocked a homer with two men on bases, but that ended the home-team scoring. Johnson also socked a homer for the Beavers in the second. The score:

Acorns Trim Seals Twice

OAKLAND, Oct. 13. (AP)—The Oaks won both games of today's double-header with the Seals, 7 to 3 and 3 to 1. Five bunched hits off Hal Turpin decided the first game in the opening inning, when five runs were scored.

Buzz Arlett cinched the second game for the Oaks in the opening frame when he hit a home run over the left-field fence, scoring Brubaker ahead of him. Craghead, pitching for Oakland, allowed only six hits. The score:

WHITTIER TO PLAY PANTHER GRIDDERS

Coach Wallace (Chief) Newman's Whittier eleven, now recovering from the Occidental catastrophe, will try the fortune of battle with California Christian College under the glare of Hadley Field lights this Friday night. The Poets are by no means downcast, but, on the contrary, look forward to handing the Vermont-avenue gridders something of a lacing.

GEORGE IN FINAL DRILL

Former Amateur King Takes Last Workout Before McCoy Bout in Olympic Tomorrow

Don George, former national amateur mat king, who will clash with Bob (Bibbier) McCoy, flying-tackle exponent, in a finish bout at the Olympic tomorrow night, looked like a champion in his final workout yesterday in preparation for this battle.

He displayed great speed, rugged aggressiveness and a great variety of holds, which he clamped on from almost any position. He expects to tie McCoy into so many knots that the flying tackle expert will be too busy untangling himself to do any tackling in this bout.

George does not fear the type of tackles used by McCoy. He declares that the long, leaping lunges McCoy makes to bring down his foes are the easiest to evade. He is not only certain he can sidestep them, but he also intends to do a great deal of stiff-arm work in this bout to discourage McCoy's efforts along the tackling line.

As the winner of this bout is scheduled to meet Champion Gus Sonnenberg in a title bout here next, both McCoy and George are expected to display everything they have in the wrestling line when they come together for the first time.

The match between Jose Dominguez and Joe Malcewicz is expected to be as fast and about as sensational as the feature event. The Utican is in as good condition at the present time as he was when he was meeting such men as Joe Stecher, Ed Lewis and others of that caliber here more than a year ago. Dominguez is reported to be as fast and as finished a grappler as Malcewicz. The Mexican star speaks very little English, but his mat holds are very impressive, according to those who have seen him in training.

Nick Lutze will tangle with Moose Norbeck in the opener. The big Canadian is being counted upon to give Lutze a close, hard match.

MRS. HILL IN FEATURE

Miss Wall, whose play has been ragged, both in practice and in the qualifying round. The Oshkosh golfer played with Miss Glenna Colett yesterday and carded an 87.

Two of the youngest stars in the tournament, Helen Hicks of Inwood, N. Y., and Miss Lucille DeLong of San Diego match strokes in what should prove to be another fine match. The long-driving eastern star has the edge, but Miss DeLong is a courageous player and will undoubtedly make a match of it.

Miss Edith Quier of Reading, Pa., may find a tartar in Mrs. Brent Potter of San Francisco, one of California's finest golfers.

The remaining matches all favor the leading players and, barring the always possible upset, the big thrills are on tap for tomorrow. Providing the favorites come through on schedule, the following matches will furnish the fireworks on tomorrow's program: Mrs. Hill vs. Miss Quier, Miss Maureen Orcutt vs. Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd, Miss Virginia Van Wie vs. Miss Marion Hollins, Mrs. Gregg Lifur vs. Mrs. Roy Green, Miss Hicks vs. Mrs. R. S. Edwards, Mrs. Leona Pressler vs. Mrs. C. J. Woerner, Miss Collett vs. Miss Helen Lawson and Mrs. Harley Higbie vs. Miss Peggy Wattles.

There will be no Mrs. Pressler-Miss Collett final this year with both stars in the lower bracket. If nothing happens to intervene, and these two should win their first two matches, they will clash in the quarter-finals on Thursday.

Southern California qualified fourteen women for the championship, and nine of these broke the 90 mark. Southland stars who will attempt to bring the national championship here for the first time are Mrs. George M. Lewis of Los Angeles, Mrs. Russell Fowles of Long Beach, Mrs. Mark Steele of San Gabriel, Mrs. Gregg Lifur of Riviera, Miss Marie Saulsberry of Santa Ana, Mrs. Roy Green of California, Miss Lucille DeLong of San Diego, Mrs. R. S. Edwards of California, Mrs. Pressler of San Gabriel, Mrs. C. J. Woerner of Los Angeles, Mrs. Harry Grossman of Hillcrest, Miss Helene Lawson of Wilshire, Mrs. John Hollywood of Potrero and Miss Beatrice Gottlieb of Los Angeles.

WALKER STOPS FOE IN OPENING ROUND

DES MOINES (Iowa) O 13. (AP) Mickey Walker, world's middleweight champion, made short work of his scheduled ten-round fight with Mike Mandell of St. Paul tonight, being awarded a technical knockout before the end of the first round. Walker, although outweighed sixteen pounds, pounded Mandell to the floor for two counts of nine and then sent him reeling to the ropes, helpless.

Referee Ed Cochrane of Kansas City stopped the fight without counting again.

QUINTERO BEATS CORTEZ

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 13. (AP)—Manuel Quintero, Tampa, Fla., outpointed Joe Cortez, Boise, Idaho, in a ten-round boxing bout here tonight.

TOM HEENEY BEATEN

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 13. (AP)—Emmet Rocco, Ellwood City, gained a ten-round decision here tonight over Tom Heeney, New Zealand heavyweight. Rocco weighed 188 pounds, Heeney 205.

M'CARTHY EXPECTED TO SIGN WITH YANKS SOON

NEW YORK, Oct. 13. (AP)—One day this week, possibly tomorrow, Joseph V. McCarthy is expected to visit the offices of the New York American League baseball club and sign a contract to manage the Yankees.

The Yankee offices today observed the Columbus Day holiday, but will be open tomorrow and the rest of the week. So the former manager of the Cubs may send his card and soon thereafter take a pen in hand to sign a contract.

Neither Jacob Ruppert, president, nor E. G. Barrow, secretary, has admitted McCarthy will transfer his allegiance from the National to the American League, but everyone else in baseball seems to have taken it for granted.

DE VOS WINS ON FOUL

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13. (AP)—Rene De Vos, hard-punching Belgian middleweight, won over Joe Anderson, Covington, Ky., on a foul in the eighth round of their ten-round bout at the arena tonight.

HOLLYWOOD MONARCHS WIN

The Hollywood Monarchs won an exciting ice hockey battle from the Los Angeles Bruins last night at the Palais De Glace by a 6-to-5 margin.

The youth was well known at the house. He said he had come with a secret message for Favonia. As the slave disappeared to relay his message, the youth withdrew the bolt and opened the door. The shadows under the trees turned into men and they dashed into the house on the heels of the youth. There they waited in the anteroom.

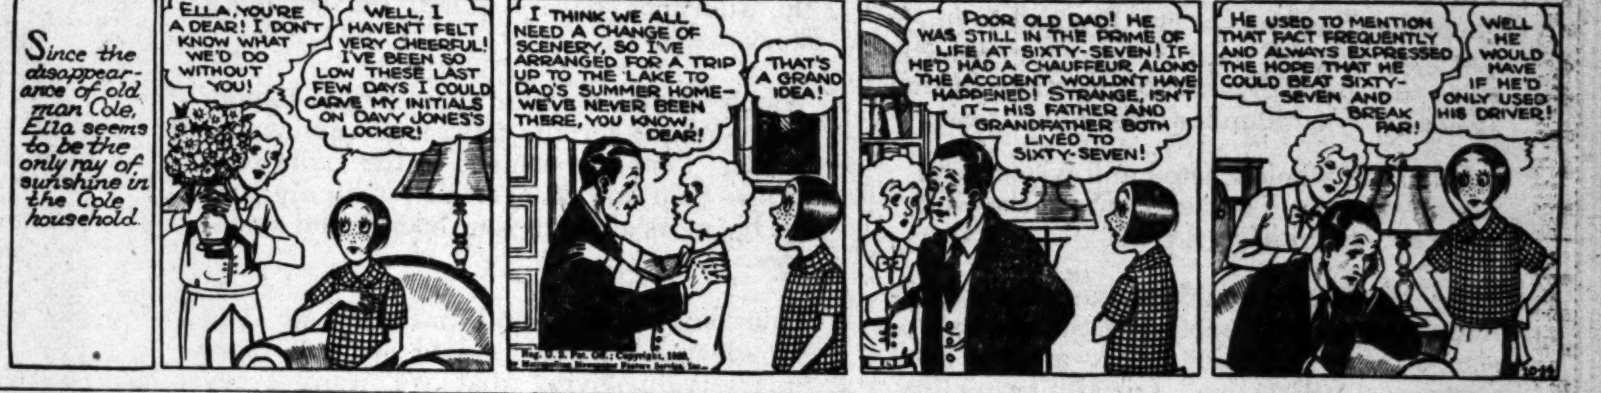
ELLA CINDERS

The Game of Life

By Bill Conselman and Charlie Plumb



Since the disappearance of old man Cole, Ella seems to be the only ray of sunshine in the Cole household.
ELLA, YOU'RE A DEAR! I DON'T KNOW WHAT WE'D DO WITHOUT YOU!
WELL, I HAVEN'T FELT VERY CHEERFUL! I'VE BEEN SO LOW THESE LAST FEW DAYS I COULD CARVE MY INITIALS ON DAVY JONES'S LOCKER!
I THINK WE ALL NEED A CHANGE OF SCENERY, SO I'VE ARRANGED FOR A TRIP UP TO THE LAKE TO DAD'S SUMMER HOME—WE'VE NEVER BEEN THERE, YOU KNOW, DEAR!
THAT'S A GRAND IDEA!
POOR OLD DAD! HE WAS STILL IN THE PRIME OF LIFE AT SIXTY-SEVEN! IF HE'D HAD A CHAUFFEUR ALONG THE ACCIDENT WOULDN'T HAVE HAPPENED! STRANGE, ISN'T IT—HIS FATHER AND GRANDFATHER BOTH LIVED TO SIXTY-SEVEN!
HE USED TO MENTION THAT FACT FREQUENTLY AND ALWAYS EXPRESSED THE HOPE THAT HE COULD BEAT SIXTY-SEVEN AND BREAK PAR!
WELL HE WOULD HAVE IF HE'D ONLY USED HIS DRIVER!

The BROADWAY'S Happy Family of 3,000 Invites You To The Greatest 3-Day Event In All Broadway History!

THE GIGANTIC SECOND ANNUAL—

HOUSEWARMING SALE

THURSDAY--FRIDAY--SATURDAY

New Fall and Christmas Merchandise at Prices Sensationally Low

One year ago The Broadway completed a program of improvements which placed this store among the most modern and conveniently appointed in the country.

These improvements were in line with The Broadway's uncompromising policy to carry ever forward that complete and satisfying service which has always characterized this store.

The Broadway's first year in its modernized home has been a truly great one. Thousands of old friends have been outspoken in their appreciation of our enlarged and improved facilities.

Thousands of new friends, we are proud to announce, have made The Broadway "their store" during the past year. Our records show that the individual transactions during 1930 greatly outnumber those of last year.

For such wholehearted and widespread appreciation of our efforts to serve well we are genuinely grateful.

How more fitting could we express our gratitude than to hold another great and enthusiastic "Housewarming Sale"—another demonstration of Broadway friendly hospitality, expressed in value-giving rather than in mere words!

So please accept this announcement as YOUR invitation to share in the three greatest selling days in the history of The Broadway. Remember that tremendously successful Housewarming Sale of last year? It set a record in Los Angeles retailing.

This year's event has been carefully planned to surpass last year's brilliant achievement. Every department from the top floor to the basement is ready with values the like of which have rarely been offered before.

The values are so many and so important that it is necessary to issue a 16-page circular—and to take double-page spreads in the afternoon papers to tell the complete story.

Watch for this circular at your door tomorrow. Watch for the newspaper announcements. Listen in tonight to the radio program—8:30 to 9:30 over KFI. Kindly pass the big news along to your friends and neighbors.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday at The Broadway! — three days of such extraordinary value-giving that we want every person in Southern California to receive this important news.
